Library, Donald Herbert Simpson, 1961 Albert Schweitzer's Ethical Vision A Sourcebook Predrag Cicovacki, 2009-02-02 The philosophy of Albert Schweitzer has proved widely influential in modern thinking especially in the field of ethics His leading ethical idea can be summarized in the phrase reverence for life namely that good consists in maintaining and perfecting life and evil consists in destroying and obstructing life For Schweitzer all life is sacred Ethics thus deals with human attitudes and behavior toward all living beings Unlike many moral philosophers Schweitzer argues that knowledge of human nature does not provide a sufficient foundation for any adequate moral theory That is why he bases his ethics on much broader foundations articulated in his philosophy of civilization and the philosophy of religion Schweitzer argues that the material aspect of our civilization has become far more important than its spiritual counterpart Even organized religion has put itself in the service of politics and economy thereby losing its vitality and moral authority Schweitzer's ethics of reverence for life argues Predrag Cicovacki offers a viable alternative at a time when traditional ethical theories are found inadequate Schweitzer's robust and un-dogmatic idealism may offer the best antidote to the prevailing relativism and nihilism of the postmodern epoch His ethical vision directs us toward a new way of building a more just and more peaceful world Collecting sixteen of Schweitzer's most effective essays this volume serves as a compelling introduction to this remarkable thinker and humanist Helene Schweitzer Patti M. Marxsen, 2015-05-04 Born in Berlin

Helene Schweitzer came of age in Strasbourg during a time of great social architectural and historical developments It was in this cultural milieu as a history professor's daughter that Helene met a young pastor named Albert Schweitzer 1875-1965 and developed a deep friendship that flourished for a decade before their marriage in 1912 During those years she served as the first woman Inspector of City Orphanages in Strasbourg a position she held for four years before becoming a certified nurse She also edited and proofread a number of Schweitzer's books in multiple fields as they worked together to realize their shared dream of devoting their lives to humanity Together in 1913 Albert and Helene Schweitzer founded what is now the longest running hospital established by Europeans in Africa the Albert Schweitzer Hospital in current day Gabon With her quiet strength clear sense of purpose independent spirit and wide range of skills and talents Helene was a model for many other women who later served the Schweitzer Hospital Drawing upon the couple's lifelong correspondence as well as

Helene's journals and professional writing Marxsen reveals a modern woman of courage in dark times whose resilient optimistic spirit allowed her to leave a lasting legacy that has yet to be fully understood Helene Schweitzer's dramatic life reveals deeper questions of how memory is influenced by gender assumptions and how biography is shaped by place and history By providing a counter narrative to the traditional image of a frail woman who sacrificed her life to her husband's genius this richly detailed chronicle of a little known figure invites a larger discussion about the meaning of a woman's life obscured by a partner's fame

Schweitzer George N. Marshall, David Poling, 2000 He was an accomplished organist and interpreter of Bach a crusader for world peace and a winner of the Nobel Peace Prize He made his philosophy of reverence for life an ethic for the world The hospital he founded in Lambaré in Gabon is still in operation in present day Gabon is a model of what Europeans might have given to Africans throughout colonial history But above all Albert Schweitzer 1875-1965 was a talented and compassionate human being This biography probes beyond the timeworn image of Schweitzer as the old man in the pith helmet to reveal the philosopher scholar husband father humanitarian and liberal rebel in a conservative church
