Back Porch Faith Paul Prather, 2013-02-05 The essays included are informal accessible musings not sanctimonious sermons. They are intended for anyone who wants to take time to consider spiritual issues regardless of his or her involvement in organized religion. The subjects addressed are universal faith in God forgiveness appreciation of one's family the fleetingness of time the relationship between science and religion Back Porch Faith will appeal to the growing number of people who have come to feel that spirituality is not simply the province of their own particular denomination or sect Any thoughtful person whether Christian Jew Buddhist or other will feel engaged and enriched by the words found here. An Ordinary Dude's Guide to Meditation John Weiler, There are hundreds of meditation books out there Many written by monks and some written by hippies and spiritual gurus But how many of these books are written by an ordinary dude. Someone who is just like you someone who has a day job whose preferred outfit is jeans and a t shirt and enjoys knocking back a few beers on Friday night I m as ordinary as they come. The only difference I ve been meditating for over 13 years And I want to show you how you can meditate too in a straightforward language that any ordinary dude or dudette can understand. Over a decade of practice meditation has transformed my life bringing more peace calm and clarity into it than I could have ever imagined when I started at the age of 19 And now I want to share how meditation can do the same for you

101 Reflections on Faith and Life Paul F. Soderquist, 2008-05-19 Get ready to slow down settle into a favorite chair and spend some time growing closer to God This book is filled with 101 inspiring uplifting and sometimes heart wrenching reflections on scripture readings and life experiences Original poetry prayers writings photographs and lyrics all come together as one soul's expression of faith Written by a Christian Presbyterian pastor for anyone on the journey of faith church members religious leaders pastors seminarians and spiritual directors Draws upon the practice of contemplative prayer the use of lectio divina holy reading of scripture and engagement of the imagination when meditating on scripture Apart Christopher D Ringwald, 2008-11-14 The Sabbath is the original feast day a day of joy and freedom from work a holy day that allows us to reconnect with God our fellows and nature Now in a compelling blend of journalism scholarship and personal memoir Christopher D Ringwald examines the Sabbath from Creation to the present weaving together the stories of three families three religions and three thousand years of history A Day Apart is the first book to examine the Sabbath in Judaism Christianity and Islam A marvelously readable book it describes the three weekly holy days the Muslim Juma on Friday the Jewish Shabbat on Saturday and the Christian Lord s Day on Sunday and introduces us to three families including Ringwald's own and shows how they observe the holy day and what it means to them The heart of the book recounts the history of the Sabbath ranging from the Creation story and Moses on Mount Sinai to the teachings of Jesus and Muhammad the impact of the Protestant Reformation and the Industrial Revolution and the rise of the modern weekend Ringwald shows that the Sabbath instinct to observe a special day of withdrawal and repose is universal Indeed all religions and philosophies teach that life is more than toil that time should be set aside for contemplation enjoyment and culture In today s frantic 24 7 world the Sabbath a day devoted to rest and contemplation has never been more necessary A Day Apart offers a portrait of a truly timeless way to escape the everyday world and add meaning to our lives I can not recall reading anything on the three faiths that so deftly engages them in robust conversation Amazingly learned Ringwald nonetheless has a light friendly touch The warmth of his soul is unmistakable Christian Century American Book Publishing Record ,1999 Deanna R. Slamans, 2013-08-25 This inspiring true story is about a young woman's journey with God As a little girl she meets Him in the most unlikely place her broken heart He walks with her through her poverty and shame When He calls her forth she dares to follow and discovers that through suffering and redemption God makes Himself real to anyone who has the faith Reflections Ron Carter, 2014-11-05 The short stories poems and pictures in Reflections are to honor God to pursue Him and show gratitude for His blessings This collection is also a source where inspiration and encouragement may be found Several months in the making and having been prepared and presented as devotions Reflections brings together the author s love of God and nature his love of people some of his travels and photography along with mention of some personal experiences and a bit of humor Each article or story in some way reveals God's love for His people His blessings and the need for a personal relationship with God Critical Reflections on Religion and Media in Contemporary Bali Richard Fox, 2011 Drawing on ethnographic and archival research conducted on the Indonesian island of Bali this book demonstrates that more nuanced attention to problems of media will have serious implications for how we think about the study of religions past and Crossing the Great Divide Dr. Charles Frazier, 2024-10-10 Dr Charles Frazier reveals how he embarked on an present incredible journey where God taught him to trust and have faith as He saved his marriage and rebuilt his life In a sequel to his first book Crossing the Great Divide Walking with God through Nature he explores in even greater detail what led him down a path of destruction and how God led him back home On his walk with the Lord he deepened his faith and trust in our Heavenly Father In sharing his story he answers guestions such as How can you avoid losing yourself in the lust and darkness of the world as you pursue success How can God strengthen your love for your spouse even after the ultimate betrayal of adultery How can God heal even the deepest scars The author also shares how the Lord blessed him and his wife with a lifelong dream of a waterfront condo which they began remodeling As they went about their work they found that God began to remodel their lives and their marriage and as their love for Him grew their love for each other began to grow again of modern life in ways not seen for generations Emerging from the fog of the first pandemic in one hundred years they face economic uncertainty political acrimony war and the threat of war environmental degradation and technological advances that amaze and frighten in equal measure Time and space condense as unrelenting connectedness blurs the lines between work and play fact and fiction need and desire The devices meant to improve lives dominate them in what theologian Walter Brueggemann calls the tyranny of now People are looking for accessible solutions to complex problems People need resilience but are ill equipped to find it In this book the Fellows of the Mockler Center at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary offer a solution not from the well trodden psychological disciplines or the lure of New Age mysticism but in a concept as old as the Scriptures themselves the divine gift of Sabbath The authors explore in detail Jesus words Sabbath was made for humanity not humanity for the Sabbath proposing five areas values time space people and faith where a more comprehensive understanding of Sabbath can build resilience by reshaping personal and professional identities in accord with God s will and purpose Crossing the Great Divide: Walking with God Through Nature Dr. Charles R. Frazier, 2022-01-06 For I know the plans I have for you declares the Lord plans to prosper you and not to harm you plans to give you hope and a future Then you will call on me and come and pray to me and I will listen to you You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart I will be found by you declares the Lord and will bring you back from captivity Jeremiah 29 11 14 Walking in the path of darkness I never looked up to see God's light I had put God on the shelf I was making my way in life I was gaining notoriety and recognition for my accomplishments My pride arrogance and selfishness were shining in my fleshly success I was rolling and life was rocking until one day God placed a boulder in my path I could not move In the blink of an eye I lost my career and my marriage was coming to an end My Heavenly Father had stopped my fleshly ways to show me the deep darkness of my soul He would take the pieces of clay from my brokenness place me back on His pottery wheel remold me with His loving hands and put me through the fire to purify my soul He would lead me to His place The Back Porch where He would teach me to meditate show me visions give me peace in His quietness and open my ears to hear His voice I would listen as He would speak through the pen and I would record His spoken words Exhausted tired and weary a broken man was being healed through the writings of his Heavenly Father In this journey He will use my love for nature to share with me the simple things in life explain my visions and gain understanding as we walk through this journey together God shines His light and speaks to every man and woman You must take the time to see His light and be still in His presence to hear His voice Open this book take a journey with me and experience how God heals and remolds a broken man He led me to write this book so you can see how God changed me and experience how God can change you
