Alejandro Vittoria E L'arte Veneta Della Maniera:

Alessandro Vittoria e l'arte veneta della maniera Lorenzo Finocchi Gherzi, 2001 Opera fatta diligentissimamente
Marcella De Paoli, 2004 Works discussed are in the collection of the Museo archeologico di Venezia The Lost Venetian Church of Santa Maria Assunta dei Crociferi Allison Sherman (1979-2017), 2020-10-20 Version 1.1.2 DOI 10.5281/zenodo.4284460 Original Repository Zenodo <https://doi.org/10.5281/zenodo.4094821> This book investigates the history and decoration of one of the most important churches of Venice in the 16th century Santa Maria Assunta dei Crociferi. Painters and sculptors of the stature of Titian, Tintoretto, Veronese, Palma il Giovane, Vittoria and Campagna all contributed major works of art, many of which survive in the present day church of the Gesuiti. But as a result of the suppression of the order of the Crociferi, Crosiers or Crutched Friars in 1656 and of the subsequent demolition of their church, the art historical significance of this ensemble had become largely overlooked. Serious study of the church was further impeded by the loss of the church's archive. Nevertheless, readers are here presented with a surprisingly wide range of alternative archival and early printed sources that document the history of the church and integrate it with the surviving works of art. We are taken on a journey of discovery of leading members of the order of lay patrons who supported the church's renovation and of the productive relationships that led to important artistic commissions. Originally submitted by the late Allison Sherman to the University of St Andrews in 2010, the present doctoral thesis was edited for publication by Carlo Corsato and provided with a full set of illustrations. Two further additional essays by Allison Sherman are also included: Titian's Martyrdom of St Lawrence and its Original Location in the Lost Venetian Church of Santa Maria Assunta dei Crociferi. This was the opening chapter of the volume La Notte di san Lorenzo 2013, edited by Letizia Lonzi and the late Lionello Puppi. Presented here is the unpublished original English version which summarises many of the discoveries included in the doctoral dissertation Murder and Martyrdom: Titian's Gesuiti St Lawrence as a Family Peace Offering. This appeared in Artibus et Historiae 2015 and offers the most significant investigation of the patronage of a masterpiece by Titian, The Martyrdom of St Lawrence, Church of the Gesuiti, Venice. Making and Moving Sculpture in Early Modern Italy Kelley Helmstutler DiDio, 2017-07-05 In recent years, art historians have begun to delve into the patronage, production and reception of sculptures, sculptors' workshop practices, practical, aesthetic and esoteric considerations of material and materiality and the meanings associated with materials and the makers of sculptures. This volume brings together some of the top scholars in the field to investigate how sculptors in early modern Italy confronted such challenges as procurement of materials, their costs, shipping and transportation issues and technical problems of materials along with the meanings of the usage, hierarchies of materials and processes of material acquisition and production. Contributors also explore the implications of these facets in terms of the intended and perceived meanings for the viewer, patron and/or artist. A highlight of the collection is the epilogue, an interview with a contemporary artist of large-scale stone sculpture which reveals the similar challenges sculptors still encounter today as they procure, manufacture and transport
