Country Of Exiles The Destruction Of Place In American Life:

Country of Exiles William Leach, 1999 In Country of Exiles William Leach whose Land of Desire was a finalist for the National Book Award explores the troubling effects of our national love affair with mobility He shows us how the impulse to pull up stakes and find a new frontier has always battled with the need to put down roots and how a new cosmopolitanism has seized our national identity Leach takes us across a featureless America where strip malls homogenize a once varied and majestic landscape and where casinos displace the Native American spiritual connection to the land He shows us a culture where everyone from CEOs to office temps abandons the notion of company loyalty and where rootless academics posit a world without borders With compelling vision and insight Leach reveals the profound but often hidden impact of America's disintegrating sense of place on our national and individual psyche From the Trade Paperback edition

Dryden's Second Hundred Years Elizabeth Gutchess, 2006-11 Dryden's Second Hundred Years Part I chronicles life in a small farming village in Central New York during the first half of the twentieth century But along with a close reading of the local scene its telephones roads real and rumored milk strikes and letters back home from the trenches of two wars this narrative has a wide arc and rich texture author Elizabeth Denver Gutchess dovetails local history with national and international events which shaped and countered it as she explores connections and disconnections between this small community and the world at large Essentially in fact Dryden's Second Hundred Years records a transformation of place as Dryden's tightly woven social fabric slowly unraveled during the century while ever lengthening strands of road and cable reached farther and farther beyond this small hill rimmed valley weaving ever wider and more life enhancing communities for the people who live here At a time when the process of globalization outweighs all things local however it is important to keep balance The global village as many have warned will be enriched not by neglecting the local but by taking care of it One way to do that is simply to know and understand the local past Like the body of fine work already produced by Dryden historians and by local historians everywhere this book might help us do that

Tensional Landscapes Gary Backhaus, John Murungi, 2003-01-01 The contributors to this volume address global regional and local landscapes cosmopolitan and indigenous cultures and human and more than human ecology as they work to reveal place specific tensional dynamics Essays discuss Kant's theory of cosmopolitanism versus Hegel's philosophy of geographical determinism the tension of cosmopolitanism versus a closer embeddedness in place scapes geographical determinism in the colonial practices of Colombia and in the current political rhetoric surrounding the revival of Saxony preservational policies in Norway regulation of gated communities in the United States and the hermeneutics of Ground Zero This unusual book which covers such a wide ranging array of topics coheres into a work that will be a valuable reference for scholars of geography and the philosophy of place

Beyond Homelessness, 15th Anniversary Edition Steven Bouma-Prediger, Brian J. Walsh, 2023-09-12 What would the world look like if everyone had a home The rise in homeless encampments The destruction of our planet The disconnection from place caused by capitalism and technology Beyond the unavailability of housing our culture is experiencing a devastating loss of home In Beyond Homelessness Steven Bouma Prediger and Brian Walsh explore the relationship between socioeconomic ecological and cultural homelessness Bouma Prediger and Walsh blend groundbreaking scholarship with stirring biblical meditations while enriching their discussion with literature music and art Offering practical solutions and a hope filled vision of home they show how to heal the deep dislocations in our society In this fifteenth anniversary edition the authors return to their work with a new postscript in which they discuss the evolution of their ideas and share true stories of home and community built anew This revitalized classic is a must read for any Christian committed to social justice and anyone longing for home

Noble Powell and the Episcopal Establishment in the Twentieth Century David Hein, 2007-05-01 Hein skillfully provides regional religious and historical contexts for Powell s life and furnishes penetrating insights into the man and the entire Episcopal establishment of this era The author resourcefully combines secondary scholarship personal conversations and communications and conventional primary documents to capture Powell s personality career and relationships Anyone with a serious interest in American religious history will find this compelling biography to be both informative and thought provoking Samuel C Shepherd Jr Journal of Southern History Hein s wide knowledge of the sociocultural forces at work in the mid twentieth century and especially the forces that generated the Civil Rights movement of the 1950s and 1960s have enabled him to illuminate an entire period of Episcopal Church history through the life and work of one man Hein s gracious style judicious insights and especially his striking ability to penetrate the subtleties of southern religion in brief and trenchant observations make this book a pleasure to read Susan J White Anglican and Episcopal History A painstaking thoughtful biography To this story Hein brings balance sensitivity and exhaustive research As the last bishop of the old church Noble Powell will be remembered longer than many of his predecessors James Bready Baltimore Sun This biography is meticulously researched full of primary source material and rich documentation It is fun to read for anyone with an interest in American Protestant history David E Sumner Journal of American History

