Courting Failure Lynn LoPucki, 2006-02-14 An eye opening account of the widespread and systematic decay of America's bankruptcy courts

Courting Failure Lynn LoPucki, 2023-06-26 LoPucki's provocative critique of Chapter 11 is required reading for everyone who cares about bankruptcy reform This empirical account of large Chapter 11 cases will trigger intense debate both inside the academy and on the floor of Congress Confronting LoPucki's controversial thesis that competition between bankruptcy judges is corrupting them is the most pressing challenge now facing any defender of the status quo Douglas Baird University of Chicago Law School This book is smart shocking and funny This story has everything professional greed wrecked companies and embarrassed judges Insiders are already buzzing Elizabeth Warren Leo Gottlieb Professor of Law Harvard Law School LoPucki provides a scathing attack on reorganization practice Courting Failure recounts how lawyers managers and judges have transformed Chapter 11 It uses empirical data to explore how the interests of the various participants have combined to create a system markedly different from the one envisioned by Congress LoPucki not only questions the wisdom of these changes but also the free market ideology that supports much of the general regulation of the corporate sector Robert Rasmussen University of Chicago Law School A sobering chronicle of our broken bankruptcy court system Courting Failure exposes yet another American institution corrupted by greed avarice and the thirst for power Lynn LoPucki's eye opening account of the widespread and systematic decay of America's bankruptcy courts is a blockbuster story that has yet to be reported in the media LoPucki reveals the profound corruption in the U S bankruptcy system and how this breakdown has directly led to the major corporate failures of the last decade including Enron MCI WorldCom and Global Crossing LoPucki one of the nation's leading experts on bankruptcy law offers a clear and compelling picture of the destructive power of forum shopping in which corporations choose courts that offer the most favorable outcome for bankruptcy litigation The courts lured by big money and prestige streamline their requirements and lower their standards to compete for these lucrative cases The result has been a series of increasingly shoddy reorganizations of major American corporations proposed by greedy corporate executives and authorized by case hungry judges

Freedom of Establishment and Private International Law for Corporations Paschalis Paschalidis, 2012-03-29 Freedom of establishment is one of the four fundamental freedoms of the European Union The principle is that natural persons who are European Union Citizens and legal entities formed in accordance with the law of a Member State and having its registered office central administration or principal place of business within the EU may take up economic activity in any Member State in a stable and continuous form regardless of nationality or mode of incorporation This book examines the way in which EU law has influenced how national courts in Europe assert jurisdiction in cross border corporate disputes and insolvencies and the mechanism which allows them to decide which national law should apply to the substance of the dispute. The book also considers the potential for EU Member States to compete for devising national corporate and insolvency legislation that will attract incorporations or insolvencies. Central to the book is the concept of national choice of law. In considering the impact of freedom of establishment on private international law for corporations, the book uniquely analyses both corporate and insolvency law together, presenting the topic in the broadest possible sense. Importantly, the doctrine of abuse in corporate and insolvency law is covered, raising the question of forum shopping and regulatory competition, which underpins the intersection between freedom of establishment and private international law. Through examination of the most recent and leading judgments of the European Court of Justice in Centros and Cadbury Schweppes, the book derives certain conclusions as to the operation of the doctrine of abuse and the limits thereof in the context of freedom of establishment. Being the first in the field to examine the leading ECJ cases of Inspire Art, Sevic and Cartesio regarding the real seat doctrine, the book makes the judgment that there is no incompatibility as such between the doctrine and the freedom of establishment. Ultimately, the book analyses to what extent diversity in the corporate and insolvency laws of the Member States should be preserved so as to encourage competition between jurisdictions in Europe.

Viability in Corporate Debt Restructuring Law Lydia Tsioli, 2025-09-10. This book offers the first holistic and comprehensive analysis of corporate debt restructuring law through the lens of viability. The notion is of pivotal importance because it determines which debtors are worth being rescued. By examining US, UK, and EU restructuring frameworks, the book uncovers, critically evaluates, and makes proposals for the optimal reflection of viability on their provisions. These proposals provide invaluable guidance for both the upcoming review of the European Directive on restructuring and insolvency in 2026 and the ongoing development of American and English restructuring law.
