Black And White Power Subreption:

Black and White Power Subreption Joseph R. Washington, 1996 Black and White Power Subreption Joseph R. Washington, 1969 The Cambridge Companion to Black Theology Dwight N. Hopkins, Edward P. Antonio, 2012-07-26 A comprehensive look at black theology and its connection with major doctrinal themes within Christianity from a global perspective Black Theology USA and South Africa Dwight N. Hopkins, 2005-12-01 Black theology continually poses a challenge to Christian witness and faith Through a critical analysis of leading religious thinkers Dwight N Hopkins explores the fundamental differences and similarities between black theology in the United States and black theology in South Africa and asks What is the common denominator between the two Part I examines the historical political cultural and theological background of contemporary black theology in both countries Hopkins delves into the distinctive situation of each country focusing on civil rights black power and related political cultural and theological themes in the United States and on civil disobedience black consciousness the unity of politics and culture and political cultural theological themes in South Africa Through interviews with leading black religious scholars Part II explores these theologies in depth Contrasting the cultural theological trend with the political theological trend in the USA Hopkins explores the ideas of theologians Albert B Cleage James H Cone J Deotis Roberts William R Jones Gayraud S Wilmore Charles H Long Cecil W Cone and Vincent Harding In Part III Hopkins examines the same two trends cultural theological and political theological in South Africa Here the focus is on the impact of black consciousness and Soweto and the works of Manas Buthelezi Allan Boesak Simon S Maimela Frank Chikane Bonganjalo C Goba Itumeleng J Mosala Takatso A Mofokeng and Desmond M Tutu Part IV brings black theology USA and black theology South Africa into dialogue Hopkins locates the common denominator between the tow theologies that they both claim the Christian gospel as the gospel of liberation for black people struggling against racism and for a holistic humanity physically and spiritually politically and culturally He concludes by looking toward future areas of development and collaboration arguing that an effective black theology of liberation must integrate politics and culture insuring that the two are equal and complementary two tributaries within the same current The Decline of African American Theology Thabiti M. Anyabwile, 2009-08-20 Thabiti Anyabwile argues that contemporary African American theology has fallen far from the tree of its early American antecedents This book is a goldmine for any reader interested in the history of African American Christianity With a foreword by Mark Noll Prophet from the South Prince Dibeela, Puleng Lenka-Bula, Vuyani Vellem, 2014-08-01 Allan Boesak was one of the foremost leaders in the struggle against apartheid His role in the church in South Africa internationally and in the United Democratic Front contributed significantly to the demise of apartheid He championed the rights of the oppressed and became the representative voice of the poor and disadvantaged Allan is a gifted preacher teacher theologian writer and an orator blessed with poetic tendencies and a flourishing vocabulary He has the natural ability to inspire motivate and stimulate critical and analytical thinking and responses where globalisation threatens to be a new form of colonisation He has eloquently championed the cause of economic justice for the earth gender justice and the struggle against homophobia in the church His voice is a voice we urgently need to hear again in this era

Contemporary American Theologies Deane W. Fernald, 2004-04-15 An up to date book that surveys almost all of the contemporary schools of Christian thought in America well structured and methodically developed clearly written and easy to read Fernald does an excellent job of pointing out all the differences among the leading thinkers of each camp Fernald's greatest asset is his uncanny ability to synthesize these diverse theologies into a larger conceptual whole without diminishing their distinctiveness A landmark of clarity Richard Quebedeaux in The Christian Century Contemporary American Theologies assesses the most significant writers and books that make up evangelical black Roman Catholic feminist and liberation theologies Equally useful as an introduction or as a review Marianne Sawicki in Commonweal Farewell to Innocence Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2015-05-01 While we acknowledge that all expressions of liberation theology are not identical we must protest very strongly against the false divisions that some make between black theology in South Africa and black theology in the United States between black theology and African theology and between black theology and Latin American liberation theology But moving away from the illusioned universality of western theology to the contextuality of liberation theology is a risky business one that cannot be done innocently In the search for theological and human authenticity in its own situation black theology does not stand alone It is but one expression of this search going on within many different contexts Until now the Christian church had chosen to move through history with a bland kind of innocence hiding the painful truths of oppression behind a facade of myths and real or imagined anxieties This is no longer possible The oppressed who believe in God the Father of Jesus Christ no longer want to believe in the myths created to subjugate them It is no longer possible to innocently accept history as it happens silently hoping that God would take the responsibility for human failure The theology of liberation spells out this realization For the Christian church it constitutes in no uncertain terms farewell to innocence

