There is a beauty in sadness for it is the darkness without which you cannot appreciate the light In my mid 20 s I went through a period of extreme pain and sadness I faced one heartbreak after another until I felt I would burst or fall to pieces During that time poetry was one of the few things that helped keep me together These poems are the actual poems I wrote during those few years when pain was everywhere I turned But through it all I clung to hope hope that things would change hope that it would all be better someday somehow I was right but I couldn t know that then I could only hope That hope carried me through to where I am today and you can see it peeking out in these poems though it is sometimes buried by sadness To me these poems are like a journal of not just my pain which seems so far away now it s almost like a vivid dream but also my strength my hope the belief I clung to the triumph I experienced in coming out the other side into beautiful brightness It is a record of part of what made me who I am today If you are in a place of sadness my wish is for these poems to show you that you are not alone and to show you that as deep as my pain was today my life is full of joy and brightness and if it happened for me it can happen for you There is always hope de Balzac,1899 Voices on the Air Shea McGee, Looking Beyond the Mask Nancy Brown Diggs,2016-02-24 Looking Beyond the Mask focuses on the personal stories of the growing number of American women who despite vast cultural differences and sometimes because of them are married to Japanese men Although the problems encountered in such marriages are similar to those found in any union there are cultural implications that can exacerbate almost any of them Potential areas of conflict are examined such as in laws customs and manners values living conditions religion communication sex and gender and raising children The book deals with meeting such challenges and attempting to look beyond the cultural masks to see the real people behind them The women in question stress the importance of commitment a flexible attitude a strong sense of identity a support network a sense of perspective and a sense of humor They also reveal the benefits of these marriages including a greater appreciation for Japanese ways and the opportunity to continually grow and learn Based on extensive research the book provides a new look at Japan from the unique perspective of those American women most intimately involved with its culture The Christian world magazine (and family visitor). ,1882 Girl Scout Nadine Bennett,2012-09-21 This is the story of young girls kidnapped and held by outback hillbillies whose family has been in the business of taking girls to take care of their needs The hillbilly brothers family has been doing this process for wives as well as for sisters who are required to feed them do their laundry and service them if they want to live Those who do not adjust quickly enough to their new situation are killed and buried in the mountains of Santa Cruz California never to be found or seen again Those Who Live Bonnie MacDougall,2025-01-03 Two cousins Chinle Davis and Mae Godwin are determined to find the truth about why six female infants spanning three family generations died shortly after birth Their plan to interview family members about these deaths is fruitful the details alarming As the interviews proceed Chinle injured at five when someone pushed her on her bike down a deep steep rocky ravine begins to have memories of the accident that left her with an inturned right foot a leg with little feeling and a spastic gait due to neurological damage The mystery of who pushed Chinle gradually becomes more central than the mysteries of the six infants The relationship between Chinle and Mae becomes tenser and more layered as each woman s romantic life becomes more complex Chinle establishing a bond with Cody and Mae losing her bond with her long time boyfriend Bernie What will each woman discover about herself as mysteries between them unfold Where's Miss Mary? Liz Hamlin,2005 When Ruth McBain becomes a widow in her mid forties she decides to make a drastic change in her life Her twenty five year marriage to Tom McBain a prominent lawyer in Avalon Maryland a small town on the Eastern Shore of Chesapeake Bay had eased their empty nest syndrome when their son and daughter left for college and later for marriages in distant states While Tom was alive Ruth s world had orbited smoothly in familiar paths His sudden death from a heart attack leaves a vacuum which friends and customary activities fail to fill She brushes aside well meaning friends advice to sell the house which she and Tom ha spent their entire married life a home which stands a half mile down a quiet country road with only one house next door to keep it company She dismisses suggestions that she move into one of the new suburbs which are popping up like rabbit warrens on land once sacred to soybeans and corn Ruth McBain is conventional person with conventional views Houses like friendships must pass the test of time to be accepted Ruth s unconventional decision to become a foster mother to a little girl about whom she knew nothing other than that the child had been in and out of several foster homes during the six years she had lived disturbs her friends who remind her of the problems and perils that even two parent families find difficult to handle in the anything goes decade of the 1990 s She soothes her friends apprehensions by assuring them that Miss Winters the social worker assigned to Lark s case will instantly be on call if needed She rarely is None of the dire predictions made by Ruth s friends materialize The lies Lark tells are small and promptly admitted her tendency to pocket a bit of loose change lessens Lark was not a thief in the harsh sense of the word She was an indiscriminate little rat pack a female Artful Dodger who immediately pled guilty to petty thefts and cheerfully returned