

ETUDE DE L'EXISTANT

Bien que l'architecture Long Term Evolution Advanced (LTE-A), actuellement déployée, permet de répondre certains besoins, grâce notamment à un délai de transmission réduit à 50 ms ou encore à des débits théoriques descendants/montants (downlink/uplink) de 1 Gbit/s et 500 Mbits/s respectivement, sur des bandes passantes de 100 MHz, les réseaux cellulaires devront rapidement évoluer pour s'adapter à la croissance du trafic, aux exigences émises, en terme de qualité de service (Quality of Service (QoS)), par les fournisseurs de contenus/services ainsi qu'aux besoins des utilisateurs, en termes d'accès internet et de qualité d'expérience (Quality of Experience (QoE)). La nouvelle génération (5G) est justement définie pour atteindre ces différents objectifs, avec les contraintes d'atténuation de la consommation d'énergie et de réduction des dépenses d'investissement/exploitation (Capital Expenditure (CAPEX) et Operational Expenditure (OPEX)). Par conséquent, les réseaux cellulaires 5G devront fournir un débit de données de 10 Gbit/s, une latence inférieure à 1 ms, un nombre d'équipements connectés supérieur à 10000 par cellule, etc. (figure 1). Pour cela, les opérateurs et équipementiers télécom semblent s'orienter vers l'adoption de nouvelles technologies de type Network Function Virtualization (NFV), dans les parties Evolved Packet Core (EPC) et Radio Access Network (RAN) de l'infrastructure réseau, qui permettraient de fournir plus de flexibilité dans l'infrastructure du réseau, de réduire les CAPEX/OPEX et de diminuer le temps de déploiements des services role in canonizing Kierkegaard as one of the forerunners of existentialism. However, recent scholarship has been attentive to his ideological use of Kierkegaard. Indeed, Sartre seemed to be exploiting Kierkegaard for his own purposes, and suspicions of misrepresentation and distortions have led recent commentators to go back and reexamine the complex relation between Kierkegaard and the existentialist thinkers. The articles in the present volume feature figures from the French, German, Spanish, and Russian traditions of existentialism. They examine the rich and varied use of Kierkegaard by these later thinkers and most importantly they critically analyze his purported role in this famous intellectual movement.

The Dialectic of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola Gaston Fessard S.J., 2022-07-18
 Gaston Fessard S.J. 1897-1978 was a major mid-twentieth century French intellectual. He was a Hegel expert but also wrote on issues of the day ranging from the Vichy regime to Christian Marxist dialogue. The product of several decades of reflection, Fessard's work on the Dialectic of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola is the only one of its kind: a careful and penetrating study into the structure and tension of life-changing choices that Ignatius had in mind in his four-week spiritual exercises. The Exercises insist on the way of making a spiritual Election or choice in keeping with God's will for oneself and for the Christian community at a particular moment in one's existence.

Volume 8, Tome I: Kierkegaard's International Reception - Northern and Western Europe Jon Stewart, 2016-12-05
 Although Kierkegaard's reception was initially more or less limited to Scandinavia, it has for a long time now been a highly international affair. As his writings were translated into different languages, his reputation spread, and he became read more and more by people increasingly distant from his native Denmark. While in Scandinavia the attack on the Church in the last years of his life became something of a cause célèbre, later many different aspects of his work became the object of serious scholarly investigation well beyond the original northern borders. As his reputation grew, he was co-opted by a number of different philosophical and religious movements in different contexts throughout the world. The three tomes of this volume attempt to record the history of this reception according to national and linguistic categories. Tome I covers the reception of Kierkegaard in Northern and Western Europe. The articles on Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland, and Iceland can be said to trace Kierkegaard's influence in its more or less native Nordic Protestant context. Since the authors in these countries, with the exception of Finland, were not dependent on translations or other intermediaries, this represents the earliest tradition of Kierkegaard reception. The early German translations of his works opened the door for the next phase of the reception, which expanded beyond the borders of the Nordic countries. The articles in the section on Western Europe trace his influence in Great Britain, the Netherlands, and Flanders, Germany, and Austria, and France. All of these countries and linguistic groups have their own extensive tradition of Kierkegaard reception.

The Metaphysics of Being of St. Thomas Aquinas in a Historical Perspective Leo J. Elders, 2021-12-06
 Metaphysics, formerly the queen of science, fell into oblivion under the onslaught of empiricism and positivism, and its very possibility came to be denied. Professor Elders traces the history of this process and shows how St. Thomas innovated in determining both the subject of metaphysics and the manner in which one enters this science particularly in the framework of his Aristotle commentaries The work then considers being and its properties its divisions into being in act and being in potency into the act of being essence and into substance and the accidents Finally the causes of being are considered The work also introduces and surveys the extensive literature of Thomas interpretation of the past 50 years

Truth Matters John G. Trapani, 2004 Drawing upon the richness and breadth of Jacques Maritain's thought the contributors to this volume engage readers with philosophical essays about the search for truth in human life and civic engagement The essays examine a broad range of topics from those that are more properly theoretical such as God science natural law practical reason education and democracy to those that are more practical such as capital punishment eugenics friendship love and art In each essay the author implicitly challenges the claims of relativism and postmodernism specifically the idea that there is no real truth and that what matters is merely the perspective of one's own frame of reference The essays argue instead that theoretical truth claims have practical consequences that truth matters to those who are affected by it In addition to the editor the contributors are Gavin T Colvert John A D Cuddeback Raymond Dennehy Bernard E Doering Desmond J FitzGerald Sarah J Fodor William J Fossati W Matthews Grant James G Hanink Katie Hollenberg Gregory Kerr James P Mesa Peter Pagan Matthew S Pugh James V Schall S J Michael D Torre John R Traffas Cornelia A Tsakiridou Timothy S Valentine S J A Leo White Anne M Wiles and Henk E S Woldring John G Trapani Jr is Professor of Philosophy and Chair of the Humanities Division at Walsh University in North Canton Ohio

Time in the Philosophy of Gabriel Marcel Helen Tattam, 2013 Gabriel Marcel 1889 1973 stands outside the traditional canon of twentieth century French philosophers Where he is not simply forgotten or overlooked he is dismissed as a relentlessly unsystematic thinker or following Jean Paul Sartre's lead labelled a Christian existentialist a label that avoids consideration of Marcel's work on its own terms How is one to appreciate Marcel's contribution especially when his oeuvre appears to be at odds with philosophical convention Helen Tattam proposes a range of readings as opposed to one single interpretation a series of departures or explorations that bring his work into contact with critical partners such as Henri Bergson Paul Ricoeur and Emmanuel Levinas and offer insights into a host of twentieth century philosophical shifts concerning time the subject the other ethics and religion Helen Tattam's ambitious study is an impressively lucid account of Marcel's engagement with the problem of time and lived experience and is her first monograph since the award of her doctorate from the University of Nottingham
