Aspects of Aristocracy David Cannadine, Professor of History and Director of the Institute of Historical Research David Cannadine, 1994-01-01 He reconstructs the extraordinary financial history of the dukes of Devonshire narrates the story of the Cozens Hardys a Norfolk family who played a remarkably varied part in the life of their county and offers a controversial reappraisal of the forebears lives work and personalities of Harold Nicolson and Vita Sackville West a portrait notes Cannadine of more than a marriage

The Air Transport Industry in Africa William Kiema, 2025-11-05 This book provides legal analysis of the multilateral liberalisation of the air transport industry in Africa within the framework of the African Union Agenda 2063 initiative the Single African Air Transport Market SAATM Offering a detailed examination of the regulatory framework and policy considerations that have shaped the political economy of air transport in Africa the book offers a comparative analysis with the European Union EU and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN By highlighting the need for a tailored approach to air transport liberalisation in Africa it underscores the importance of considering the continent s unique socio political context diverse values identities circumstances and challenges arising from its vast and varied landscape The book proposes a principled approach to the implementation of the SAATM initiatives and calls on stakeholders to consider holistic implementation that favours the principle of variable geometry stakeholder engagement and alignment with Agenda 2063 It also emphasises the significance of supporting aviation policies such as safety security financing competition and environmental sustainability The Air Transport Industry in Africa will be of interest to researchers in the fields of aviation law economic law and regional integration in Africa

Design in Airline Travel Posters 1920-1970 David Scott, 2021-01-18 This book studies design in airline travel posters of the 1920 1970 period It is both a semiology and a sociocultural cultural history that explores the way advertising posters combine information and fantasy to create seductive images texts The book is lavishly illustrated in colour the images constituting part of the overall argument The field of poster studies is vast but it is surprising how little work has been done till date on the fundamental structures semiotic and semantic that underpin the visual messages posters produce Most studies of posters focus either on their history on specific themes politics travel sport cinema or on their status as collectable items Though such approaches are valid they hardly account for the specificity of the poster s appeal or for the complex semiotic and cultural issues poster art raises This book sets out to tackle these latter issues since they are fundamental both to the deeper significance and to the wider appeal of the poster as a cultural form In doing so it focuses on the field of airline travel posters which developed precisely in the period of the twentieth century 1920 1970 that coincided with the onset of mass travel

Empire of the Air Jenifer Van Vleck, 2013-11-01 Jenifer Van Vleck s Empire of the Air reveals the central role commercial aviation played in the U S ascent to global preeminence in the twentieth century as the federal government partnered with the aviation industry to deliver American power across the globe and sell the idea of the American Century to the public at home and abroad

Empire in the Air Chandra D. Bhimull, 2017-12-12 Honorable Mention 2019 Victor Turner Prize in Ethnographic Writing given by the Society for Humanistic Anthropology Honorable Mention 2019 Sharon Stephens Prize given by the American Ethnological Society Examines the role that race played in the inception of the airline industry Empire in the Air is at once a history of aviation and an examination of how air travel changed lives along the transatlantic corridor of the African diaspora Focusing on Britain and its Caribbean colonies Chandra Bhimull reveals how the black West Indies shaped the development of British Airways Bhimull offers a unique analysis of early airline travel illuminating the links among empire aviation and diaspora and in doing so provides insights into how racially oppressed people experienced air travel The emergence of artificial flight revolutionized the movement of people and power and Bhimull makes the connection between airplanes and the other vessels that have helped make and maintain the African diaspora the slave ships of the Middle Passage the tracks of the Underground Railroad and Marcus Garvey's black owned ocean liner As a new technology airline travel retained the racist ideas and practices that were embedded in British imperialism and these ideas shaped every aspect of how commercial aviation developed from how airline routes were set to who could travel easily and who could not The author concludes with a look at airline travel today suggesting that racism is still enmeshed in the banalities of contemporary flight
