14921992 Five Centuries Of Imperialism And Resistance:

American Empire and the Fourth World Anthony J. Hall, 2003-11-10 In The American Empire and the Fourth World Anthony Hall presents a sweeping analysis of encounters between indigenous people and the European empires national governments and global corporations on the moving frontiers of globalization since Columbus discovered America How should we respond to the emergence of the United States as the military commercial and cultural centre of a global empire How can we elaborate a global rule of law based on equality and democracy when the world s most powerful polity acknowledges no higher authority in the international arena than its own domestic priorities For Hall the answer lies in the concept of the Fourth World an inclusive intellectual tent covering a wide range of movements whose leaders seek to implement alternative views of globalization Larger than any earlier political movement the Fourth World embraces basic principles that include the inherent rights of self determination and a more just approach to the crafting and enforcement of international law

The American Empire and the Fourth World Anthony J. Hall, Tony Hall, 2005 In a book that Naomi Klein says could change the world Anthony Hall shows that the globalization debate actually began in 1492 1492-1992 Ron G. Bourgeault, 1993

Earth Into Property Tony Hall, 2010 A broad exploration of the colonial roots of global capitalism and the worldwide quest of Indigenous people for liberation through decolonization

CCF Colonialism in Northern Saskatchewan David Quiring, 2007-10 An elegantly written history that documents the colonial relationship between the CCF and the Saskatchewan north

Women Out of Place Brackette Williams, 2013-12-02 These essays investigate the links between agency and race with regard to constructions of masculinity and femininity among radical groups resisting varied forms of political and economic domination Building on the work of anthropologists historians sociologists literary critics and feminist philosophers of science the essays in Women Out of Place the Gender of Agency and Race of Nationality investigate the links between agency and race for what they reveal about constructions of masculinity and femininity and patterns of domesticity among groups seeking to resist varied forms of political and economic domination through a subnational ideology of racial and cultural redemption

Disrobing the Aboriginal Industry Frances Widdowson, Albert Howard, 2008-10-24 Despite the billions of dollars devoted to aboriginal causes Native people in Canada continue to suffer all the symptoms of a marginalized existence high rates of substance abuse violence poverty Disrobing the Aboriginal Industry argues that the policies proposed to address these problems land claims and self government are in fact contributing to their entrenchment

Rebels, Reds, Radicals Ian McKay, 2005 An engaging introduction to the vibrant history of the political left in Canada

Global Iconoclasm: Contesting "Official" Mnemonic Landscapes Michael Ripmeester, Matthew W. Rofe, 2024-06-24 Geographers and others have been long aware that landscapes are neither natural or neutral This is particularly true of landscapes of memory Powerful groups inscribe such landscapes with both a preferred vision of the past and with sets of idealized societal values and morays Yet and despite the authoritative weight such landscapes carry they can be challenged

Even before the monument topplings of 2020 groups across the globe were challenging official memory discourses This volume offers case studies of what might be considered global iconoclasm Drawing upon original international case studies this monograph critically engages with and reveals the dynamics of landscape contestation From the Tsunami Museum of Banda Aceh to the echoes of Mussolini s Fascist Italy by way of the decolonization of sites in Australia New Zealand Colombia and Africa the processes of landscape contestation are innovatively teased out by established and newly emerging scholars This book should be of interest to any scholar interested in the politics of mnemonic landscapes Meaningful Pasts Russell Johnston, Michael Ripmeester, 2024-01-31 In Meaningful Pasts Russell Johnston and Michael Ripmeester explore two strands of identity making among residents of the Niagara region in Ontario Canada First they describe the region s official narratives most of which celebrate the achievements of white settlers with a mix of storytelling rituals and monuments Despite their presence in local lore and landmarks these official narratives did not resonate with the nearly one thousand residents who participated in five surveys conducted over eleven years Instead participants drew on contemporary people places and events Second the authors explore the emergence of Niagara s wine industry as a heritage narrative The book shares how the survey participants embraced the industry as a local identifier and indicates how the industry s efforts have rekindled the residents interest in agriculture as a significant element of regional heritage and local identities Revealing how the profiles of local narratives and commemorations become entwined with social cultural economic and political power Meaningful Pasts illuminates the fact that local narratives retain their relevance only if residents find them meaningful in their day to day lives Moral Regulation and Governance in Canada Amanda Glasbeek, 2006 Moral Regulation and Governance in Canada offers an outstanding selection of readings that represents an overview of the key issues in deviance moral regulation and governance in Canada from a distinctly Canadian perspective It effectively tracks the sociology of deviance from governmentality studies to theories of social control Of particular note is the focus this book gives to gender issues It also argues that sometimes what is considered deviant is less related to criminality and more concerned with the perception of normalcy 1492-1992 , 1992 Canadian Labour Policy and Politics John Peters, Don Wells, 2022-11-01 Canadian Labour Policy and Politics is essential reading for undergraduates studying Canada s labour market This comprehensive textbook traces the causes and rise of labour inequities and outlines solutions for a more sustainable future Written in clear and accessible language by leading experts and practitioners this book demonstrates how and why laws and public policy intended to protect workers often leave employees vulnerable and with little economic or social security Based on up to date data and framed in the context of international developments this essential text provide readers with real world examples and case studies of how globalization labour laws employment standards COVID 19 and other issues affect workers on and off the job Canadian Labour Policy and Politics invites students into defining a policy agenda for developing greater economic equality and political inclusiveness while fostering a green recovery Key features include chapter summaries and outlines suggestions for further reading and glossaries of key terms Home Economics Nandita Rani Sharma, 2006-01-01 Home Economics is an urgent and much needed reminder that society must pay careful attention to how nationalist ideologies construct homelands that essentially leave the vast majority of the world's migrant peoples homeless *Canadian
