Constructing a Productive Other Robert F. Barsky, 1994-01-01 This book is a description of the process of constructing a productive Other for the purpose of being admitted to Canada as a Convention refugee The whole claiming procedure is analyzed with respect to two actual cases and contextualized by reference to pertinent national and international jurisprudence Since legal analysis is deemed insufficient for a complete understanding of the argumentative and discursive strategies involved in the claiming and authoring processes the author makes constant reference to methodologies from the realm of literary studies discourse analysis and interaction theory with special emphasis upon the works of Marc Angenot M M Bakhtin Pierre Bourdieu Erving Goffman Jürgen Habermas and Teun van Dijk In so doing he illustrates a reductive movement that inevitably occurs in legal argumentation which results in the displacement the subject from the realm of refugee claimant to that of claimant as diminished Other Pirouettes on a Postage Stamp Bohumil Hrabal, 2008-01-01 The book is a novel interview initiated by the Hungarian journalist writer and anti communist activist based in Slovakia L szl Szigeti It retains the character of a more or less verbatim oral record it is full of false starts and thematic and syntactic digressions characteristic for the majority of Hrabal s magical bizarre and grotesque tales It is unique for being autobiographical and for making the reader understand Hrabal s personality his philosophy and perception and understanding of Central Europe shortly before the fall of totalitarian regime in the late 80s Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature Literature and Law , 2016-08-09 In recent years there has been a continuing and persistent world wide interest in the interaction between the two disciplines of law and literature Although there have been many collections of primary texts that combined these two areas this volume presents literary analyses and criticism in an attempt to assess the varied relationships between law and justice between lawyers and clients and between readers perceptions and authors intent hopefully suggesting why they have continually been yoked together One similarity between the two is that lawyers like writers must catch their audience s attention by novelty of scene distinctiveness of voice and ingenuity of design Furthermore legal advocates must recreate a concrete sense of reality developing vivid and valid pictures of a specific time and place In short both lawyers and writers attempt to provide a basis for juries readers to judge defendants characters by their motivations and their actions and to decide whether a favorable ruling assessment is justified Collectively the essays in this book are designed to deal with themes of guilt and innocence right and wrong morality and legality The essays also suggest that the world as it is delineated by lawyers is indeed a text that like its literary counterparts sometimes blurs the distinction between fact and fiction as it attempts to define truth and to establish criteria for impartial justice By exploring interdisciplinary contexts readers will surely be made more aware more sensitive to the roles that stories play in the legal profession and to the dilemmas faced by legal systems that often succeed in maintaining the rights and privileges of a dominant societal group at the expense of a less powerful one Encyclopedia of
