Stairway to Heaven Peter Levenda, 2008-06-01 The idea of heavenly ascent while popularized in Jewish mysticism is neither a unique nor recent one Expertly tracing its origins back to the ancient Middle East Levenda unearths ascent literature in Africa India and China discerns a common connection in the heavens themselves and determines that this connection has been sorely neglected in contemporary scholarship Because scholars treat the heavens as metaphorical it is necessary to recreate the physical context of the culture under discussion in order to better understand it For the benefit of the reader Levenda offers two useful concepts for his investigative journey a map whereby he means the cosmological system to better understand the mystical technologies of each culture investigated and a vehicle the method by which the individual equipped with special knowledge is able to navigate the culture's particular cosmology With these two tools Levenda travels from the worlds of ancient Egypt and Babylon to the Hebrew Bible to Jewish and Christian kabbalists to Daoists in ancient China to Hindu Tantra and Haitian Vodoun and finally to nineteenth and twentieth century European occult societies

The deeper they dig, the more their world changes, and the more they are forced to reexamine their beliefs. Third Heaven's Throne is about belief, how the stories we're told shape the world, and what happens when powerful people control those stories. It is full of flesh and bones, misery, anxiety, terrible jokes, and queer love. Credit and Creed Andreas Rahmatian, 2019-10-28

Money is a legal institution with principal economic and sociological consequences. Money is a debt because that is how it is conceptualised and comes into existence as circulating credit if viewed from the creditor's perspective or from the debtor's viewpoint as debt. This book presents a legal theory of money based on the concept of dematerialised property. It describes the money creation or money supply process for cash and for bank money and looks at modern forms of money such as cryptocurrencies. It also shows why mainstream economics presupposes but avoids an analysis of money by effectively eliminating money from the microeconomic market model and declaring it as merely a neutral medium of exchange and unit of account. The book explains that money rather brings about and influences substantially the exchange or transaction it is supposed to facilitate only as a neutral medium. As the most liquid of all assets, money enables financialisation, monetisation, and commodification in the economy. The central role of the banks in the money creation process and in the economy and their strengthened position after the bank rescue measures in the wake of the financial crisis 2008-9 are also discussed. Providing a rigorous analysis of the most salient legal issues regarding money, this book will appeal to legal theorists, economists, and anyone working in commercial or banking law. Are we more than stardust? Is the appearance of the fragile Earth in the vast universe more than an accident? Are we not children of a Spirit that pervades the dust, rejuvenates life, and embraces the ever-evolving universe? Is there a cosmic Spirit that wants us to awaken to a consciousness of universal meaning, sacred purpose, and mutual friendship with all beings? This book answers these questions with a spirituality of the numinous in our relation to the elements of the Earth in the matrix of the multiverse by taking you on a journey through nine paths and nineteen meditations of awakening. Not bound by any religion but in deep appreciation of the religious and spiritual heritage of human encounters with the divine, depth of existence in our selves and in nature, they invite you to become sojourners by engaging the most profound embodiments of the intangible Spirit by which it facilitates its own materialization in the cosmos and our spiritualization of the cosmos. Use says this Spirit, the stardust that you are to become a spirit-faring species in an eternal journey of the cosmos to realize its ultimate motive of existence: the attraction of love. Greatest Kan and Li Mantak Chia, Andrew Jan, 2014-07-21