the purloined articles without apology denial or excuses The child was not into grand larceny she pilfered articles which Ruth would gladly have given her had she asked for them inexpensive clip on earrings which Ruth hadn t worn since he got her ears pierced in honor of the diamond earrings Tom had given her on their tenth anniversary A fake garnet bracelet with a broken clasp an amber candy dish last summer s sequinned sunglasses and every once in a while an all out emptying of the small change kept in a small piggy bank on the shelf above the sink At first it had been hard for Ruth to keep Miss Winter s advice and stay cool when Lark helped herself to the small change in the piggy bank but as the weeks passed Ruth slowly adjusted to Miss Winter s explanation that to Lark coins were just trinkets on par with earrings and sunglasses and always returned in full to the piggy bank The only problem which Ruth finds hard to accept is the child s determination to keep Ruth at arm s length she resists Ruth s attempts to hug her moves aside if Ruth reaches out for her Ruth tells herself that if Lark was consistent in her withdrawal from everyone her reaction could be a holdover from something which happened in the child s troubled past But the withdrawal of physical and emotional contact is not consistent it does not extend to Mary Burdock th woman who lives in the only other house on the lane In Ruth s opinion Mark Burdock is pleasant enough but definitely not a spell binder A woman who is a bit too plump a bit too average a bit too reserved to merit the attention let alone the adoration of an unusual child like Lark It just didn t make sense that Lark fluttered across the two yards drawn to Mary Burdock like a gnat to a lightbulb What did a woman who appeared to be getting perilously close to the thirty year mark have in common with a child who had just recently blown out six candles on a birthday cake Ruth s attempt to understand the strang

The Johnson Manor James Kent,1878 Living in God's Providence:

History of the Congregation of Divine Providence of San Antonio, Texas, 1943-2000 Mary Christine Morkovsky, CDP,2009-06-29 In 1943 the bell attached to a rope on both floors of a plain box like convent in Houston Texas rang at 5 a m The nine Sisters of Divine Providence stationed at the grade school arose reciting aloud the traditional prayer that began Live Jesus in my heart My God I give you my heart Mercifully deign to receive it and grant that no creature shall possess it but Thou alone Continuing to pray aloud for five more minutes the Sisters who shared small bedrooms began to dress All had developed in their novitiate a rhythm for this process which launched each day in a uniform way Over 20 items of dress had to be donned in a certain order Before Morning Prayer at 5 25 in the small chapel on the first floor the Sisters also stripped their single beds flipped the thin mattresses and replaced the bed linens trying not to invade a companion s limited space Usually it was still dark outside when they started to recite morning prayers unique to the Congregation This was followed by chanting in Latin on one tone Matins Lauds Prime Tierce Sext and None from the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary Then the superior read aloud some points for reflection and the Sisters meditated in silence for half an hour This was the first time of the day they had some relatively unstructured time and they sometimes experienced distractions Perhaps they planned how to teach something better or recalled problematic students At 6 30 one of the parish priests offered Mass which was followed by breakfast The Sisters ate in silence while one of them read passages from the Imitation of Christ By 8 a m they were leading their pupils across the playground to the children s daily Mass in the parish church In sharp contrast in 1990 Sister Mary Walter Gutowski CDP one of two Sisters living in a small apartment was the administrator of Our Lady of Guadalupe clinic for low income Latinos and African Americans in Rosenberg Texas Sister Walter who was credited with having delivered more than 3 000 babies under difficult rural circumstances once remarked When someone knocks at my door in the middle of the night I get dressed in two minutes flat because I never know what will be waiting for me outside 1 What explains this dramatic change of style and ritual in the routines of Catholic Sisters living in mission houses How did the Sisters move from cloisters to apartments How did the rigid routines of the nine Sisters of 1943 transmute into the singular and unstructured life of Sister Mary Walter What are the connections between the bell that rang at five in the morning and the one that sounded at any hour This history examines the period of 1943 to 2000 an era during which the Sisters of Divine Providence redefined their perspective and practices within the context of a changing American Catholic church It demonstrates that the Sisters were well situated to embrace the shifting demands of religious mission because their very heritage was grounded in ongoing transformations Those transformations were played out on a highly charged stage of oppression concerning multi racial relationships one that further prepared the Sisters for the intense dynamics of modern church life When the Sisters celebrated in 1966 the centennial of their arrival in Texas they were staffing their own college high schools and numerous grammar schools in several states as well as hospitals clinics and neighborhood centers They had incorporated a group of women from Mexico and encouraged the independence of a new Providence congregation in the U S Responding to Vatican encouragement after the second Vatican Council they began experiments to update structures and customs so as minister more effectively The most visible were in the areas of community living and governance and were accompanied by greater collegiality subsidiarity variety in prayer
