Civil War Times Illustrated, 1980 A History of the Mediterranean Air War, 1940-1945, Volume 5 Christopher Shores, Giovanni Massimello, Russell Guest, Frank Olynyk, Winfried Bock, Andrew Thomas, 2021-12-03 This international collaboration between air war historians is simply fantastic a deep dive on the operations in a vast and very important theater of war Air Classics During the final year of World War II the defending Axis forces were steadily driven from southern skies by burgeoning Anglo American power This was despite the steady withdrawal of units to more demanding areas This fifth volume of the series describes in detail the activities of the Allied tactical air forces in support of the armies on the ground as their opponents were steadily extracted from northern Italy and the Balkans for the final defense of the central European homeland The book commences with coverage of the final fierce air sea battles over the Aegean that preceded the advance northward to Rome and the ill conceived British attempt to secure the Dodecanese islands following the armistice with Italy The authors also deal fully and comprehensively with the advance northward following the occupation of Rome and the departure of forces to support the invasion of France from the Riviera coast coupled with the formation of a new Balkan Air Force in eastern Italy to pursue the German armies withdrawing from Yugoslavia and take possession of newly freed Greece

The effect of the creation within the same area of the US and RAF strategic forces to join the Allied Combined Bombing Offensive is also discussed Includes photographs Reflects the scope of a remarkable research effort and provides valuable detail that the reader is not going to find between two covers elsewhere The NYMAS Review Special Bibliography ,1977 Sanctuary Lost: Portugal's Air War for Guinea 1961-1974 Matthew M Hurley,José Matos,2023-11-14 From 1963 to 1974 Portugal and its nationalist enemies fought an increasingly intense war for the independence of Portuguese Guinea then a colony but now the Republic of Guinea Bissau For most of the conflict Portugal enjoyed virtually unchallenged air supremacy and increasingly based its military strategy and political pacification program on this singular advantage The Portuguese Air Force For a A rea Portuguesa abbreviated FAP consequently played a crucial role in the Guinean war Indeed throughout the conflict the FAP despite the many challenges it faced proved to be the most effective and responsive military argument against the PAIGC rebels which was fighting for the colony s independence from European rule The air war for Guinea stands as a remarkable episode in air power history for several reasons It was for example the first conflict in which a non state irregular force deployed defensive missiles against an organized air force Moreover the degree to which Portugal relied on its air power was such that its effective neutralization doomed Lisbon s military strategy in the province Ultimately the FAP s unexpected combat losses initiated a cascade of effects that degraded in turn its own operational initiative the battlefield effectiveness of increasingly air dependent ground forces Portuguese military morale and national resilience and ultimately Lisbon s tenability as an imperial power The air war for Portuguese Guinea thus represents a compelling illustration of the value and vulnerabilities of air power in a counter insurgency context as well as the negative impacts of overreliance on air supremacy This the second of three volumes in the Sanctuary Lost mini series examines the evolution of Portuguese air power and guerrilla air defenses during the conflict s most active years as both sides sought the means and methods required to counter the other s efforts to control Guinea s airspace It is richly illustrated throughout with original photographs and includes specially commissioned color artworks Flying ,1975 Flying Magazine ,1975-10 Army ,1972 A War of Their Own: Bombers Over the Southwest Pacific [Illustrated Edition] Captain Matt Rodman,2014-08-15 Illustrated with more than 45 diagrams photos and tables Captain Rodman an instructor weapon systems officer at Dyess AFB Texas examines the distinctive nature of Fifth Air Force s role in the air war over the Southwest Pacific Area during World War II Especially notable is Gen George Kenney s innovative use of light attack aircraft as well as both medium and heavy bombardment aircraft characterized by theater specific tactics ordnance and structural modifications A War of Their Own also considers the free exchange of aircraft and missions in the Southwest Pacific a hallmark of that theater in terms of the conflict between doctrine and tactics that underlay Fifth Air Force s relationship to the prewar Army Air Corps and the postwar Air Force The author also notes the relevance of the Fifth s experiences to airpower Books in Series ,1980 A History of the Mediterranean Air War, 1940-1945 Christopher Shores,Giovanni Massimello,Russell Guest,Frank

Olynyk, Winfried Bock, 2016-08-05 The third volume in the epic military aviation series focuses on the Allied invasion of North Africa during World War II This work of WWII history takes us to November 1942 to explain the background of the first major Anglo American venture Operation Torch the invasion of French North Africa Describing the fratricidal combat that followed the initial landings in Morocco and Algeria it then considers the unsuccessful efforts to reach northern Tunisia before the Germans and Italians could get there to forestall the possibility of an attack from the west on the rear of the Afrika Korps forces then beginning their retreat from El Alamein The six months of hard fighting that followed as the Allies built up the strength of their joint air forces and gradually wrested control of the skies from the Axis are recounted in detail The continuing story of the Western Desert Air Force is told as it advanced from the east to join hands with the units in the west Also covered are the arrivals over the front of American pilots and crew the P 38 Lightning the Spitfire IX and the B 17 Flying Fortress and of the much feared Focke Wulf Fw 190 The aerial activities over Tunisia became one of the focal turning points of World War II yet are frequently overlooked by historians Here the air sea activities the reconnaissance flights and the growing day and night bomber offensives are examined in detail AB Bookman's Weekly ,1992 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress.
