Blacks and Jews in Literary Conversation E. Miller Budick, 1998-09-28 Blacks and Jews in Literary Conversation explores the works of a range of black and Jewish writers critics and academics from the 1950s to the 1980s By recording conversations both direct such as essays and letters and indirect such as the fiction of Bernard Malamud Philip Roth Alice Walker Cynthia Ozick Toni Morrison and James Baldwin this book shows how dialogue can engender misperceptions and misunderstandings and how blacks and Jews in America have both sought and resisted assimilation By analyzing the history of this discourse the author explores the ways in which ethnic fiction works in interethnic America the effects of identity politics and the tensions and bonds created as African and Jewish Americans continue to construct their ethnic and religious identities in the United States

Brooks, Bruce Makoto Arnold, 2014-06-01 While nation engages in debates concerning central issues of religion and religious diversity in education the historic saliency of religion and spirituality in the Black community and in the education of its children continues to be largely ignored Historically religion and spirituality were foundational to the development and understanding of social justice issues including but not limited to issues of protest community uplift notions of care and anti oppression Taking into account the historical significance of religion and spirituality in the Black community it is essential for education scholars to cultivate these long standing connections as a means for advancing contemporary struggles for social justice religiosity in education and counter hegemonic praxis The purpose of this book is to expand our understanding of spirituality and religion as related to the p 20 schooling of Blacks students Educational scholarship continues to explore the workings of social justice to ameliorate inequities for those who have not been well served in schools Although the concept of social justice remains a somewhat inchoate term in educational literature this book seeks to explore the historicity of religion and spirituality while offering a scaffold that links ordinary everyday acts of justice religion and spirituality in education to a culture that systematically and institutionally assaults the worth of Black students It is important to note that this book is grounded in a broad concept of religion and spirituality and the editors seek to be inclusive of all types styles and traditions of religiosity and spirituality Black Slavery in America Parvin Kujooory, 1995 Lists non print media items on black slavery in the U S from 1903 through 1994 Understanding African American Rhetoric Ronald L. Jackson II, Elaine B. Richardson, 2014-05-22 This is an extraordinarily well balanced collection of essays focused on varied expressions of African American Rhetoric it also is a critical antidote to a preoccupation with Western Rhetoric as the arbiter of what counts for effective rhetoric Rather than impose Western terminology on African and African American rhetoric the essays in this volume seek to illumine rhetoric from within its own cultural expression thereby creating an understanding grounded in the culture s values The consequence is a richly detailed and well researched set of essays The contribution of African American rhetoric can no longer be rendered invisible through neglect of its tradition The essays in this volume neither seek to displace Western Rhetoric nor function as an uncritical paen to Afrocentricity and Africology This volume is both timely and essential timely in advancing a better understanding of the richly textured history that is expressed through African American discourse and essential as a counterpoint to the hegemonic influence of Greek and Roman rhetoric as the origin of rhetorical theory and practice Written in the spirit of a critical rhetoric this collection eschews traditional
