Am I Crazy Or Something:

Did You Know This? Rosemary LeRoy,2011-07-22 Book is about some of the things some people in the entertainment world do on a daily regular basis you may not have heard of I was married to a man who worked for a famous country rock band My eyes were opened to a whole other world of goings on that I knew little about Some do such wacky wrong things it is hard to believe even if they are in the entertainment world Some do not want people to know and some are so out there that they do want people to know what they do because it would help their image Believe it or not A Married Woman Walter N. Davenport Jr.,2025-04-24 Two strangers cross paths on a hot summer day The chance meeting between Izulu Blackfeather and Maria Jo Ward a man and woman from completely different backgrounds cultures and ethnic racial and religious groups will change their lives forever Their paths cross at a Wall Street diner in the summer of 1976 She an alluring black haired beauty with pouty lips and fair skin is wearing large dark sunglasses He with reddish brown skin black hair and penetrating black eyes notes that she is seated at his favorite table in his favorite diner One look at her and he knows there is something intriguing hidden behind those huge sunglasses He speaks and she nods acknowledging him Then she looks away into the distance staring out the window He sees sadness and pain on her face and wants to know why Izulu finds that he needs to know more about Maria as much as he knows about himself She finishes her meal gets up from the table looks down at him and smiles wearily Without saying goodbye she walks out of the diner onto the busy New York street He wonders if he will ever see her again as she disappears from view

The Gang as an American Enterprise Felix M. Padilla,1992 The Diamonds are a Chicago Street gang whose members are second generation Puerto Rican youths For Felix Padilla the young men who join the Diamonds have made a logical choice The gang is an alternative and dependable route to emotional support self respect material goods and upward mobility Although Padilla shares the same ethnic background as the gang members and also grew up in a Chicago barrio gaining the trust of the Diamonds was not easy Eventually however he was able to get close enough to the members to interview and observe them Padilla shows us his decision to join the Diamonds From early childhood boys develop positive images of the gang They realize that the dominant culture promises mobility but that their paths to that mobility are blocked By joining a gang they can creatively oppose the dominant culture Padilla does not paint a romanticized picture of the Diamonds Some members come to understand that when they sell drugs they benefit the gang s leaders and suppliers more than themselves Further they recognize that the gang is also subject to problems of domination and inequality Padilla shows that though the Diamonds are sometimes violent they are not psychopaths While we need not approve of what they do he urges us to understand it as a rational response to the doors these young men see closed around them
