Al Smith Hero Of The Cities A Political Portrait Drawing On The Papers Of:

Al Smith Matthew Josephson, Hannah Josephson, Frances Perkins, 1970 Al Smith: Hero of the Cities (A Political Portrait Drawing on the Papers of Frances Perkins) Matthew Josephson, Hannah Josephson, 2019-10-28 Al Smith 1873 1944 was born and grew up in New York's Lower East Side slums and got his start in politics under Tammany Hall sponsorship Frances Perkins was a New Englander a trained social worker who became a public figure when Smith appointed her to the New York State Industrial Commission They shared a concern for working people and a love for the Empire State which Smith served as governor for four precedent breaking terms between 1919 and 1928 after serving in the New York State Assembly between 1904 and 1915 as a member and later as Speaker Smith considered himself an Assemblyman His record as governor is based on the solid understanding of politics he acquired in those years It was also fostered by his encounter at a decisive stage with a group of reformers and social workers including Belle Moskowitz who became his chief political strategist Smith's own great contribution was to show how reform could be made practicable As governor Smith fought a running battle with an obstructive legislature he was able to reorganize New York State's sprawling executive departments protect women and children in industry strengthen workmen's compensation laws and shorten their working hours stop the handouts of state resources to private companies and expand recreational areas for the benefit of the public He cut taxes while building hospitals schools and low cost housing developments When the legislature balked he appealed to the people on radio and they responded with avalanches of letters and telegrams to their representatives The dauntless spirit with which he battled his adversaries earned him the title The fighting Governor After his defeat for the Presidency in 1928 Smith was able to hand on to his successor a comparatively inexperienced politician named Franklin D Roosevelt a working state government and a blueprint for social reform which Roosevelt would put to good use At the time of her death in 1965 Frances Perkins was working on a book about Al Smith as she knew him Her notes the few chapters she had written and the oral history she recorded for Columbia University were turned over to Matthew and Hannah Josephson who used them and their own exhaustive research to write this biography The Josephsons both authors in their own right were invited to complete the unfinished biography of Smith that Frances Perkins left behind at her death in 1965 Finding only a rather bare start they ended up writing it 90% themselves The sections on Smith's early years provide a delightful picture of the Old East Side and a thriving Tammany Hall A happily executed portrait of an eminent and engaging American Kirkus Reviews The most thorough study yet available of Smith's career and one that also pays considerable attention to Frances Perkins contributions to reform during the Progressive period and during Smith's gubernatorial administrations a useful biography of Al Smith Joel A Tarr The American Historical Review The book reflects the warmth and vigour of its subject The book's principal contribution is its emphasis on Smith's tremendous effectiveness both as a party leader and as a reformer His quarter century of almost continuous success was founded on exceptional memory intense application a sharp

wit and shrewd appeals to the people His enduring monuments are his reform of the state administration his fight against the utilities and his work in housing conservation and social reform Michael Simpson History The Josephsons political portrait is of a man who was at one and the same time an ambitious and successful politician who could skillfully manipulate the party system reward friends and punish enemies hold personal grudges yet temper his actions with genuine humanistic concern for the welfare of the first and second generation immigrants for whom he was both spokesman and symbol John L Shover The Pacific Northwest Quarterly The Josephsons biography is comprehensive providing careful and discerning detail about Smith's life and career William W Bremer The Wisconsin Magazine of History

The Revolution of '28 Robert Chiles, 2018-03-15 The Revolution of 28 explores the career of New York governor and 1928 Democratic presidential nominee

Alfred E Smith Robert Chiles peers into Smith's work and uncovers a distinctive strain of American progressivism that resonated among urban ethnic working class Americans in the early twentieth century The book charts the rise of that idiomatic progressivism during Smith's early years as a state legislator through his time as governor of the Empire State in the 1920s before proceeding to a revisionist narrative of the 1928 presidential campaign exploring the ways in which Smith's gubernatorial progressivism was presented to a national audience As Chiles points out new stock voters responded enthusiastically to Smith's candidacy on both economic and cultural levels Chiles offers a historical argument that describes the impact of this coalition on the new liberal formation that was to come with Franklin Delano Roosevelt's New Deal demonstrating the broad practical consequences of Smith's political career In particular Chiles notes how Smith's progressive agenda became Democratic partisan dogma and a rallying point for policy formation and electoral success at the state and national levels Chiles sets the record straight in The Revolution of 28 by paying close attention to how Smith identified and activated his emergent coalition and put it to use in his campaign of 1928 before quickly losing control over it after his failed presidential bid

Women and Rhetoric between the Wars Ann George,M. Elizabeth Weiser,Janet Zepernick,2013-02-25 In Women and

Rhetoric between the Wars editors Ann George M Elizabeth Weiser and Janet Zepernick have gathered together insightful essays from major scholars on women whose practices and theories helped shape the field of modern rhetoric Examining the period between World War I and World War II this volume sheds light on the forgotten rhetorical work done by the women of that time It also goes beyond recovery to develop new methodologies for future research in the field Collected within are analyses of familiar figures such as Jane Addams Amelia Earhart Helen Keller and Bessie Smith as well as explorations of less well known yet nevertheless influential women such as Zitkala a Jovita Gonz lez and Florence Sabin Contributors evaluate the forces in the civic entertainment and academic scenes that influenced the rhetorical praxis of these women Each essay presents examples of women s rhetoric that move us away from the waves model toward a more accurate understanding of women s multiple diverse rhetorical interventions in public discourse The collection thus creates a new understanding of historiography the rise of modern rhetorical theory and the role of women professionals after suffrage From celebrities to scientists suffragettes to academics the dynamic women of this volume speak eloquently to the field of rhetoric studies today

The Italian-American Vote in Providence, Rhode Island, 1916-1948 Stefano Luconi, 2004-08 Italian Americans made a significant contribution to Franklin D Roosevelt s election to the White House in 1932 and to the victory of the Democratic Party in the four subsequent presidential contests This volume offers a case study of their electoral behavior Through a quantitative analysis of the Italian American vote between 1916 and 1948 this study demonstrates that contrary to conventional wisdom the creation of a Democratic majority in the Little Italy of Providence foreran both Alfred Smith s 1928 candidacy for the presidency and the Depression of the 1930s War II and underwent a revitalization in the postwar years Political recognition and patronage were so central to Italian Americans party choice that their support for the Democratic Party reached a climax when a member of the community John Pastore ran for governor on the Democratic ticket in the mid 1940s Stefano Luconi teaches the History of North America at the Faculty of Political Sciences of the University of Florence

Technology as Freedom Ronald C. Tobey, 2023-11-15 Before 1930 the domestic market for electrical appliances was segmented but New Deal policies and programs created a true mass market reshaping the electrical and housing markets and guiding them toward mandated social goals The New Deal identified electrical refrigeration as a key technology to reform domestic labor raise family health and build family assets New Deal incentives led to nearly fifty percent of Title I National Housing Act loans being used to buy electric refrigerators in the 1930s New Deal policies ultimately created the mass commodity culture of home owning families that typified the conservative 1950s This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996 Joe T Robinson: Always a Loyal Democrat (p), 1998 Gotham Edwin G.
