Policing the Media David D. Perlmutter,2000-02-15 Policing the Media is an investigation into one of the paradoxes of the mass media age Issues events and people that we see most on our television screens are often those that we understand the least David Perlmutter examined this issue as it relates to one of the most frequently portrayed groups of people on television police officers Policing the Media is a report on the ethnography of a police department derived from the author s experience riding on patrol with officers and joining the department as a reserve policeman Drawing upon interviews Perlmutter describes the lives and philosophies of street patrol officers He finds that cops hold ambiguous attitudes toward their television characters for much of TV copland is fantastic and unrealistic Moreover the officers perceive that the public s attitudes toward law enforcement and crime are directly influenced by mass media This in turn he suggests influences the way that they themselves behave and perform on the street and that unreal and surreal expectations of them are propagated by television cop shows This cycle of perceptual influence may itself profoundly impact the contemporary criminal justice system on the street in the courts and in the hearts and minds of ordinary people School-teachers Retirement System in the District of Columbia United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the District of Columbia,1926 A March to Remember Clara McKenna,2016-09-27 Traveling secretary Hattie Davish is taking her singular talents to Washington D C to help Sir Arthur Windom Greene research his next book But in the winding halls of the nation s capital searching for the truth can sometimes lead to murder Hattie is in her element digging through dusty basements attics and abandoned buildings not to be denied until she fishes out that elusive fact But her delightful explorations are dampened when she witnesses a carriage crash into a carp pond beneath the shadow of the Washington Monument Alarminglly one of the passengers flees the scene leaving the other to drown The incident only heightens tensions brought on by the much publicized arrival of Coxey s Army thousands of unemployed men converging on the capital for the first ever organized march on Washington When one of the marchers is found murdered in the ensuing chaos Hattie begins to suspect a sinister conspiracy is at hand As she expands her investigations into the motives of murder and closes in on the trail of a killer she is surprised and distraught to learn that her research will lead her straight to the highest levels of government Praise for A Deceptive Homecoming A well written historical mystery that brought the period to life Mystery Scene Extraordinary Questions Allyn David McAuley,2010-09

These irreconcilable tensions derive from the same source from the failure of Western rationalism to erect a solid house on a solid foundation as it promised it would That is Western philosophy promised an elegant structure with the top floor comprised of the gracious rooms for human living the space where man lives happily with man because he understands the cosmic necessity of the moral truths he knows surely what he and his fellow man should do to be fulfilled and happy in the most sublime sense of happiness The discovery by rational science that man is an historical and biological accident convinced the philosopher that moral truths must be relative to unsupported human choice and therefore that our moral certainty would have to be derived from the non scientific realm of faith the realm of religion and art the realm of the non rational Today the good news is that this problem is really almost academic as they say From the late nineteenth century through most of the twentieth the failure of Western rationalism created a great outpouring of thought and expression from thinkers artists scientists and ordinary intellectuals Even the great world wars were often understood in light of this issue Today all is quiet on the Western front The vacuum left by the failure of Western rationalism in regard to human morality seems to have been filled quite nicely by the Judeo Christian and Islamic religions and perhaps they always carried most of the burden for most of us anyway Only in the hallowed halls of our academies if there do earnest students and professors argue over the foundations of human thought and action Now that things are quiet and old controversies are largely ignored if not exactly laid to rest it might be enjoyable to start thinking again For when the entertainment is over and one is alone the mind turns to reflection In this collection of essays Allyn McAuley explores many of the largest themes in Western philosophy from a fresh perspective He believes that both primary branches of contemporary philosophy have lost the original animating spirit of Western thought and attributes this to their implicit acceptance of modern moral relativism Advocating a return to the naive questioning characteristic of our native intelligence the author examines popular views on such diverse issues as abortion ethics the Internet and human freedom extraterrestrial intelligence business theory and international human rights He moves from these topical reflections to offer thoughts on extraordinary questions that he believes are beyond the mastery of any philosopher yet demand the attention of all thinking men and women questions on the nature of truth beauty love happiness and the immortality of the human soul McAuley concludes with the contention that philosophy by itself is insufficient and that the scientific impulse must be supplemented by the artistic sensibility in order to yield true understanding and therefore happiness the goal of human life
