Polette, 2013-04-08 Get young readers hooked on some of the best titles in juvenile literature ranging from humor to mystery to fantasy with unusual and effective methods like games Getting students to want to read is one of the greatest challenges facing middle school teachers and librarians Determining which are the right books that can spark a child's mental awakening is also difficult This book from prolific author Nancy Polette furnishes interesting and fun games to pique students' interest in junior novels that are worth reading carefully selected titles that will contribute to their educational and emotional growth Gateway to Reading 250 Author Games and Booktalks to Motivate Middle Readers is a powerful tool for luring middle school students away from the distractions of 21st century media and introducing them to junior or tween novels that they won't be able to put down By presenting children with a challenge to engage their minds racing to decode book titles or using their creativity to come up with titles of their own for example students are naturally drawn towards reading these books from well known children's authors The Journal of Home Economics, 1973 Choices, 1990 Managing Secondary Classrooms Patricia Williams, Robert D. Alley, Kenneth T. Henson, 1999 The goal of this book is to give teachers the skills to successfully manage their classrooms by taking a positive pro active stance Even in cases of difficult classrooms and troubled students teachers will learn social and emotional contexts to dramatically influence their ability to work with secondary students Also included are many suggestions to prevent classroom management problems such as communication tips and skills for working with parents along with guidelines for understanding the behavior of secondary students and the application of appropriate consequences for both positive and negative behavior Readers will finish the book with the skills to formulate their own personal philosophy of classroom management and development Chapters new to this edition are Multicultural Counseling a new overview of Brief Therapy expanded coverage of ethical and legal issues and completely revised and updated references For pre service and in service teachers School Music, 1918 An Evacuee's Story a North Yorkshire Family in Wartime John T. Wright, 2007-09-12 A poignantly written and graphically described story of the pleasure and pain endured as an evacuee during World War Two Like so many of his young friends and relatives John Wright was required to leave the love and care of his parents in Middlesbrough at a very young age to escape the attention of the Luftwaffe and to be evacuated into the hands of a crowded and unloving home in Haxby a quaint village north of the great city of York The book eloquently describes his voyage of childhood discovery in the beautiful countryside coupled with the cruel attentions of a foster mother whose motivation was not to lavish love and support to her unfortunate foster children but to hurt and belittle them It is a bittersweet story of innocent interludes and mean realities for an evacuee child set amidst the horrors and melancholy of that devastating conflict Popular Clone M. E. Castle, 2024-05-07 Meet Fisher Bas 12 years old growth stunted a geeky science genius and son of the Nobel Prize winning creators of the Bas Hermaphrodite Sea Slug Hypothesis No surprise Fisher isn't exactly the most popular kid in his middle school tormented daily by the beefy overgrown goons he calls The Vikings But he senses relief when he comes upon the idea of cloning himself creating a second Fisher to go to school each day while he stays at home playing video games and eating cheetos with ketchup It's an ingenious plan that works brilliantly until Fisher's clone turns out to be more popular than him and soon after gets clone napped by the evil scientist Dr Xander Can Fischer save his clone in time or will his whole plan be exposed
