

Building up alternative economic spaces A comparison of concepts in the Global North and South

Armin Kratzer, Gerhard Rainer, Ana Garay, Julieta Krapovickas

Abstract: Rural societies around the world face numerous challenges related to containing market pressures on agro-food production, which is causing a loss of competitiveness of small-scale agriculture. The outlook for the future is unclear for the rural population while an increase in new capitalized actors is visible in the Global North and South. However, there is also a display of resistance and innovative actions by many groups in rural societies. This paper introduces some of the conceptual approaches underlying these development paths. We provide an overview on the problem definitions, goals, means and central actors that are nurturing these alternative economic spaces. In doing so, we seek to bridge some aspects of the North and South, co-creating the world we want.

Introduction

For a long time rural regions were hardly connected with distant countries. The elimination of trade barriers, the rise of new communication media and a high mobility of people and goods however have connected these peripheries to global processes, particularly with global production networks (Neuburger, 2014). Therefore, rural communities in peripheral areas all over the world are confronted with a particular challenge: The increasing globalization and industrialization of food production and trade provokes a decrease of small-scale agriculture's competitiveness and makes the sustaining of agriculture-based livelihoods an ever more complex process. This does not only have

Interrogating Alterity Duncan Fuller, Andrew E. G. Jonas, Roger Lee, 2010 Alternative ways of thinking analysing and performing economic geographies have become ever more significant in recent years The importance of such alternatives continues to be underlined by the recent global financial crisis the ongoing social and political consequences of which have spread from Europe and the USA to economies and places throughout the world Yet there is a real danger that the debate about alternatives simply becomes a way of fixing global capitalism in its present crisis ridden form Instead the analysis of alternative economic spaces must continue to offer a critique of the very notion of capitalism as a universal if variable set of social relations For geographers and other critical social scientists there is great excitement about the possibilities inherent in constructing alternative economic spaces and for exploiting alternative spaces of political engagement This important book brings together critical analyses of alterity from across the social sciences and humanities refining and advancing what alternative economies and polities are how they are formed what difficulties and problems they face and how they might be sustained A central theme running through the book is the need to examine critically both the material contexts and the conceptual categories deployed in the making of alternative economies This rich and inspiring collection samples an exciting new scholarly tradition one that draws upon and feeds into the social movements that are transforming economies worldwide At once supportive and critical Interrogating Alterity is a must read for anyone interested in the other economies currently taking shape on the ground J K Gibson Graham University of Massachusetts Amherst USA and University of Western Sydney Australia Alternative Economies and Spaces

Hans-Martin Zademach, Sebastian Hillebrand, 2014-04-15 The volume entails a collection of contributions by leading scholars Raymond Bryant Michael K Goodman Benjamin Huybrechts Andrew E G Jonas Roger Lee Peter North and Katinka Weber concerned with alternative modes of economic and social exchange The cases addressed in these contributions including credit unions alternative currencies sustainable consumption and social enterprises deliver valuable insights into how such alternatives are performed at various scales and spaces in relation to and beyond the economic mainstream In sum the collection provides vital grounds for both a transition of the economic system towards a more sustainable one and a reconceptualisation of the economic itself in our scholarly thinking and everyday lives

Dynamics of Economic Spaces in the Global Knowledge-based Economy Sam Park, 2014-09-19 This book addresses how economic spaces dynamically change within the context of the global knowledge based economy Specifically it centers the discussion on integrated views of understanding and conceptualizing dynamic changes of global economy under the global megatrends of globalization knowledge based economy information society service world climate change and population aging Focusing on East Asia especially on Korea it deals with case studies regarding the processes and patterns of these global dynamics looking at economic spaces of various spatial scales and types of economic actors This book develops a theoretical model for understanding and analysing the dynamics of economic spaces that are being reshaped within the larger global economy It also emphasizes the analysis of empirical studies at the level of firm region and state by considering an evolutionary perspective over time In developing its theoretical framework this book examines regional resilience intangible assets service innovation path dependence and other notions related to the evolution of economic spaces and incorporates these elements into real world case studies The integrated theoretical framework examined here contributes a new perspective on spatial disparities in the global economy An integral model of service innovation the integration of path dependence and regional resilience the interaction between firm and region for the accumulation of intangible assets and the roles of governments and global firms these are all essential to understanding the dynamics of economic spaces in East Asia The theoretical model and case studies in this book suggest policy implications for developing countries especially in the Asian and African regions with regard to regional development and innovation policies

Interrogating Alterity Duncan Fuller, 2016-05-06 Alternative ways of thinking analysing and performing economic geographies have become increasingly significant in recent years partly due to the recent financial crisis which has had social and political consequences throughout the world Yet there is a danger that the debate about alternatives may become simply a way of fixing global capitalism in its present crisis ridden form Instead the analysis of alternative economic spaces must continue to offer a critique of the very notion of capitalism as a universal if variable set of social relations This important book brings together critical analyses of alterity from across the social sciences and humanities refining and advancing what alternative economies and polities are how they are formed what difficulties and problems they face and how they might be sustained A central theme is the need to examine critically both the material contexts and the conceptual categories deployed in the making of alternative economies Alternative Economies and Spaces, 2013

