Bad Boy Bubby:

Bad Boy Bubby Rolf De Heer, 1996 Locked in two rooms in an inner city slum for 35 years Bubby has a universe which is only peopled with his mother a feral cat and the cockroaches until his father's arrival allows him to escape into the outside world Here he discovers a complicated place where his naive ideas about life and behaviour are thrown into question many times during his struggle to survive Bad Boy Bubby, 2011 Bad Boy Bubby Gabrielle Murray, 2013-11-18 Bad Boy Bubby focuses on a 35 year old man child whose mother keeper keeps him imprisoned in a windowless hovel From the moment it entered the festival cycle in 1993 the film has polarized audiences This volume examines how and why the film produced such conflicting responses as well as reviewing its current relevance Bad Boy Bubby Gabrielle subordinate Australian cultural identity within the framework of a resented Anglo American filmic and cultural hegemony The book further explores this marginalisation by examining the influence of the French auteur paradigm particularly in reference to the work of Jane Campion as well as by discussing the increasingly problematic notion of national identity and indeed national cinemas within the universal framework of international film culture Australian Book Review ,2004-02

Disability Matters Anna Hickey-Moody,Vicki Crowley,2014-06-11 From the critique of the medical model of disability undertaken during the early and mid 1990s a social model emerged particularly in the caring professions and those trying to shape policy and practice for people with disability In education and schooling it was a period of cementing inclusive practices and the integration and inclusion of disability into mainstream What was lacking in the debates around the social model however were the challenges to abledness that were being grappled with in the routine and pragmatics of self care by people with disabilities their families carers and caseworkers Outside the academy new forms of activity and new questions were circulating Challenges to abledness flourished in the arts and constituted the lived experience of many disability activists Disability Matters engages with the cultural politics of the body exploring this fascinating and dynamic topic through the arts teaching research and varied encounters with disability ranging from the very personal to the professional Chapters in this collection are drawn from scholars responding in various registers and contexts to questions of disability pedagogy affect sensation and education Questions of embodiment affect and disability are woven throughout these contributions and the diverse ways in which these concepts appear emphasize both the utility of these ideas and the timeliness of their application This book was originally published as a special issue of Discourse Studies in the Cultural Politics of Education Eco-Trauma Cinema Anil Narine,2014-09-19 Film has taken a powerful position alongside the global environmental movement from didactic documentaries to the fantasy pleasures of commercial franchises This book investigates in particular film s complex role in representing ecological traumas Eco trauma cinema represents the harm we as humans inflict upon our natural surroundings or the injuries we sustain from nature in its unforgiving iterations The term encompasses both circumstances because these seemingly distinct instances of ecological harm are often related and even symbiotic the traumas we perpetuate in an ecosystem through pollution and unsustainable resource management inevitably return to harm us Contributors to this volume engage with eco trauma cinema in its three general forms accounts of people who are traumatized by the natural world narratives that represent people or social processes which traumatize the environment or its species and stories that depict the aftermath of ecological catastrophe The films they examine represent a central challenge of our age to overcome our disavowal of environmental crises to reflect on the unsavoury forces reshaping the planet s ecosystems and to restructure the mechanisms responsible for the state of the earth Recent Italian Cinema Tiziana Ferrero Regis,2009 In Recent Italian Cinema two fundamental questions are asked the first concerns whether Italian cinema as national cinema is in reality reduced to a niche market in its own territory The second relates to what Italian audiences do with domestic films For nearly two decades most Italian films have been produced outside box office returns through a practice of subsidy and co financing between many institutional and private entities Thus Italian cinema has had to define its mode of production and use value of films in a different way It is clear that it is no longer possible to separate national cinemas from the grip that the American film industry has on world markets in terms of imagination and modes of production distribution and exhibition It is thus only by examining the multiple layers of description and analysis which take into account the presence of Hollywood that we can come to an understanding of what recent Italian cinema actually is
