Akio Makigawa Akio Makigawa, 1998      The Australian Embassy in Tokyo and Australia-Japan Relations Kate Darian-Smith, David Lowe, 2023-03-02 Relations between Australia and Japan have undergone both testing and celebrated times since 1952 when Australia's ambassadorial representation in Tokyo commenced. Over the years interactions have deepened beyond mutual trade objectives to encompass economic defence and strategic interests within the Indo Pacific region and beyond. This special relationship has been characterised by the high volume of people moving between Australia and Japan for education, tourism, business, science and research. Cultural ties from artists in residence to sister city agreements have flourished. Australia has supported Japan in times of need including the aftermath of the 2011 Tohoku earthquake. This book shows how the Australian embassy in Tokyo through its programs and people has been central to these developments. The embassy's buildings, its gardens and grounds and above all its occupants from senior Australian diplomats to locally engaged staff are the focus of this multidimensional study by former diplomats and expert observers of Australia's engagement with Japan. Drawing on oral histories, memoirs and archives, this volume sheds new light on the complexity of Australia's diplomatic work in Japan and the role of the embassy in driving high level negotiations as well as fostering soft power influences. With a similar vision for the Indo Pacific region and a like minded approach to the challenges facing us, Australia and Japan have become more intimate and more strategic as partners. I am very pleased to see this slice of Australian diplomatic history so well accounted for in this book. Jan Adams AO PSM Secretary Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Australia's Ambassador to Japan, November 2020, June 2022      Akio Makigawa Smith & Singer, 2025-05-26 Exhibition Catalogue      Akio Makigawa, 1998 Lowenstein Sharp Arts 21 Fellow Akio Makigawa, Mike Parr, Heide Museum of Modern Art, 1999      Lovers and Others Tom Lowenstein, 2021-06-01 This candidly written memoir enlivened by the author's impish sense of humour narrates the way in which by chance and circumstance Tom Lowenstein placed his career at the service of the Australian art world. The book describes Lowenstein's numerous David and Goliath battles with the Australian Government and the Australian Tax Office for a greater understanding and fairer treatment of the unique set of circumstances and numerous challenges faced by the country's creative sectors. Lowenstein's interactions with his colourful and gregarious clients took him frequently out of the comfort of the corporate environment into the artists' homes and studios. The personalities of Charles Blackman, Colin Lanceley, Margaret Olley, John Olsen, Garry Sheard, Tim Storrier and many other luminaries of the art world are vividly brought out with unique insights and unexpected angles. The book is richly illustrated with photographs from Lowenstein's personal archives documenting his long standing friendships and reflecting its heady mixture of accounting, art and wine      Alsop and Stormer Alsop & Störmer Architects, 1999 Alsop and Stormer continually explore form, colour, function, social and behavioural issues in their architecture.