African American Religious Studies Gayraud S. Wilmore, 1989 This anthology provides a coherent interdisciplinary theoretical base for students of African American religious studies and will assist in the design of programs and courses for lay theological education and training To this end the editor has assembled material from Old and New Testament studies theology church history pastoral counseling worship and social action

Black Theology—Essays on Global Perspectives Dwight N. Hopkins, 2017-06-15 Since its start in 1966 black liberation theology in the United States has continually engaged international developments with Africa and the entire world But after Nelson Mandela was released from prison in February 1990 there has been an almost twenty year break in books on black theology and international affairs Black Theology Essays on Global Perspectives bridges that post 1990 gap and makes a vital contact with Africa again This book conceptualizes black theology to take on the global reconfigurations and opportunities brought about by the rapidly shrinking earth of fast paced worldwide contacts In other words in the specificity of the genealogy of black theology

we need to reforge ties with Africa This claim is based on tradition And in the generality of the larger worldwide intertwining of technologies and economics we need a new type of black theological leadership for the twenty first century This claim is based on today s international challenges The essays in this book draw on tradition and point forward in the midst of today s worldwide challenges and favorable possibilities given the closeness of all nations and the varieties of cultures Ebony, 1969-12 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine To Make the Wounded Whole Lewis V. Baldwin, To Make the Wounded Whole describes how King s black messianic vision propelled him into fateful encounters with other black leaders the war in Vietnam black theology and world liberation movements New Day in Babylon William L. Van Deburg, 1993-09-01 The most comprehensive account available of the rise and fall of the Black Power Movement and of its dramatic transformation of both African American and larger American culture With a gift for storytelling and an ear for street talk William Van Deburg chronicles a decade of deep change from the armed struggles of the Black Panther party to the cultural nationalism of artists and writers creating a new aesthetic Van Deburg contends that although its tactical gains were sometimes short lived the Black Power movement did succeed in making a revolution one in culture and consciousness that has changed the context of race in America New Day in Babylon is an extremely intelligent synthesis a densely textured evocation of one of American history s most revolutionary transformations in ethnic group consciousness Bob Blauner New York Times Winner of the Gustavus Myers Center Outstanding Book Award 1993 For My People Cone, James, H., 2024-10-23 Ethics and Theology from the Other Side Enoch H. Oglesby, 1979-02-13 Encyclopedia of African American Religions Larry G. Murphy, J. Gordon Melton, Gary L. Ward, 2013-11-20 Preceded by three introductory essays and a chronology of major events in black religious history from 1618 to 1991 this A Z encyclopedia includes three types of entries Biographical sketches of 773 African American religious leaders 341 entries on African American denominations and religious organizations including white churches with significant black memberships and educational institutions Topical articles on important aspects of African American religious life e g African American Christians during the Colonial Era Music in the African American Church The African and Conscientization Christian C. Anyanwu, 2012-01-10 The withdrawal of imperial colonizers from Africa in the second half of the 20th century precipitated the need for newly independent African nations to establish political economic and social structures that would ensure the development of cohesive stable and functional nations While Africans yearned for independence once granted the challenges of nation building became apparent immediately Nigeria like many African nations has stumbled through the early postcolonial period with no clear post colonial direction dashing the hopes of its people and undermining confidence in its future This book makes the case that the protracted decades of underdevelopment in Africa and especially Nigeria is traceable to a crisis of leadership that has crystallized in the institutionalization of organized corruption as part of its professional ethos It argues that as a direct consequence of such practices over several decades the population has been dehumanized The situation of Africa in general and Nigeria in particular has been deemed so inimical and colossal that Justice Oputas panel advised a program of moral action from kindergarten right through to the entire polity Report of the Human Rights Violations Investigation Commission 2002 This is an indictment on the Nigerian population and rightly so because for more than 40 years after independence the country has been through a spiraling crisis in leadership and corruption such that massive looting of the national treasure is unprecedented in the history of developing countries So many attempts have been made in search of national ideology that might spur development This writer is proposing in this vein the implementation of a Conscientization philosophy similar to Paulo Freires as a viable ideology that would arrest and reverse the deteriorating situation Freires thought was influenced largely by socio Economic and political situations in Brazil These same ugly and dehumanizing conditions are now generally characteristic of Nigeria Hence Freires education as practice of freedom is very relevant to the Nigerian situation This dissertation elaborates how to develop and implement the Conscientization philosophy and shows why it would be extraordinarily appropriate in Nigeria in such a way as to contribute to the good society
