Al Hind The Making Of The Indo Islamic World Vol2:

Al-Hind: The Making of the Indo-Islamic World André Wink, 2024-04-22 The first part of the long awaited fourth volume of Andr Wink s monumental Al Hind The Making of the Indo Islamic World introduces a new perspective on the rise of the dynasty of the Great Mughals and the transition of the Indo Islamic world from the medieval to the early modern centuries Eschewing the conventional military and technological explanations the book adopts an institutional explanation that emphasizes the Central and Inner Asian post nomadic heritage of the dynasty and in the context of persistent rivalry with the Indo Afghans its successful politics of incorporation and accommodation of Muslim and non Muslim constituencies alike

The Making of the Indo-Islamic World André Wink, 2020-08-06 A major reinterpretation of the rise of the Indo Islamic world rooted in world history and geography Al-Hind, Volume 2 Slave Kings and the Islamic Conquest, 11th-13th Centuries André Wink, 2021-10-25 During the early medieval Islamic expansion in the seventh to eleventh centuries al Hind India and its Indianized hinterland was characterized by two organizational modes the long distance trade and mobile wealth of the peripheral frontier states and the settled agriculture of the heartland These two different types of social economic and political organization were successfully fused during the eleventh to thirteenth centuries and India became the hub of world trade During this period the Middle East declined in importance Central Asia was unified under the Mongols and Islam expanded far into the Indian subcontinent Instead of being devastated by the Mongols who were prevented from penetrating beyond the western periphery of al Hind by the absence of sufficient good pasture land the agricultural plains of North India were brought under Turko Islamic rule in a gradual manner in a conquest effected by professional armies and not accompanied by any large scale nomadic invasions The result of the conquest was in short the revitalization of the economy of settled agriculture through the dynamic impetus of forced monetization and the expansion of political dominion Islamic conquest and trade laid the foundation for a new type of Indo Islamic society in which the organizational forms of the frontier and of sedentary agriculture merged in a way that was uniquely successful in the late medieval world at large setting the Indo Islamic world apart from the Middle East and China in the same centuries Please note that The Slave Kings and the Islamic Conquest 11th 13th Centuries was previously published by Brill in hardback ISBN 90 04 10236 1 still available

Al-Hind, Volume 3 Indo-Islamic Society, 14th-15th Centuries André Wink, 2003-11-15 This third volume of Andre Wink s acclaimed and pioneering Al Hind The Making of the Indo Islamic World takes the reader from the late Mongol invasions to the end of the medieval period and the beginnings of early modern times in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth century It breaks new ground by focusing attention on the role of geography and more specifically on the interplay of nomadic settled and maritime societies In doing so it presents a picture of the world of India and the Indian Ocean on the eve of the Portuguese discovery of the searoute a world without stable parameters of pervasive geophysical change inchoate and instable urbanism highly volatile and itinerant elites of nomadic origin far flung merchant diasporas and a famine and disease

prone peasantry whose life was a gamble on the monsoon Al-Hind the Making of the Indo-Islamic World André Wink,1991 This is the second of a projected series of five volumes dealing with the expansion of Islam in al Hind or South and Southeast Asia It analyses the conquest of the eleventh thirteenth centuries the migration of Muslim groups into the subcontinent and maritime developments in the same period Babur Aabhas Maldahiyar,2024-02-19 Babur the visionary founder of Timurid Empire in Hindustan had a fair share of early struggle following his father s tragic demise in AD 1494 Then on Babur embarked on an unyielding pursuit of power amid treacherous political landscapes the narrative unveils his moniker the chessboard king portraying his adept navigation through political intricacies and adversities From his ascent to rulership in Ferghana amidst familial threats to fleeting victories and losses in Samarkand the book paints a poignant picture of Babur s journey It portrays his retreat to tribal lands after relinquishing hopes of reclaiming Ferghana eventually establishing a mountainous kingdom in Kabul a pivotal milestone preceding his ambition to expand into Hindustan Recounting his initial endeavour to penetrate Hindustan in AD 1505 his alliances and subsequent setbacks after Sultan Husayn Mirza Bayqarah s demise leaving him as the sole Timurid prince in power the book opens a window to Babur s failed second attempt to enter Hindustan encapsulating the initial thirteen to fourteen tumultuous years of his reign marked by exile fleeting victories and delicate alliances Gripping anecdotal and deeply researched Babur The Chessboard King delves into Hindustan s economic landscape during Timurid rule and portrays Babur as a multifaceted ruler challenging the typical depiction of an infallible conqueror and a good human being Meticulously sourced from the Persian manuscript of the Baburnama and other primary sources this book represents a milestone in Babur s biographical genre essential for comprehending the ambitions of this enigmatic king Offshore Asia Fujita Kayoko,Shiro Momoki,Anthony Reid,2013 This exemplary work of international collaboration takes a comparative approach to the histories of Northeast and Southeast Asia with contributions from scholars from Japan Korea and the Englishspeaking academic world The new scholarship represented by this volume demonstrates that the vast and growing commercial interactions between the countries of eastern Asia have long historical roots The so called opening to Western trade in the mid nineteenth century which is typically seen as the beginning of this process is shown to be rather the reversal of a relatively temporary phase of state consolidation in the long eighteenth century

