A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.),1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long knowns to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance Frederic Remington and the West Ben Merchant Vorpahl,2014-11-11 A biography of the artist examining his complex relationship with the American

West and how he expressed his imagination Frederic Remington and the West sheds new light on the remarkably complicated and much misunderstood career of Frederic Remington This study of the complex relationship between Remington and the American West focuses on the artist s imagination and how it expressed itself Ben Merchant Vorpahl considers all the dimensions of Remington's extensive work from journalism to fiction sculpture and painting He traces the events of Remington's life and makes extensive use of literary and art criticism and nineteenth century American social cultural and military history in interpreting his work Vorpahl reveals Remington as a talented sensitive and sometimes neurotic American whose work reflects with peculiar force the excitement and distress of the period between the Civil War and the Spanish American War Remington was not a western artist in the conventional sense neither was he a historian he lacked the historian's breadth of vision and discipline expressing himself not through analysis but through synthesis Vorpahl shows that even while Remington catered to the sometimes maudlin sometimes jingoistic tastes of his public and his editors his resourceful imagination was at work devising a far more demanding and worthwhile design a composite work executed in prose pictures and bronze This body of work as the author demonstrates demands to be regarded as an interrelated whole Here guilt shame and personal failure are honestly articulated and death itself is confronted as the artist s chief subject Because Remington was so prolific a painter sculptor illustrator and writer and because his subjects techniques and media were so apparently diverse the deeper continuity of his work had not previously been recognized This study is a major contribution to our understanding of an important American artist In addition Vorpahl illuminates the interplay between history artistic consciousness and the development of America's sense of itself during Remington's lifetime and the Cossack Merline Lovelace, 1996 Alexandra Jordan had been reluctantly appointer leader of her late grandfather s Russian tribe Her people had plenty of troubles but were particularly short on weapons armed men So when Nate Sloan showed up addegedly to deliver a champion stallion Alexandra couldn't help being suspicious even though she was as aware of his charms as any of her love starved tribe mates Georgian Trick Riders in American Wild West Shows, 1890s-1920s Irakli Makharadze, 2015-03-30 In 1893 Georgian horsemen from the Caucasus immigrated to the United States where for more than 30 years they performed in circuses and Wild West shows under the billing of Russian Cossacks The connection between Buffalo Bill Cody and the Georgian trick riders represents one of the earliest relationships between Georgia and the United States Western historian Dee Brown wrote Trick riding came to rodeo by way of a troupe of Cossack daredevils imported by the 101 Ranch Intrigued by the Cossacks stunts on their galloping horses western cowboys soon introduced variations to American rodeo This is the story of the men who came in search of financial support for their families in Georgia and without knowing it influenced an essential fixture of American culture Russian Subjects Monika Greenleaf, Stephen Moeller-Sally, 1998 This collection of essays resituates poetic works by Derzhavin Krylov Batisushkov Pushkin Girboedov Lermontov Baratynsky and Pavlova within the force fields of contradicoty cultural pressures as are the once best selling