Bringing the Biosphere Home Mitchell Thomashow, 2001-10-26 A guide for understanding the ecological and existential aspects of global environmental change This book shows how to make global environmental problems more tangible so that they become an integral part of everyday awareness At its core is a simple assumption that the best way to learn to perceive the biosphere is to pay close attention to our immediate surroundings Through local natural history observations imagination and memory and spiritual contemplation we develop a place based environmental view that can be expanded to encompass the biosphere Interweaving global change science personal narrative and commentary on a wide range of scientific and literary works the book explores both the ecological and existential aspects of urgent issues such as the loss of biodiversity and global climate change Written in a warm engaging style Bringing the Biosphere Home considers the perceptual connections between the local and global how the ecological news of the community is of interest to the world and how the global movement of people species and weather systems affects the local community It shows how global environmental change can become the province of numerous educational initiatives from the classroom to the Internet from community forums to international conferences from the backyard to the biosphere It explains important scientific concepts in clear nontechnical language and provides dozens of ideas for learning how to practice biospheric perception Urban Sprawl Gregory D. Squires, 2002-05-02 Urban Sprawl is not simply a development that undercuts the quality of life for suburbanites It has raised alarms across the nation as fair housing advocates environmentalists land use planners and even many suburban employers who cannot find the workers they need have recognized that the costs go far beyond aesthetics Despite the agreement that something needs to be done there is no consensus on what works Urban Sprawl Causes Consequences and Policy Responses assembles leading scholars who analyze the major causes and consequences of urban sprawl and the policy initiatives that are being explored in response to these developments When Stories Wound Nathaniel Samuel, 2025-02-15 How do we live responsibly in a world shaped by narrative When Stories Wound explores the significance of narrative for moral agency and engages the harm that our current polarizations have inflicted and our apathy and indifference towards it When Stories Wound urges readers to be conscious of the stories we live and to re imagine what responsibility looks like John and Postcolonialism Musa W. Dube Shomanah, Jeffrey Staley, 2002-09-19 An exciting collection of essays connecting postcolonialism and the Gospel of John written by a group of international scholars both established and new from Hispanic African Jewish Chinese Korean and African American backgrounds It explores important topics such as the appropriation of John in settler communities of the United States and Canada and the use of John in the colonisation of Africa Asia Latin America and New Zealand The interpreters represent communities of borderland dwellers women in colonised settings minority ethnic groups within colonised centres and others In an era of rapid globalisation increased travel rising diasporic communities and neo colonialism it is crucial that biblical scholars find ways to address this world with critical skill and sensitivity This book fills this need Service Sociology and Academic Engagement in Social Problems A. Javier Treviño, Karen M. McCormack, 2016-04-01 This book challenges sociologists and sociology students to think beyond the construction of social problems to tackle a central question What do sociologists do with the analytic tools and academic skills afforded by their discipline to respond to social problems Service Sociology posits that a central role of sociology is not simply to analyse and interpret social problems but to act in the world in an informed manner to ameliorate suffering and address the structural causes of these problems This volume provides a unique contribution to this approach to sociology exploring the intersection between its role as an academic discipline and its practice in the service of communities and people With both contemporary and historical analyses the book traces the legacy characteristics contours and goals of the sociology of service shedding light on its roots in early American sociology and its deep connections to activism before examining the social context that underlies the call for volunteerism community involvement and non profit organisations as well as the strategies that have promise in remedying contemporary social problems Presenting examples of concrete social problems from around the world including issues of democratic participation poverty and unemployment student involvement in microlending disaster mitigation the organization and leadership of social movements homelessness activism around HIV AIDS and service spring breaks Service Sociology and Academic Engagement in Social Problems explores the utility of public teaching participatory action research and service learning in the classroom as a contribution to the community Transnational Cinema Elizabeth Ezra,Terry Rowden,2006 Topics include from national to transnational cinema global cinema in the digital age motion pictures film migration and diaspora tourists and terrorists The American West in 2000 Richard W. Etulain,Ferenc Morton Szasz,2003 The ten original essays commissioned for this book focus on historical subjects in the post World War II American West The late Gerald Nash in whose honor the essays were written made major contributions to the study of modern American and western American history and his impact on those fields is demonstrated in these essays by several generations of his students and colleagues Emphasizing social and cultural developments the essays draw on methodologies and topics from comparative history environmental history urban history and political history The authors write on subjects ranging from women s rights to urban sprawl from organized religion to tourism from mining to American Indian culture An autobiographical essay by Nash himself situates his life s work in the context of two formative experiences his intellectual development as a German refugee arriving in New York in the late 1930s and his commitment to the study of the American West when he began graduate school The contributors include Margaret Connell Szasz Arthur R G mez Donald J Pisani Marjorie Bell Chambers Carol Lynn MacGregor Christopher J Huggard Roger W Lotchin and Gene M Gressley as well as Nash and the volume editors Untamed Hospitality Elizabeth Newman,2007-04 Untamed Hospitality digs into the important biblical theme of hospitality providing a profound initiation into this important but often misunderstood practice