Perry, David Eltis, Stanley L. Engerman, David Richardson, 2021-08-12 Medieval slavery has received little attention relative to slavery in ancient Greece and Rome and in the early modern Atlantic world This imbalance in the scholarship has led many to assume that slavery was of minor importance in the Middle Ages In fact the practice of slavery continued unabated across the globe throughout the medieval millennium This volume the final volume in The Cambridge World History of Slavery covers the period between the fall of Rome and the rise of the transatlantic plantation complexes by assembling twenty three original essays written by scholars acknowledged as leaders in their respective fields The volume demonstrates the continual and central presence of slavery in societies worldwide between 500 CE and 1420 CE The essays analyze key concepts in the history of slavery including gender trade empire state formation and diplomacy labor childhood social status and mobility cultural attitudes spectrums of dependency and coercion and life histories of enslaved people Objects of Translation

Finbarr Barry Flood, 2022-07-12 Objects of Translation offers a nuanced approach to the entanglements of medieval elites in the regions that today comprise Afghanistan Pakistan and north India The book which ranges in time from the early eighth to the early thirteenth centuries challenges existing narratives that cast the period as one of enduring hostility between monolithic Hindu and Muslim cultures These narratives of conflict have generally depended upon premodern texts for their understanding of the past By contrast this book considers the role of material culture and highlights how objects such as coins dress monuments paintings and sculptures mediated diverse modes of encounter during a critical but neglected period in South Asian history The book explores modes of circulation among them looting gifting and trade through which artisans and artifacts traveled remapping cultural boundaries usually imagined as stable and static It analyzes the relationship between mobility and practices of cultural translation and the role of both in the emergence of complex transcultural identities Among the subjects discussed are the rendering of Arabic sacred texts in Sanskrit on Indian coins the adoption of Turko Persian dress by Buddhist rulers the work of Indian stone masons in Afghanistan and the incorporation of carvings from Hindu and Jain temples in early Indian mosques Objects of Translation draws upon contemporary theories of cosmopolitanism and globalization to argue for radically new approaches to the cultural geography of premodern South Asia and the Islamic world Early Global Interconnectivity across the Indian Ocean World, Volume II Angela Schottenhammer, 2019-02-13 This volume investigates the emergence and spread of maritime commerce and interconnectivity across the Indian Ocean World the world's first global economy from a longue dure perspective Spanning from antiquity to the nineteenth century these essays move beyond the usual focus on geographical sub regions or thematic aspects to foreground inter and trans regional connections Focusing on the role of religion in the expansion of commerce and exchange across the region as well as on technology and knowledge transfer volume II covers shipbuilding and navigation technologies porcelain production medicinal knowledge and mules as a commodity and means of transportation

Al-hind André Wink,1990 An Economic History of Imperial Madagascar, 1750-1895 Gwyn Campbell,2005-03-14 The first comprehensive economic history of pre colonial Madagascar this study examines the island s role from 1750 to 1895 in the context of a burgeoning international economy and the rise of modern European imperialism This study reveals that the Merina of the Central Highlands attempted to found an island empire and through the exploitation of its human and natural resources build the economic and military might to challenge British and French pretensions in the region Ultimately the Merina failed due to imperial forced labour policies and natural disasters the nefarious consequences of which disease depopulation ethnic enmity have in traditional histories been imputed external capitalist and French colonial policies

Dialogue & Daggers Ayan Shome,2014-11-01 The Delhi Sultanate has captured the political imagination ever since its inception at the end of the twelfth century In various way both direct and indirect it sets the tone of life in the modern day Indian polity especially in terms of the questions it raises regarding the relations between religious identities Hindu and Muslim and how these shape the fortunes of the Indian nation to this day It can be argued that one of the reasons why the Delhi Sultanate and subsequent Muslim ruled polities in India have raised so much acrimony is due to the notion that the establishment of these often violent polities and their development represented a sense of abrupt change from pre Islamic India making these polities look like an unnatural intrusion into the civilizational landscape of India an intrusion that ended the Hindu period of Indian history a chronological and cultural categorization which many accept to this day However the establishment of the Delhi Sultanate was not a simplistic intrusion Instead it can be argued that the Delhi Sultanate represented a form of continuity in that it enhanced a warrior culture that was already prevalent in Northern India a culture that valued military capability as a sign of innate authority and used this authority for formulating a political hierarchy where warrior identity and religious values were seen as deeply intertwined and at times conflated In a military environment like this the Sultanate as a polity had much to offer as it consisted of individuals and groups who back in their Central Asian homeland were themselves in a process of social and cultural mobilization within the ambit of a warrior identity a mobilization that was closely linked to Islamicization Hence the Delhi Sultanate operated in a geographical space where both forms of warrior identities came in to dialogue a dialogue that involved both violence and co operation It will argued here that the Delhi Sultanate was a dynamic which involved the interaction of an Iranic warrior identity which was closely linked to Islamicization in Central Asia and an Indic warrior identity closely linked to social and cultural processes in India and it was not primarily a religious conflict based on doctrinal difference Religion did play a part but not in the manner that has normally been envisaged in the popular imagination and mainstream historiography to this day The Easternization of the West Nordin Hussin,2006