Everyday Moral Economies Marisa Wilson, 2013-09-23 Offering a rare glimpse of rural life in modern day Cuba this book examines how ordinary Cubans carve out their own spaces for appropriate acts of consumption exchange and production within the contradictory normative and material spaces of everyday economic life Discusses the conflict between the socialist welfare ideal of food as an entitlement and the market value of food as a commodity Bridges the fields of human geography and anthropology Approaches food networks and the scale of food systems in a novel way Provides a comprehensive look at Cuba today with coverage of history politics economics and social and environmental justice Enhanced by vivid photos from the field

The Handbook of Diverse Economies J.K. Gibson-Graham, Kelly Dombroski, 2020-02-28 Economic diversity abounds in a more than capitalist world from worker recuperated cooperatives and anti mafia social enterprises to caring labour and the work of Earth Others from fair trade and social procurement to community land trusts free universities and Islamic finance The Handbook of Diverse Economies presents research that inventories economic difference as a prelude to building ethical ways of living on our dangerously degraded planet With contributing authors from twenty countries it presents new thinking around subjectivity and methodology as strategies for making other worlds possible

Commoning Labour and Democracy at Work Dario Azzellini, Marcelo Vieta, 2025-08-28 This book investigates the return of workers self management in recent decades as responses to recurring neoliberal crises In particular the book homes in on worker recuperated enterprises WREs a promising form of workers self organization whereby workers restart troubled bankrupt or shuttered companies as cooperatives or other forms of democratic workplace The book argues that WREs are prefigurative of new forms of work based on equality and sustainability Framed by the concepts of autogesti n the labour commons and prefigurative ethico political practices the book argues that WREs contribute to the construction of more directly democratic community economies Drawing on a range of contemporary case studies from numerous countries in the Global South and North as well as new theories of workers self management the book contributes a critical development political economic and class struggle Marxist perspective to the re emergent labour question within anti systemic social movements while theorizing the transformative nature of WREs for workers work organizations and communities Bringing a class analysis back into current discourses and debates concerning democracy at work and alternatives to global capital this book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of development studies labour studies political economy sociology of development sociology of work and political science Naming Food After Places Apostolos G. Papadopoulos, Maria Fonte, 2016-04-29 Bringing together a range of case studies from Ireland Scotland Sweden Germany Norway Poland Italy Portugal Spain and Greece this book compares and contrasts different models of food re localization The richness and complexity of the international case studies provide a broad understanding of the characteristics of the re localization movement while the analysis of knowledge forms and dynamics provides an innovative new theoretical approach Each of the national teams work on the basis of an agreed common framework resulting in a strongly coherent and comprehensive continental overview This shows how the actors involved are pursuing their objectives in different regional and national contexts re embedding socially and ecologically the relation between food production consumption and places Teaching Secondary Geography as If the Planet Matters John Morgan, 2013-10-08 This thought provoking text looks at how Geography teachers can develop approaches to curriculum and learning which help students understand the nature of the contemporary world Consuming Space Michael K. Goodman, David Goodman, 2016-05-23 An examination of the relationship between space place and consumption offers important insights into some of the most powerful forces constructing contemporary societies Space and place are made and remade through consumption Yet how do cultures of consumption discover space and how do they construct place This book addresses these questions by exploring the implications of conceptualizing consumption as a spatial increasingly global yet intensely localized activity The work develops integrative approaches that articulate the processes involved in the production and consumption of space and place The result is a varied engaging and innovative study of consumption and its role in structuring contemporary capitalist political economies Teaching Geography 11-18: a Conceptual Approach David Lambert, John

Morgan, 2010-01-16 This is a must read for all 11 18 geography educators It argues for a new geography curriculum founded on a set of major concepts that are profoundly relevant to 21st century life For years books on 11 18 geography education have focussed on classroom techniques new pedagogic technologies and alternative modes of student assessment Not this one Teaching Geography 11 18 digs deep It asks not only what geography is for but bases its answer on a set of key concepts able to sustain an exciting and relevant curriculum It also grounds its many arguments in the latest geographical research thus re establishing the broken connection between geography teaching in schools and that in higher education Professor Noel Castree University of Manchester UK This engaging and stimulating book aims to radically re shape and sharpen debates in geography education by taking an entirely fresh approach to both the subject and its place in secondary education Key questions addressed in this book include What is the place of geography within the secondary school curriculum To what extent does school geography reflect and engage with contemporary issues and theories from the wider subject What are the issues challenges and opportunities of a concept led approach to teaching geography What are the implications of ICT media and technology for the future of geography teaching in schools Influenced by the revised national curriculum for geography which has reduced the prescribed content to be covered this book offers an objective view of the concept led approach The new focus on concepts represents a significant shift in how geography is to be taught in schools yet there has been little extended discussion of what a concept led approach to teaching and learning would entail This book fills that void by examining geography s key concepts and providing teachers with a theoretically robust and practical approach to curriculum planning using a concept led approach This is essential reading for all secondary geography teachers trainee teachers and anyone involved with education and curriculum planning
