Court At Windsor A Domestic History:

The Court at Windsor Christopher Hibbert,1972 Tudor Placemen and Statesmen Narasingha Prosad Sil,2001 This investigation thus seeks to examine the theory of the Tudor revolution in government advanced by the late Sir Geoffrey Elton and in so doing helps to highlight the human and personal dimensions of institutional history An outcome of this changed perspective is that the privy chamber acquires a higher profile following David Starkey's path breaking revisionist research than the privy council as postulated by Elton in the remarkable revolutionary decades of the sixteenth century Victoria and Albert at Home Tyler Whittle,2023-10-13 First Published in 1980 Victoria and Albert at Home describes the sitting construction and decorating of the two royal residences at Osborne and Balmoral and paints a memorable portrait of the Queen's family and her Court beside the Solent and the Dee At the time of their marriage the royal couple had the use of many crown properties but except for Windsor Castle they found none to their taste and began to look for a home of their own Sir Robert Peel found them an estate on the Isle of Wight which was peaceful beautiful and at that time sufficiently remote from London However when access from London became swifter and easier their privacy was lost and they looked elsewhere for a second private family residence A small estate in Scotland was recommended and Prince Albert once again designed the house this time in Scottish baronial style Drawing on memories archives and family papers some of which with a number of illustrations have never been published before Tyler Whittle has written an interesting entertaining and vivid account of life at a time so very much more elegant and yet at the same time so very much robust than anything that can be imagined today This is a must read for students and scholars of British history and Royal history Domestic Architecture: containing a history of the science, and the principles of designing public buildings, private dwelling-houses ...
