Journal Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce,1868 English Mechanic and World of Science ,1871 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1867 Practical Instrumentation Richard Hofmann,1893 Stereotomy José Calvo-López,2020-08-08 This book deals with the general concepts in stereotomy and its connection with descriptive geometry the social background of its practitioners and theoreticians the general methods and tools of this technology and the specific procedures for the members built in hewn stone including arches squinches stairs and vaults ending with a chapter discussing the open problems in this field Thus it can be used as a reference book in the subject but it can also read as a compelling narrative on this subject one of the main branches of pre industrial technology Construction in hewn stone requires the use of geometrical methods and tools to assure that individual stones either blocks or voussoirs fit with one another and conform to the general shape of walls arches or vaults During the Late Middle Ages and the Renaissance such techniques and instruments were developed empirically by masons and architects Later on learned mathematicians and engineers introduced refinements in these procedures and this branch of knowledge known as stereotomy furnished much material to descriptive geometry a science born with the French Revolution which provided the foundation for projective geometry History of Chicago Alfred Theodore Andreas,1884 The New York Schools of Music and the Visual Arts Steven Johnson,2012-11-12 Musicians and artists have always shared mutual interests and exchanged theories of art and creativity This exchange climaxed just after World War II when a group of New York based musicians including John Cage Morton Feldman Earle Brown and David Tudor formed friendships with a group of painters The latter group now known collectively as either the New York School or the Abstract Expressionists included Jackson Pollock Willem deKooning Robert Motherwell Mark Rothko Barnett Newman Clyfford Still Franz Kline Phillip Guston and William Bazotes The group also included a younger generation of artists particularly Robert Rauschenberg and Jasper Johns that stood somewhat apart from the Abstract Expressionists This group of painters created what is arguably the first significant American movement in the visual arts Inspired by the artists the New York School composers accomplished a similar feat By the beginning of the 1960s the New York Schools of art and music had assumed a position of leadership in the world of art For anyone interested in the development of 20th century art music and culture The New York Schools of Music and Art will make for illuminating reading
