Blindfold Horse Memoirs Of A Persian:

The Blindfold Horse Shusha Guppy, 2004-06-18 In this eloquent memoir Shusha Guppy recreates the lost world of her childhood in Tehran before the oil boom and the eventual overthrow of the Shah Long before the momentous Iranian Revolution of 1979 which placed the country under strict religious rule Shusha Guppy grew up in a Persia delicately balanced between traditional Islamic society and the transforming forces of westernisation Guppy's magical tales about relatives and friends music and drama religious holidays and celebrations are interwoven with myth and legend poetry and anecdote and provide a rare and optimistic portrayal of Iran quite at odds with prevailing views of the country today Through these glimpses of everyday life she makes subtle yet astute social and political observations at a significant time in Iran's history when the country was caught between the oppressive but stable disciplines of the past and the unsettling freedoms of the future This is an enlightening and moving testimony of a vanished world a story as vibrant as Iran itself Blindfold Horse

The Rest Write Back: Discourse and Decolonization, 2019-06-17 In The Rest Write Back Discourse and Decolonization Esmaeil Zeiny brings together a collection of essays that interrogate the colonial legacies the contemporary power structure and the geopolitics of knowledge production The scholars in this collection illustrate how the writing back paradigm engages in a conversation and paves the way for a dialogical and pluri versal world where the Rest is no longer excluded Among the important features of this book is that it presents ways for decoloniality and epistemic disobedience This book will be of interest to scholars and students of all Social Science and Humanities disciplines but it is particularly important for those in the disciplines of sociology postcolonial studies cultural studies literature and theory and philosophy of Social Sciences and Humanities Contributors include Dustin J Byrd Ciarunji Chesaina Hiba Ghanem Mladjo Ivanovic Masumi Hashimoto Odari Arjuna Parakrama JM Pers nch Andrew Ridgeway Rudolf J Siebert and Esmaeil Zeiny The Natural History of Horses, with Memoir of Gesner Charles Hamilton Smith, 1866 Farewell Shiraz Cyrus Kadivar, 2017 In Farewell Shiraz Kadivar tells the story of his family and childhood against the tumultuous backdrop of twentieth century Iran from the 1905 1907 Constitutional Revolution to the fall of Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlavi before presenting accounts of his meetings with key witnesses to the Shah's fall and the rise of Khomeini Each of the people interviewed provides a richly detailed picture of the momentous events that took place and the human drama behind them Dislocation, Writing, and Identity in Australian and Persian Literature Hasti Abbasi, 2018-08-25 This study aims to foreground key literary works in Persian and Australian culture that deal with the representation of exile and dislocation Through cultural and literary analysis Dislocation Writing and Identity in Australian and Persian Literature investigates the influence of dislocation on self perception and the remaking of connections both through the act of writing and the attempt to transcend social conventions Examining writing and identity in David Malouf's An Imaginary Life 1978 Iranian Diaspora Literature and Shahrnush Parsipur's Women Without Men 1989 Eng 1998 Hasti Abbasi provides a literary analysis of dislocation with its social and psychological manifestations Abbasi reveals how the exploration of exile dislocation as a narrative that needs to be investigated through imagination and meditation provides a mechanism for creative writing practice Familiar and Foreign Manijeh Mannani, Veronica Thompson, 2015-09-30 The current political climate of confrontation between Islamist regimes and Western governments has resulted in the proliferation of essentialist perceptions of Iran and Iranians in the West Such perceptions do not reflect the complex evolution of Iranian identity that occurred in the years following the Constitutional Revolution 1906 11 and the anti imperialist Islamic Revolution of 1979 Despite the Iranian government's determined pursuance of anti Western policies and strict conformity to religious principles the film and literature of Iran reflect the clash between a nostalgic pride in Persian tradition and an apparent infatuation with a more Eurocentric modernity In Familiar and Foreign Mannani and Thompson set out to explore the tensions surrounding the ongoing formulation of Iranian identity by bringing together essays on poetry novels memoir and films These include both canonical and less widely theorized texts as well as works of literature written in English by authors living in diaspora Challenging neocolonialist stereotypes these critical excursions into Iranian literature and film reveal the limitations of collective identity as it has been configured within and outside of Iran Through the examination of works by among others the iconic female poet Forugh Farrokhzad the expatriate author Goli Taraghi the controversial memoirist Azar Nafisi and the graphic novelist Marjane Satrapi author of Persepolis this volume engages with the complex and contested discourses of religion patriarchy and politics that are the contemporary product of Iran's long and revolutionary history Ethnic American Literature

Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry

Reconstructing Gender in Middle East Fatma Muge Gocek, Balaghi Shiva, 1995-06-15 Employing a broad interdisciplinary perspective on gender relations Reconstructing Gender in the Middle East questions long standing stereotypes about the traditional subordination of women in the region With essays on gender construction in Iran Turkey Israel Morocco Egypt Lebanon and the Occupied Territories this collection offers a wide ranging exploration of tradition identity and power in different parts of the Middle East Seeking to overcome monolithic Western notions of women's life in the traditional society the essays in Part I reexamine the assumption that such societies leave little room for female participation Part II focuses on the reconstruction of identities by women in Iran Turkey Israel and the Occupied Territories The authors examine the complex variables that contribute to the development of identities including gender class and ethnicity in various Middle Eastern societies questioning whether certain identities are more important to women than others These essays also look at the issue of group identity formation versus the autonomy of the individual Part III looks at the relationship between gender and power in everyday life in Lebanon Israel Egypt and Morocco showing how power relations are constantly contested and renegotiated among family members and members of a community between nations and between men and women With its collection of enlightened and diverse contemporary perspectives on women in the Middle East Reconstructing Gender in the Middle East is an important work that will have significant impact on the way we look at gender in traditional societies

