Islamic Family Law in a Changing World 'Abd Allāh Aḥmad Na'im,2002-08 In Islamic Family Law in a Changing World Abdullahi A An Na im explores the practice of the Shari a commonly known as Islamic Family Law An Na im shows that the practical application of Shari a principles is often modified by theological differences of interpretation a country s particular customary practices and state policy and law Women in Islam Anne-Sofie Roald,2003-09-02 Women in Islam investigates the ongoing debate across the Muslim world and the West on the position of women in Islam Anne Sofie Roald focuses on how Islamic perceptions of women and gender change in Western Muslim communities She shows how Islamic attitudes towards social concerns such as gender relations female circumcision and female dress emerge as responsive to culture and context rather than rigid and inflexible Popular Culture, Piracy, and Outlaw Pedagogy Elizabeth Alford Pollock,2014-05-05 Popular Culture Piracy and Outlaw Pedagogy explores the relationship between power and resistance by critiquing the popular cultural image of the pirate represented in Pirates of the Caribbean Of particular interest is the reliance on modernism s binary good evil Sparrow Jones how the films distinguish the two concepts characters via corruption and what we may learn from this structure which I argue supports neoliberal ideologies of indifference towards the piratical Other What became evident in my research is how the erasure of corruption via imperial and colonial codifications within seventeenth century systems of culture class hierarchies and language succeeded in its re presentation of the pirate and members of a colonized India as corrupt individuals with empire emerging from the struggle as exempt from that corruption This erasure is evidenced in Western portrayals of Somali pirates as corrupt Beings without any acknowledgement of transnational corporations role in provoking pirate resurgence in that region This forces one to re examine who the pirate is in this situation Erasure is also evidenced in current interpretations of both Bush s No Child Left Behind and Obama s Race to the Top initiative While NCLB created conditions through which corruption occurred I demonstrate how Race to the Top erases that corruption from the institution of education by placing it solely into the hands of teachers thus providing the institution a free pass to engage in any behavior it deems fit What pirates teach us then are potential ways to thwart the erasure process by engaging a pedagogy of passion purpose radical love and loyalty to the people involved in the educational process

Rethinking Violence Against Women R. Africa and Its Significant Others, 2016-08-09 When did the intimate dialogue between Africa Europe and the Americas begin Looking back it seems as if these three continents have always been each other's significant others Europe created its own modern identity by using Africa as a mirror but Africans traveled to Europe and America long before the European age of discovery and African cultures can be said to lie at the root of European culture This intertwining has become ever more visible Nowadays Africa emerges as a highly visible presence in the Americas and African American styles capture Europe's youth many of whom are of North African descent This entanglement however remains both productive and destructive The continental economies are intertwined in ways disastrous for Africa and African knowledge is all too often exported and translated for US and European scholarly aims which increases the intercontinental knowledge gap This volume proposes a fresh look at the vigorous and painful but inescapable relationships between these significant others It does so as a gesture of gratitude and respect to one of the pioneering figures in this field Dutch Africanist and literary scholar Mineke Schipper who is taking her leave from her chair in Intercultural Literary Studies at the University of Leiden Where have the past four decades of African studies brought us What is the present day state of this intercontinental dialogue Sixteen of Mineke's colleagues and friends in Europe Africa and the Americas look back and assess the relations and debates between Africa Europe America Ann Adams Ernst van Alphen Mieke Bal Liesbeth Bekers Wilfried van Damme Ariel Dorfman Peter Geschiere Kathleen Gyssels Isabel Hoving Frans Willem Korsten Babacar M Baye Harry Olufunwa Ankie Peypers Steven Shankman Miriam Tlali and Chantal Zabus write about the place of Africa in today's African Diaspora about what sisterhood between African and European women really means about the drawbacks of an overly strong focus on culture in debates about Africa about Europe's reluctance to see Africa as other than its mirror or its playing field about the images of Africans in seventeenth century Dutch writing about genital excision the flaunting of the African female body and the new self writing about new ways to look at classic African novels and about the invigorating disturbing political art of intercultural reading

Eradicating Female Genital

Mutilation Hilary Burrage, 2016-12-05 This ground breaking handbook details the present situation with regard to female genital mutilation FGM in Britain referring also to other Western nations where FGM occurs It scrutinises current pathways to eradicating this dangerous sometimes lethal form of child abuse and gender related violence The cultural and belief systems giving rise to FGM are complex Further FGM is an intensely intimate matter often imposed on young and vulnerable children Approaches to its eradication therefore demand considerable human insight and a competent grasp of inter cross agency working It is also vital that everyone concerned whether in caring and parental safeguarding or other roles understands fully that regardless of custom or belief FGM is a serious crime The vulnerabilities and need for protection of victims and potential victims are paramount but these pressing priorities do not lessen the requirement that all aspects of FGM be dealt with straightforwardly in accordance with the law This book makes the case urgently for developing a shared coherent model a multi disciplinary paradigm articulated at the highest level as the basis to achieve the eradication of FGM

