In these essays the author explores themes such as gender sexuality purity and pollution sanctification death and afterlife foreignness and disability with particular attention to the roles distinctions such as honored shamed feminine masculine mourning rejoicing unclean clean alien native play in creating and perpetuating social differences in texts. Rites of status change such as circumcision shaving purification burial or disinterment sanctification and profanation of holiness are a focus of interest in a number of these essays reflecting the author's ongoing interest in the textual representation of ritual. Most of the essays examine texts in their historical setting but several also engage the early history of the interpretation of biblical texts including the phenomenon of inner biblical exegesis.
