Making of the Odyssey Martin Litchfield West, 2014 The poet of the Odyssey was a seriously flawed genius He had a wonderfully inventive imagination a gift for pictorial detail and for introducing naturalistic elements into epic dialogue and a grand architectural plan for the poem He was also a slapdash artist often copying verses from the Iliad or from himself without close attention to their suitability With various possible ways of telling the story bubbling up in his mind he creates a narrative marked by constant inconsistency of detail He is a fluent composer who delights in prolonging his tale with subsidiary episodes yet his deployment of the epic language is often inept and sometimes simply unintelligible The Making of the Odyssey is a penetrating study of the background composition and artistry of the Homeric Odyssey Martin West places the poem in its late seventh century context in relation to the Iliad and other poetry of the time He also investigates the traditions that lie behind it the origins of the figure of Odysseus and folk tales such as those of the One eyed Ogre and the Husband's Return

Persian Studies in North America Mehdi Marashi, 1994-01-01 Thirty two articles by leading scholars on the state of the study of Persian literature Four of the articles are in Persian These articles were dedicated to Professor Mohammad Ali Jazayeri upon his retirement Lectures on Central Asia H. B. Paksoy, 2005 Lectures delivered in Budapest at the Central European University The Azerbaijani Turks Audrey L. Altstadt, 2013-09-01 The first comprehensive account of Azerbaijan's rich and tumultuous history up to the present time Memory Practices and Learning Åsa Mäkitalo, Per Linell, Roger Säljö, 2017-01-01 Memory and learning are seen as mental phenomena and generally studied as brain processes for example within various branches of psychology and neuroscience This book represents a rather different tack based on sociocultural theory cultural psychology and dialogism Authors from many different disciplines and countries study memory and learning as practices adopted by people in different interactional and institutional contexts Studies range from detailed analyses of situated activities to broad sociohistorical studies of cultural phenomena and collective memories such as national narratives and physical symbols for commemorating events and traditions By focusing on how people engage in remembering and learning this book provides a necessary complement to currently popular neuroscientific approaches Islamization and Native Religion in the Golden Horde Devin DeWeese, 2010-11-01 This book is the first substantial study of Islamization in any part of Inner Asia from any perspective and the first to emphasize conversion narratives as important sources for understanding the dynamics of Islamization Challenging the prevailing notions of the nature of Islam in Inner Asia it explores how conversion to Islam was woven together with indigenous Inner Asian religious values and thereby incorporated as a central and defining element in popular discourse about communal origins and identity The book traces the many echoes of a single conversion narrative through six centuries the previously unknown recounting of the dramatic contest in which the khan zbek adopted Islam at the behest of a Sufi saint named Baba T kles DeWeese provides the English language translation of this and another text as well as translations and analyses of a wide range of passages from historical sources and epic and folkloric materials Not only does this study deepen our understanding of the peoples of Central Asia involved in so much turmoil today but it also provides a model for other scholars to emulate in looking at the process of Islamization and communal religious conversion in general as it occurred elsewhere in the world Reassessing Orientalism Michael Kemper,Artemy M. Kalinovsky,2015-02-11 Orientalism as a concept was first applied to Western colonial views of the East Subsequently different types of orientalism were discovered but the premise was that these took their lead from Western style orientalism applying it in different circumstances This book on the other hand argues that the diffusion of interpretations and techniques in orientalism was not uni directional and that the different orientologies Western Soviet and oriental orientologies were interlocked in such a way that a change in any one of them affected the others that the different orientologies did not develop in isolation from each other and that importantly those being orientalised were active not passive players in shaping how the views of themselves were developed The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies for 1994 Patt Leonard,Rebecca Routh,1997-05-31 This text provides a source of citations to North American scholarships relating specifically to the area of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union It indexes fields of scholarship such as the humanities arts technology and life sciences and all kinds of scholarship such as PhDs The Semetey of Kenje Kara Kenje Kara,2006 Mixed media accompanied by CD of same title Essays on Central Asia HB Paksoy, D. Phil., historical essays A New Companion to Homer Ian Morris,Barry B. within China and on world stages This book compares the cultural materials skills and contexts of traditional muqam performance with those of the modern repertoire Ariadne's Thread William F.