The text will be required reading for health legal educational and social services professionals as well as researchers policy makers school governors journalists and other concerned citizens Scars Across Humanity Elaine Storkey, 2018-02-20 Acts of violence against women produce more deaths disability and mutilation than cancer malaria and traffic accidents combined How and why has this violence become so prevalent Elaine Storkey offers a rigorously researched overview of this global pandemic exploring how violence is structured into the very fabric of societies and cultures around the world

Circle Thinking Carrie Pemberton, 2002-12-01 This volume traces the origins of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians a group of African women theologians established in the 1980s It is a movement which has been dedicated to research publication and support of African women The book traces a struggle against excluding and alienating practices from Western missionary tradition and African cultural transpositions in contemporary Church and society The theology of advocacy which has emerged encourages African women to develop theologies of empowerment from their histories and struggles and addresses the multiple crises which the continent faces The problems of culture ethics and post colonialism are explored in the issues surrounding ubiquitous violence against women on the continent and the continuation of clitoridectomy as an enduring strategy for making gender and clan for some African peoples Transcultural Bodies Ylva Hernlund, Bettina Shell-Duncan, 2007-06-07 Female circumcision or more precisely female genital cutting FGC remains an important cultural practice in many African countries often serving as a coming of age ritual It is also a practice that has generated international dispute and continues to be at the center of debates over women's rights the limits of cultural pluralism the balance of power between local cultures international human rights and feminist activism In our increasingly globalized world these practices have also begun immigrating to other nations where transnational complexities vex debates about how to resolve the issue Bringing together thirteen essays Transcultural Bodies provides an ethnographically rich exploration of FGC among African diasporas in the United Kingdom Europe and Australia Contributors analyze changes in ideologies of gender and sexuality in immigrant communities the frequent marginalization of African women's voices in debates over FGC and controversies over legislation restricting the practice in immigrant populations Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to African Religions Elias Kifon Bongmba,2012-05-21 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to African Religions brings together a team of international scholars to create a single volume resource on the religious beliefs and practices of the peoples in Africa Offers broad coverage of issues relating to African religions considering experiences in indigenous Christian and Islamic traditions across the continent Contributors are from a variety of fields ensuring the volume offers multidisciplinary perspectives Explores methodological approaches to religion from anthropological philosophical and historical perspectives Provides insights into the historical developments in African religions as well as contemporary issues such as the development of African initiated churches neo traditional religions and Pentecostalism Discusses important topics at the intersection of culture and religion in Africa including the arts health politics globalization gender relations and the economy The Chicago Guide to Collaborative Ethnography Luke Eric Lassiter,2024-05-31 Collaboration between ethnographers and subjects has long been a product of the close intimate relationships that define ethnographic research But increasingly collaboration is no longer viewed as merely a consequence of fieldwork instead collaboration now preconditions and shapes research design as well as its dissemination As a result ethnographic subjects are shifting from being informants to being consultants The emergence of collaborative ethnography highlights this relationship between consultant and ethnographer moving it to center stage as a calculated part not only of fieldwork but also of the writing process itself The Chicago Guide to Collaborative Ethnography presents a historical theoretical and practice oriented road map for this shift from incidental collaboration to a more conscious and explicit collaborative strategy Luke Eric Lassiter charts the history of collaborative ethnography from its earliest implementation to its contemporary emergence in fields such as feminism humanistic anthropology and critical ethnography On this historical and theoretical base Lassiter outlines concrete steps for achieving a more deliberate and overt collaborative practice throughout the processes of fieldwork and writing As a participatory action situated in the ethical commitments between ethnographers and consultants and focused on the co construction of texts collaborative ethnography argues Lassiter is among the most powerful ways to press ethnographic fieldwork and writing into the service of an applied and public scholarship A comprehensive and highly accessible handbook for ethnographers of all stripes The Chicago Guide to Collaborative Ethnography will become a fixture in the development of a critical practice of anthropology invaluable to both undergraduates graduate students and faculty alike Cutting the Rose: Female Genital Mutilation - The Practice and Its Prevention Efua Dorkenoo,1994-01-01 Only from such models is it fully possible to explore such issues as the rights of women and of children of the part which the well being of women

plays in the health of a nation and also the strengths and weaknesses of the various international campaigns on the subject

The Problem of Ritual Efficacy William Sax, Johannes Quack, Jan Weinhold, 2010-02-25 This collection of 10 contributed essays is the first to explicitly address the question of ritual efficacy The authors do not aspire to answer the question how do rituals work in a simplistic fashion but rather to show how complex the question is While some contributors do indeed advance a particular theory of ritual efficacy others ask whether the question makes any sense at all and most show how complex it is by referring to the sociocultural environment in which it is posed since the answer depends on who is asking the question and what criteria they use to evaluate the efficacy of ritual
