Alone With The Horrors The Great Short Fiction Of Ramsey Campbell 1961 1991:

Alone with the Horrors Ramsey Campbell, 1993 Gathers a representative selection from thirty years of the author's horror stories Alone with the Horrors Ramsey Campbell, 1994-04-07 Alone with the Horrors Ramsey Campbell, 1994 Thirty nine chronologically arranged horror stories spanning thirty years of Campbell's work The 1970s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Nick Hubble, John McLeod, Philip Tew, 2014-02-27 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 1970s shape Contemporary British Fiction Exploring the impact of events like the Cold War miners strikes and Winter of Discontent this volume charts the transition of British fiction from post war to contemporary Chapters outline the decade's diversity of writing showing how the literature of Ian McEwan and Ian Sinclair interacted with the experimental work of B S Johnson Close contextual readings of Welsh Scottish Northern Irish and English novels map the steady break up of Britain Tying the popularity of Angela Carter and Fay Weldon to the growth of the Women's Liberation Movement and calling attention to a new interest in documentary modes of autobiographical writing this volume also examines the rising resonance of the marginal voices the world of 1970s British Feminist fiction and postcolonial and diasporic writers Against a backdrop of social tensions this major critical reassessment of the 1970s defines explores and better understands the criticism and fiction of a decade marked by the sense of endings Ramsey Campbell Keith M. C. O'Sullivan, 2023-05-15 This book pays overdue attention to the British writer Ramsey Campbell a key figure in the post 1970s boom in Anglo American horror fiction Despite a huge output and receiving every accolade within his field over a long career Campbell has not yet been accorded anything like the wider critical recognition given to his contemporary Stephen King This study concentrates also on Campbell's neglected novels and novellas rather than the short stories for which he has been better known The book Ramsey Campbell establishes the author's unique prose style denoted by a haunted self consciousness about the act of writing and role of readership and his distinctive mediation of the Gothic tradition religiously agnostic politically liberal and ethically humane For the first time Campbell's works are interpreted in the contexts of trends in postmodernist and posthumanist thought and compared explicitly to King's and his contribution to both Gothic studies and wider contemporary literature is appraised A Feeling of Wrongness Joseph Packer, Ethan Stoneman, 2018-11-01 In A Feeling of Wrongness Joseph Packer and Ethan Stoneman confront the rhetorical challenge inherent in the concept of pessimism by analyzing how it is represented in an eclectic range of texts on the fringes of popular culture from adult animated cartoons to speculative fiction Packer and Stoneman explore how narratives such as True Detective Rick and Morty Final Fantasy VII Lovecraftian weird fiction and the pop ideology of transhumanism are better suited to communicate pessimistic affect to their fans than most carefully argued philosophical treatises and polemics They show how these popular nondiscursive texts successfully circumvent the typical defenses against pessimism identified by Peter Wessel Zapffe as distraction isolation anchoring and sublimation They twist genres upend common tropes and disturb conventional narrative structures in a way that catches their audience off guard resulting in belief without cognition a more rhetorically effective form of pessimism than philosophical pessimism While philosophers and polemicists argue for pessimism in accord with the inherently optimistic structures of expressive thought or rhetoric Packer and Stoneman show how popular texts are able to communicate their pessimism in ways that are paradoxically freed from the restrictive tools of optimism A Feeling of Wrongness thus presents uncharted rhetorical possibilities for narrative making visible the rhetorical efficacy of alternate ways and means of persuasion
