Collins,2021-04-15 The published writings of the Trappist monk Thomas Merton were always censored from two sources during his lifetime First by Merton himself as he certainly didn't write everything down or share all of what he included in his drafts He selected carefully what he considered appropriate for publication Second Thomas Merton was extensively censored by his religious superiors They regularly judged that things Merton chose to write should not be made available in print This was not infrequently a source of great frustration to Merton In this book Fr Patrick W Collins presents an uncensored view of the life and thoughts of Thomas Merton by plumbing his correspondence with family friends and colleagues over the years Merton's personal and professional correspondence was previously published by Farrar Straus and Giroux In this volume Collins extracts and organizes from these sources many of the significant subjects about which Merton wrote and presents each topic chronologically In this way readers can easily follow the development of Merton's thoughts feelings intuitions and impressions over the years on a variety of topics of concern to him To Speak the Truth in Love Schenk, CSJ, Christine ,2019-11-21 Through the story of Sister Theresa Kane this book documents an important period of contemporary Catholic history It is a period in which Theresa and so many of her sisters in her own and other communities exercised unparalleled leadership in the Catholic Church They did so by speaking truth to power with love wisdom and grace The Thomas Merton Encyclopedia William Henry Shannon,Christine M.
