

YUCCA IS YELLOWING

Yucca is yellowing
Hello, yellow!
Cactus is crimsoning!
Glow, glow, red fellow!
And in the mesquite bush is seen
A splash of green —

As when sunset colors spill
Their beauty down an evening hill.

No one rides the trail to-day —
Who cares, if strange or lonely?
No one goes the desert way —
It is for beauty only.

Branch has ferreted out producing his compilation with enthusiasm and accuracy This book is a definitive guide to Farrell's writings published in newspapers magazines pamphlets and books from the time of his high school days through 1957 It includes both the fiction novels short stories one poem and one play and the nonfiction essays articles statements manifestoes newspaper columns etc and in many cases descriptions of these writings are appended when deemed necessary As a further aid to students and researchers Branch has listed many reprints and dates of writing for the individual short stories and has provided two appendices giving foreign editions of books and tape recordings of unpublished speeches This detailed bibliography the first on Farrell ever printed is supplemented by a preface by Farrell and a foreword by the author Edgar Branch has directed his attention to the more inaccessible of Farrell's writings and to the clarification of the voluminous abundance of written material that Farrell has produced Through this book it is possible to trace Farrell's fluctuating status as a writer his shifting position among editors critics and readers The data included other clues to the evolution and growth of his ideas and relationships with his contemporaries providing insight into his changing political affiliations and the motivation and development of his fiction A Bibliography of James T.
