Outlaw Country Reporter Sam Kindrick, 2024-09-02 Journalist Sam Kindrick was present at the creation of Outlaw Country and perhaps as intimately involved as the artists themselves The longtime newspaper reporter and columnist is probably best known as the founder of Action Magazine in 1975 the principal vehicle for his wild and wooly chronicles of the music movement spawned by Willie Nelson Jerry Jeff Walker Kris Kristofferson David Allan Coe and others Born into a religious household in Junction Texas Kindrick matriculated at then Southwest Texas State College in San Marcos and began his journalistic career at the Bay City News Kerrville Times and San Angelo Standard Times before being hired by the San Antonio Express News in 1960 where he remained until 1975 Forging close ties with Nelson and other progenitors of the outlaw sound Kindrick adopted their redneck rock attitude and lifestyle which may partly explain why he was forced for a period of time to operate Action Magazine from the confines of Bexar County Jail In this no holds barred recounting of a colorful and eventful life Sam Kindrick takes readers inside the world of the artists who were reshaping country western music He also shines an unflinching light on the hard living ways that led to some of his darker moments Outlaw Country Reporter Misfits Madams and Hangin with Willie offers an unvarnished and supremely entertaining account of the early days of a vital moment in American music
