Albania Life Or Death For Freedom:

Albania Demir S. Hysolli, 1993 Freedom's Furies Timothy Sandefur, 2022-11-01 In 1943 three books appeared that changed American politics forever Isabel Paterson's The God of the Machine Rose Wilder Lane's The Discovery of Freedom and Ayn Rand's The Fountainhead Together they laid the groundwork for what became the modern libertarian movement Even more striking were the women behind these books Paterson a brilliant but misanthropic journalist whose weekly column made her one of the nation's most important literary critics Lane a restless writer who secretly coauthored the Little House on the Prairie novels with her mother and Rand a philosophically inclined Russian immigrant ferociously devoted to heroic individualism Working against the backdrop of changes in literature and politics they joined forces to rally the nation to the principles of freedom that had come under attack at home and abroad Sometimes friends at other times bitterly estranged they became known as the three furies of libertarianism Now for the first time author Timothy Sandefur examines their lives ideas and influences in the context of their times Not a biography but a story about personalities and ideas about the literary political and cultural influences that shaped the destiny of freedom in America Freedom's Furies tells the dramatic story of three writers who strove to keep liberty alive in an age of darkness Between(s) and Beyond(s) in Contemporary Albanian Literature Bavjola Shatro, 2016-09-23 This book focuses on contemporary Albanian poetry given the important role it has continuously played in Albanian literature as a whole It analyses particular literary periods and their representative poets from a comparative perspective It raises meaningful questions that point to particularly interesting features of Albanian literature that call for in depth study taking into account research conducted in this field over the years by both Albanian and foreign scholars However this book's focus on comparative literature and the perspectives that this academic practice offers for so called small marginal literatures in the realm of European literatures allows for a different and unique analysis It provides both an introduction and a well structured approach to contemporary Albanian literature and to some of the problems that it faces in today's global context when national literatures and especially those from the margins have to reconsider their role and position in world literature As such the book will be of interest to scholars in the fields of comparative literature East and South Eastern European literature Albanian literature Balkan studies poetry studies and cultural studies among others Yugoslav-Albanian Relations, 1939-1948 Vladimir Dedijer, 1962 Transitional Justice in Albania, Kosovo, and North Macedonia Ines Stasa, Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 The Albanians Edwin E. Jacques, 2012-03-21 Historically described as mysterious and xenophobic Albania and its people are little known to most westerners But they are near the center of age old explosive Balkan conflicts With the employment of Albanian French Italian and many other documentary sources the roots of Albanian civilization the struggle of the Albanians to maintain their cultural and linguistic integrity the impact of foreign influence on the country and its recent move toward democracy are all detailed here The Islamic World

John L. Esposito, Abdulaziz Abdulhussein Sachedina, 2004 Even though Islam is a major religion with more than one billion followers worldwide and more than six million in the United States alone there is still uncertainty and misunderstanding about its ideas tenets and practice Understanding Islam and the people who believe in it has become crucially important in the greater world this set seeks to foster understanding and answer questions Albania Darian Pavli, Human Rights Watch (Organization), 2002 Recommendations Background Intimidation and violent attacks on journalists Defamation trials Government misuse of state advertising Conclusion Essays on the Awareness of Loss in Contemporary Albanian Literature Bavjola Gami Shatro, 2024-05-29 Essays on the Awareness of Loss in Contemporary Albanian Literature Voices that Come from the Abyss is the first scholarly monograph on the concept of loss in Albanian poetry and life writing of the twentieth and twenty first centuries It represents the first academic contribution to an international audience dedicated to three women writers that personified loss in communist Albania and two eminent poets who wrote representative and outstanding poetry on the meaning of loss in Albanian literature Through the work of these three politically persecuted women writers and two modern poets this book analyzes loss in relation to pain grief memory death freedom and love inquiring on the meeting point between life writing and poetry and the point where they part ways The book explores the work of Musine Kokalari the first Albanian woman writer and political dissident Bedi Pipa the first woman known to have authored a diary in Albanian literature Drita Gemo author of a diary and poetry written in secret in political exile under communism Fatos Arapi the Albanian poet who has been awarded the most important international literary prize to date and who has elaborated on the ethical implications of freedom grief and death in relation to personal loss Ali Podrimja a cornerstone of contemporary Albanian poetry author of a volume that marked a definite turn to modernity in Albanian poetry in the Republic of Kosovo and to date one of the best volumes of poetry written in the history of Albanian literature Lum Lumi where he explores the depth of grief pain loss and love The works of these five authors bring forth the necessity to revisit the history of Albanian literature and promote interdisciplinary and comparative studies beyond Albanian literature Shatro studies the unique traits of their life writing the specific link between different literary genres and the exceptional capacity of poetry to carry loss to the point of articulating the unsaid thus giving a voice to silence She argues that through diary memoir epistolary and poetry all five authors provide different views of loss and its challenging ethical implications in relation to death memory and freedom A Journey Into the Albanian Communities in Italy Barbara Renzi, 2025-03-19 In this book Barbara G Renzi provides a thought provoking exploration of the ethical dimensions inherent in the Arberesh Italians of Albanian origin community in Italy The book addresses the broader cultural dynamics of this unique community offering a glimpse into the intimate world of the Arberesh through personal diary excerpts highlighting the complexities of their dual identities and the challenges they face A central theme is the Arberesh people's integration within Italian society a journey characterized by obstacles and marked by resilience and aspiration The book adopts a multidimensional approach discussing topics ranging from cultural assimilation to the ethical responsibility of preserving endangered languages It explores the subtle pressures exerted by mainstream societies on their minority counterparts Drawing from comprehensive interviews historical archives and keen observations the author constructs a narrative that reverberates with contemporary debates on identity ethics and the interplay between the individual and collective ethos This unique work is an important resource for scholars students and anyone intrigued by the intricate relationship between personal identities and societal expectations
