Cows Moo Cars Toot:

Cows Moo, Cars Toot June Crebbin, 1995 Step by Step Book 6 Mary McIntosh, 2018-05-08 All you need to encourage a love and enthusiasm for reading and writing from a young age Benefit from the experience of key educators across the Caribbean regions who have carefully designed this resource to give your students exactly the right introduction to the Language Arts curriculum Ensure a steady transition from Creole to Standard English with an introductory section on language acquisition in the Teacher Guides called Language Strategy Cover technicality of grammar vocabulary and syntax using picture cues and writing as well as reading and reading comprehension Offer exposure to many different forms of text with a variety of different text types and genres Connect reading and writing with templates to make sure that students don't fall behind and progress evenly with both Support for this student book is available from the accompanying Teacher's Guide 9781510414273 Mrs White Had a Fright Sue Ellis, 2001 A collection of poems and riddles songs and chants both traditional and modern The material has been selected by Myra Barrs and Sue Ellis of the Centre for Language in Primary Education and should be suitable for children who are beginning to read independently Teaching Poetry in the Primary Classroom Gervase Phinn, 2009-01-05 When asked by the school inspector what he thought of poetry an eleven year old replied that it's all la dida and daffodils isn't it In his primary school the boy had come across very little poetry apart from nursery rhymes snatches of rhyming verse and a few comic pieces and nonsense poems Poetry to him was something arcane not really related to his own life He had studied no powerful challenging contemplative arresting quirky poems and had written very few poems himself His teacher admitted that he was no English specialist had received few ideas at college on the teaching of poetry and didn't really know where to start As children progress through the primary school they need to be exposed to a rich diet of poetry and encouraged to read perform and write it themselves Providing a varied and stimulating environment is essential if it is to flourish In addition children need specific guidance and ideas to start them off writing their own poems This book written by a former teacher and school inspector and popular and widely published children's poet offers an accessible practical and structured programme for the teaching of this sometimes neglected aspect of the English curriculum

Rusty Nails & Astronauts Robert Dunbar, Gabriel Fitzmaurice, 1999 An international poetry anthology for children with both new poems and old favourites Over 150 poems from more than 100 poets are featured in the book Poems range from nursery rhymes nonsense verse haiku dramatic verse Irish verse with translations love poems and limericks
