Sinn Fein Rebellion Handbook, Easter, 1916 Irish Times, Ltd. (Dublin, Ireland),1916 The Life of Sir Denis Henry A. D. McDonnell,2000 Denis Stanislaus Henry occupies a unique place in the political and legal history of Northern Ireland politics As a catholic Henry supported the Union from the time of Gladstone s first Home Rule Bill of 1886 and after joining the Ulster Unionist Council upon its formation in 1905 unsuccessfully contested the North Tyrone constituency in 1906 and 1907 losing by the narrow margins of 9 and 7 votes respectively Henry set aside these setbacks in politics and continued with his legal career which saw him emerge as one of the outstanding lawyers of the Irish Bar practising in the Four Courts in Dublin and becoming Father of the old North West Circuit Henry eventually entered Westminster after winning his native South Derry seat in May 1916 in what was the first electoral contest in Ireland following the outbreak of the Easter Rising The Occasion was the first time in which a Catholic represented a Unionist constituency in Ulster and Henry s retention of South Derry in the post war general election of 1918 marked the last After a brief period as Solicitor General for Ireland in 1918 Henry was appointed Attorney General in 1919 and as the leading Irish Law officer was at the forefront in Parliament in defending and explaining Government policy during the Anglo Irish War of 1919 1921 Henry became the first Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland in 1921 and spent the final four years of his life leading a new Judiciary during one of the most turbulent periods in the province s history The Dead of the Irish Revolution Eunan O'Halpin,Daithi O Corrain,2020-10-27 The first comprehensive account to record and analyze all deaths arising from the Irish revolution between 1916 and 1921 This account covers the turbulent period from the 1916 Rising to the Anglo Irish Treaty of December 1921 a period which saw the achievement of independence for most of nationalist Ireland and the establishment of Northern Ireland as a self governing province of the United Kingdom Separatists fought for independence against government forces and in North East Ulster armed loyalists Civilians suffered violence from all combatants sometimes as collateral damage often as targets Eunan O Halpin and Daithi Corr in catalogue and analyze the deaths of all men women and children who died during the revolutionary years 505 in 1916 2 344 between 1917 and 1921 This study provides a unique and comprehensive picture of everyone who died in what manner by whose hands and why Through their stories we obtain original insight into the Irish revolution itself County Louth and the Irish Revolution Donal Hall,Maguire Martin,2017-04-10 County Louth and the Irish Revolution 1912 1923 explores the local activism of the IRA and how revolution was experienced by rural and urban labourers RIC men republican women cultural activists and Big House families Events were increasingly shaped for all these groups by the developing reality of partition transforming a marginal county into a borderland and creating a zone of new violence and banditry The expert contributors to the first ever local history of the county during this period bring to light a wealth of fascinating stories that will appeal to the general public and historians alike Critically these stories reveal new findings about the early military skirmishes in County Louth by republican figures such as Seán MacEntee and Frank Aiken the controversial sectarian massacre at Altnaveigh and how the Civil War made a fiery battlefield of Dundalk and Drogheda County Louth and the Irish Revolution 1912-1923 documents the complexity of the local experience as the national revolution merged with long established antagonisms and traditions the effects of which have shaped the county ever since
