Hybrid Sanskrit Grammar and Dictionary (2 Vols.) Franklin Edgerton, This is the first attempt at a description of the grammar and lexicon of Buddhist Hybrid Sanskrit Most North Indian Buddhist texts are composed in it It is based primarily on an old Middle Indic vernacular not otherwise identifiable But there seems reason to believe that it contains features that were borrowed from other Middle Indic dialects In other words even its Middle Indic aspects are dialectically somewhat mixed Most strikingly however BHS was also extensively influenced by Sanskrit from the very beginning of the tradition as it has been transmitted to us and increasingly as time went on Many especially later products of this tradition have often though misleadingly been called simply Sanskrit without qualification In principle the author has excluded from the grammar and dictionary all forms which are standard Sanskrit and all words which are used in standard Sanskrit with the same meanings The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1897

4QSamuela and the Text of Samuel Jason Driesbach, 2017-01-23 In 4QSamuela and the Text of Samuel Jason Driesbach

offers a thorough analysis of secondary readings in 4QSamuela 4Q51 along with those in other major witnesses to Samuel MT GB GL leading to a nuanced characterization of the scribal features and textual affiliation of 4QSamuela with implications for understanding its place in text critical studies and literary analyses of the books of Samuel 4QSamuela has been regarded by some scholars as an untrustworthy witness to the text of Samuel and by other scholars as a crucial witness sometimes containing lost readings Further some regard this scroll as a non biblical work based on Samuel Driesbach s analysis offers an evaluation of these views based on a sound and thorough consideration of the scroll Handbook of Health

Promotion and Disease Prevention James M. Raczynski,Ralph J. DiClemente,2013-11-11 The idea for this volume developed when we were co teaching our introductory mas ter s level course in the Department of Health Behavior at the UAB School of Public Health a core course for all masters of public health students in the school regardless of the department in which they enrolled or the focus of their studies Hence in the course we sought to provide both students in our department as well as those who might not ever again take a health behavior course with an overview that would both truly represent the field and substantially provide educational research and public health practice benefits This was and continues to be a challenge with the diversity of students specializing in fields that include not only health behavior but also bio statistics environmental health sciences epidemiology health care organization and policy international health and maternal and child health The course that we taught attempted to provide the students with an overview of some of the important health promotion and disease prevention theories methods and policy issues while re viewing applications of these theories and methods to promoting health and pre venting disease through a variety of channels for a variety of disease outcomes and among a variety of populations Since no one text provided this variety of readings we depended on readings and guest lectures
