

The Right to a Speedy Trial

- There are often times delays in criminal cases, which presents constitutional issues.
- A speedy trial is important to improve the credibility of the process, reduce anxiety for the defendant, avoid extensive pretrial publicity that would influence a fair trial, and avoid delay that would affect the defendant's right to defend him/herself.
- There is no set time that defines a speedy trial.
- If defendants agree to or cause a delay, they have waived their right to a speedy trial.
