Young adult literature holds an exceptional place in modern American popular culture. Accessible to readers of all levels, it captures a diverse audience and tends to adapt to the big screen in an exciting way. With its wide readership, YAL sparks interesting discussions inside and outside of the classroom. This collection of new essays examines how YAL has impacted college composition courses, primarily focusing on the first year. Contributors discuss popular YA stories, their educational potential, and possibilities for classroom discussion and exercise.

Al Capone Does My Shirts by Gennifer Choldenko. Lit Link Grades 4-6. Nat Reed, 2007. It is 1935 and Moose Flanagan's dad has just been hired to work as an electrician on Alcatraz Island, home to the most famous prison in the United States. What is worse, Moose's whole family is moving to the island to take up residence next door to Al Capone, Machine Gun Kelly, and a host of other notorious convicts. Complicating an already dicey situation is Moose's autistic sister, Natalie, whom the family is trying desperately to have enrolled in the Esther P. Marinoff School. Moose is given more and more responsibility in looking after his sister and helping her to be accepted by his friends. When the school rejects Natalie for the second time, Moose writes Al Capone a letter to see if the famous gangster can pull a few strings to help the family out. Will he?

Chapter by chapter questions and additional activities in vocabulary, word study, and personal development are designed according to research-based education principles to improve literacy skills in communication, critical thinking, and more. 64 pages including an answer key.

A Novel by Gennifer Choldenko. The students will learn about autism as a learning exceptionality, the North American penal system, responsibility, family dynamics, and societal stereotyping. Develop their skills in reading, writing, listening, and oral communication. Use good literature as a vehicle for developing skills required by curriculum expectations: reasoning and critical thinking, knowledge of language structure, vocabulary building, and use of conventions. Become meaningfully engaged in the drama of literature through a variety of types of questions and activities: identify and describe elements of stories (i.e., plot, main idea, characters, setting); learn and review many skills in order to develop good reading habits; provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations; organize and classify information to clarify thinking; relate events and feelings found in novels to their own lives and experiences; appreciate the importance of friendship and loyalty in personal relationships; appreciate the role and responsibilities of parents and authoritative figures in the lives of young people; learn the importance of dealing with adversity and developing perseverance in the face of adversity; state their own interpretation of a written work using evidence from the work and from their own knowledge and experience.

Al Capone Shines My Shoes. Gennifer Choldenko, 2013-07-19. Moose's sister has got a place in the perfect school on the mainland, one that will help her deal with her autism. But there is one hitch: She got the place with the help of Al Capone, and now it's payback time. Soon Moose is caught up in a terrible cycle of secrets and favours that threatens to destabilise his entire family in this nail-biting edge of your seat novel.
