Altars In The Street:

Altars in the Street Melody Ermachild Chavis, 1997 Confronting an urban nightmare of drugs violence and despair a leading American Buddhist tests her faith in non violence by putting spirituality to work where it really counts in the community

Altars in the Street Melody Ermachild Chavis, 2010-12-22 Altars in the Street is the personal chronicle of Melody Ermachild Chavis who bought a house in what was a quiet interracial neighborhood on the south side of Berkeley California but which became a place where drugs and violence were growth industries It is about the life of a mother trying with other mothers to raise children in a dangerous world It is also the inspiring story of how she and her neighbors found ways of working with each other the youngsters the elderly the unemployed the addicts the drunks and even the police and the drug dealers in a courageous effort to preserve their homes and their lives It teaches community action we can all adopt such as tutoring at local schools encouraging teenagers to start a gardening project and accompanying them to court when they find themselves in trouble This book illustrates our collective responsibility for bringing about healing It is a brave and wonderful wake up call full of the nitty gritty of how each of us can make a difference when push really does come to shove Drawing on deep reserves of good humor common sense and practical experience of nonviolent action Melody Ermachild Chavis has written a moving testament to the power of spirit in today s often cynical world Altars in the Street is for people who live in cities and those who have fled them It will speak to anyone who cares about the future of our children our neighborhoods and our nation anyone who wants to look truthfully at the relationship between poverty and prisons and between community and education It is also for those who seek to put spirituality to work where it really counts on the street where we live From the Hardcover edition

Denise Levertov Audrey T. Rodgers, 1993 Through careful analysis of Levertov s social verse she demonstrates that there is a consistency and pattern in what the artist herself has termed the poems of engagement Denise Levertov began her career in England as a lyric poet in the Romantic mode but even then was touched by the reductive nature of war revealed in her first published poem Listening to Distant Guns During the mid 1960s Levertov s social conscience notably her strong antiwar sentiment was reawakened by the Vietnam War This reawakening resulted in several volumes of poetry that mirrored her concerns with the war and political activism at home and her perplexity at the nature of human beings often great and compassionate but at times cruel and insensitive There exists a common thread in Levertov s pilgrimage from her beginning as a lyric poet to her status as an artist definitively in the world she has always responded to everything within the compass of her experience
