Aldershot Past:

Aldershot Past Stephen Phillips, Gillian Picken, 2000 Less than 150 years ago Aldershot was a small sleepy rural village but the decision in 1853 to establish a permanent military camp on the heathland north of the village transformed it The rustic place became a genteel location with theatres churches and leafy residential areas This is an excellent read The book is complemented by a range of pictures which highlight items words cannot express Aldershot News Historical Records of the Second Royal Surrey, Or Eleventh Regiment of Militia, 1877 London Society James Hogg, Florence Marryat, 1898 The Head of Kay's P. G. Wodehouse, 2019-11-21 In The Head of Kay's by P G Wodehouse readers are treated to a witty and humorous portrayal of life in an English boarding school The novel is set in a typical boys school and follows the misadventures of a group of students showcasing Wodehouse's signature comedic style The narrative is filled with sharp dialogue and clever wordplay making it a delightful read for those who appreciate comedic literature Wodehouse's ability to bring characters to life through his writing adds depth to the story contributing to the overall charm of the novel The Head of Kay's is a timeless piece of literature that captures the essence of boarding school life in a fun and entertaining way It is a must read for fans of English humor and classic literature The Freemason's Chronicle, 1900 The Medical Times and Gazette, 1884 Navy & Army Illustrated, 1897 The Head of Kay's Sir Pelham Grenville Wodehouse, 1922-01-01 When we get licked tomorrow by half a dozen wickets said Jimmy Silver tilting his chair until the back touched the wall don't say I didn't warn you If you fellows take down what I say from time to time in note books as you ought to do you'll remember that I offered to give anyone odds that Kay's would out us in the final I always said that a really hot man like Fenn was more good to a side than half a dozen ordinary men He can do all the bowling and all the batting All the fielding too in the slips Tea was just over at Blackburn's and the bulk of the house had gone across to preparation in the school buildings The prefects as was their custom lingered on to finish the meal at their leisure These after tea conversations were quite an institution at Blackburn's The labours of the day were over and the time for preparation for the morrow had not yet come It would be time to be thinking of that in another hour Meanwhile a little relaxation might be enjoyed Especially so as this was the last day but two of the summer term and all necessity for working after tea had ceased with the arrival of the last lap of the examinations Silver was head of the house and captain of its cricket team which was nearing the end of its last match the final for the inter house cup and on paper getting decidedly the worst of it After riding in triumph over the School House Bedell's and Mulholland's Blackburn's had met its next door neighbour Kay's in the final and to the surprise of the great majority of the school was showing up badly The match was affording one more example of how a team of average merit all through may sometimes fall before a one man side Blackburn's had the three last men on the list of the first eleven Silver Kennedy and Challis and at least nine of its representatives had the reputation of being able to knock up a useful twenty or thirty at any time Kay's on the other hand had one man Fenn After him the tail started But Fenn was such an exceptional all round man that as Silver had said he was as good as half a dozen of the Blackburn s team equally formidable whether batting or bowling he headed the school averages at both He was one of those batsmen who seem to know exactly what sort of ball you are going to bowl before it leaves your hand and he could hit like another Jessop As for his bowling he bowled left hand always a puzzling eccentricity to an undeveloped batsman and could send them down very fast or very slow as he thought best and it was hard to see which particular brand he was going to serve up before it was actually in mid air But it is not necessary to enlarge on his abilities The figures against his name in Wisden prove a good deal The fact that he had steered Kay s through into the last round of the house matches proves still more It was perfectly obvious to everyone that if only you could get Fenn out for under ten Kay s total for that innings would be nearer twenty than forty They were an appalling side But then no house bowler had as yet succeeded in getting Fenn out for under ten In the six innings he had played in the competition up to date he had made four centuries an eighty and a seventy      Navy and Army Illustrated ,1899      St. George's Gazette ,1894      The Spectator ,1871      A Pattern of Shadows Terry Fairhead,2008 A Pattern of Shadows is set in August 1914 and looks at the shattering effect the approaching conflict has on the lives of three young people who have grown up together in the same Kentish village Alice Campion keeps house at Rendle Manor for her father Sir Douglas and younger brother Ben She is in love with Peter Crawford a professional soldier and eldest son of one Sir Douglas s tenants However she becomes aware of a mystery over Peter s birth which could affect their future together Ben sails to America as war is declared on a pre arranged visit Meanwhile Peter embarks with his unit for France Sir Douglas decides to turn Rendle Manor into a hospital and sends Alice to London to a meeting at the Local Government Board where she makes an astonishing discovery about herself She returns home confused and unable to concentrate In France Peter is involved in the general retreat from Mons and is wounded Ben emboldened by his experiences returns from America to join the Royal Flying Corps and with the news he is to be married Peter s mother Edna finally divulges the secret that will allow Alice to marry Peter However no one has heard from him for over a week The novel ends at the beginning of September with Alice hoping for a letter but determined not to lose heart The epilogue which looks back at events in the war is set in 1930      Truth ,1886      Journal of the Royal Army Medical Corps Great Britain.
