Story Hour Jeri Kladder,2003-07-10 Story time at the public library is the first exposure to books outside the home for many preschool children For the librarian it is an exciting opportunity to instill in youngsters a love of reading and books But coming up with new ideas that hold the children s attention can be trying Until now Here are 55 tried and true story hour programs with a thematic approach All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one hour programs barnyard animals the Caldecott Medal colors families a storytelling feast the five senses reptiles and amphibians and around the world There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs All story hours provide ideas for name tags suggested audiovisual materials recommended story poetry and song selections additional titles and a full description of the activity

Developing Learning Skills Through Children's Literature Mildred Laughlin,Letty S. Watt,1986 This book suggests ideas for sharing literature that may be utilized in developing a scope and sequence of literature experiences for children in grades K 5 For primary grades K 2 the activities are primarily arranged through sharing the works of a particular author or illustrator Through this deliberate exploration the child begins to know that person as a friend So he is excited about new books by that same author or illustrator and discusses books on a level not often achieved if authors are approached only haphazardly Those included represent a variety of classic and current authors and illustrators too good to miss who have made a particular contribution to literature for young people Walking God's Tightrope Victoria Lloyd, 2010-05-19 The spirit of God said to me Close your eyes and I did Then He said This is why men should always pray now open your eyes As I did the person that had knocked me to the floor jumped back and shouted as loud as she could to her friend that was with her Look at her She is crazy Man she is crazy She backed away from me to the door of the room and called the police on her own self Life can be like a tennis game it serves you up all kind of unexpected moves You have to know how to return your play to be a winner Jesus made it clear His favor and loving kindness and mercy are enough for you through any danger My strength and power will pitch a tent over and dwell upon you 1 Corinthians 12:9 while walking God's tightrope to victory in this world

The Wildwater Walking Club Claire Cook, 2020-08-31 As with the other books in The Wildwater Walking Club series Step by Step is a wonderful ode to reinvention to new beginnings and to friendship more resilient than the rubber sole on a walking shoe I loved every minute of it Book Perfume Instead of focusing on actually finding some health coach clients Noreen is dividing her time between sabotaging her relationship with Rick and disaster fantasizing about ending up living in a tent by the side of the road Tess is ready to downsize but can she really figure out how to move on and live small Rosie is completely overwhelmed with life on the lavender farm and it doesn't help matters that Rosie's dad and Noreen's mom are conducting most of their romantic interludes at her house They thought they'd have their lives all figured out by now But change is blowing in along with the crisp fall air and they're finding out that life for 40 to forever women is not for sissies Hitting the road again might be just what The Wildwater Walking Club needs Join Noreen Tess and Rosie as they walk and talk talk and walk share their secrets and learn to take it step by step You'll be lacing up your own sneakers in no time The Wildwater Walking Club Step by Step is a terrific character study a lesson in the power of positive and honest self reflection and of course a wise and laugh provoking look at our human foibles Claire Cook strikes again Book Reporter From the New York Times USA Today and international bestselling author of Must Love Dogs made into a romantic comedy movie starring Diane Lane and John Cusack and now a 7 book series A great feel good story Philadelphia Examiner Claire Cook Must Love Dogs has built a brand writing light hearted women's fiction blending kernels of the absurd and comedic in compulsively readable combinations Shelf Awareness The Wildwater Walking Club is a quick smart read that will get you thinking about walking friendship and making time for the things you love BookReporter Cook's poignancy and sassy humor resonate with readers her theme of reinvention uplifts and inspires Savannah Magazine Readers who enjoy a celebration of friendship will want to walk alongside the Wildwater trio Midwest Book Review A beach tote couldn't ask for more Kirkus Lively and inspiring Hartford Courant The women of The Wildwater Walking Club are a delightful trio full of heart and determination As they literally put one foot in front of the other the three new friends find unlikely paths that point them toward more fulfilling lives Their journey left me genuinely inspired Jean Reynolds Page Claire Cook has an original voice sparkling style and a window into family life that will make you laugh and cry Adriana Trigiani Charming engagingly quirky and full of fun Claire Cook just gets it Meg Cabot Claire Cook infuses her novels with that sassy kind of offbeat humor that makes you giggle shake your head and then keep reading And isn't that what you want a beach book to do Florida Today Crush 2 : An
