of him He was a Scotchman born and I know now that he had a slight Scotch accent At the time of which I write my early childhood he was a frontiersman and hunter I can see him now with his hunting shirt and leggings and moccasins his powder horn engraved with wondrous scenes his bullet pouch and tomahawk and hunting knife He was a tall lean man with a strange sad face And he talked little save when he drank too many horns as they were called in that country These lapses of my father s were a perpetual source of wonder to me and I must say of delight They occurred only when a passing traveller who hit his fancy chanced that way or what was almost as rare a neighbor Many a winter night I have lain awake under the skins listening to a flow of language that held me spellbound though I understood scarce a word of it Field and Stream ,1993