Islamophobia and the Novel Peter Morey, 2018-08-14 In an era of rampant Islamophobia what do literary representations of Muslims and anti Muslim bigotry tell us about changing concepts of cultural difference In Islamophobia and the Novel Peter Morey analyzes how recent works of fiction have framed and responded to the rise of anti Muslim prejudice showing how their portrayals of Muslims both reflect and refute the ideological preoccupations of media and politicians in the post 9 11 West Islamophobia and the Novel discusses novels embodying a range of positions from the avowedly secular to the religious and from texts that appear to underwrite Western assumptions of cultural superiority to those that recognize and critique neoimperial impulses Morey offers nuanced readings of works by John Updike Ian McEwan Hanif Kureishi Monica Ali Mohsin Hamid John le Carr Khaled Hosseini Azar Nafisi and other writers emphasizing the demands of the literary marketplace for representations of Muslims He explores how depictions of Muslim experience have challenged liberal assumptions regarding the novel's potential for empathy and its ability to encompass a variety of voices Morey argues for a greater degree of critical self consciousness in our understanding of writing by and about Muslims in contrast to both exclusionary nationalism and the fetishization of difference Contemporary literature's capacity to unveil the conflicted nature of anti Muslim bigotry expands our range of resources to combat Islamophobia This in turn might contribute to Islamophobia's eventual dismantling

The Women of Karbala Kamran Scot Aghaie, 2009-09-15 Commemorating the Battle of Karbala in which the Prophet Mohammad's grandson Hosayn and seventy two of his family members and supporters were martyred in 680 CE is the central religious observance of Shi'i Islam Though much has been written about the rituals that reenact and venerate Karbala until now no one has studied women's participation in these observances This collection of original essays by a multidisciplinary team of scholars analyzes the diverse roles that women have played in the Karbala rituals as well as the varied ways in which gender coded symbols have been used within religious and political discourses The contributors to this volume consider women as participants in and observers of the Karbala rituals in Iran Iraq Lebanon India Pakistan and the United States They find that women's experiences in the Shi'i rituals vary considerably from one community to another based on regional customs personal preferences religious interpretations popular culture and socioeconomic background The authors also examine the gender symbolism within the rituals showing how it reinforces distinctions between the genders while it also highlights the centrality of women to the symbolic repertory of Shi'ism Overall the authors conclude that while Shi'i rituals and symbols have in some ways been used to restrict women's social roles in other ways they have served to provide women with a sense of independence and empowerment

Veils and Words Farzaneh Milani, 1992-09-01 From Library Journal Traditionally Iranian women have been veiled from public view and constrained from public expression Milani illustrates that in Iran the 19th century movement to unveil was closely linked to women's emergence as literary figures This the first work devoted to the rich literature of the female writers of Iran is itself an example of great literature from an Iranian female writer With poetic insight Milani discusses the themes of disclosure and secrecy that have delineated the Iranian woman's universe and characterized her expression Highly recommended for all literature anthropology and women's studies collections Amazon.ca

Food for Health, Food for Wealth Lynn Harbottle, 2004 Food and eating practices are central to current sociological and anthropological concerns about the body health consumption and identity This study explores the importance of these themes as they intersect with processes of globalization and cultural production within a specific group of consumers British Shiite Iranians Through the analysis of the consumption practices of this particular migrant group this book illustrates how both the nutritional value and symbolic significance of food contribute to its health giving properties and how gender and ethnic identities are preformed and reinforced through the medium of food work in public and private spheres At the same time as this study demonstrates migration modifies and transfigures such identities and produces hybrid cultures and cuisines

The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora Sanaz Fotouhi, 2022-08-25 The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture English language and Western cultures this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian African and Asian writing in English Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio political position and historical context from which they have emerged Fotouhi brings together introduces and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration narration and identity Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs maintains and negotiates their Individual and communal identities and reflects today s socio political realities This book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East Tribeswomen of Iran Julia Huang,2014-09-19 Since the revolution in 1979 the Islamic Republic of Iran has permitted very few Western scholars to conduct research in the country Foreign travellers and media persons have limited access and much Iranian scholarship tends to focus on the realms of politics and government Here Julia Huang provides a remarkable account of local tribal Iranian life offering a rare glimpse into the daily rhythms and social richness beyond the capital city of Tehran The Qashqa i are a confederation of nomadic tribes of which the Qermezi Red Ones are one migrating semiannually between winter pastures near the Persian Gulf and summer pastures southwest of the city of Isfahan Huang has visited and traveled with the Qermezi for extended periods across fourteen years Drawing on her experiences participation and observation she offers an intimate window onto their life She focuses on a small group of women spanning four generations who are part of a large extended family and describes their ways of life their activities and interactions and their distinctive sociocultural and ecological setting Like other nomadic peoples around the world the Qashqa i increasingly face pressures that threaten their livelihoods lifestyles and culture Huang shows us how women negotiate compromises between customary tribal values and external influences and sketches their efforts to resist the influences of an Islamizing modernizing and centralizing government With shadows and resonances that rebound across the stories of these women Huang is able to present multiple perspectives on events and contentious issues for instance the politicized issue of women s state mandated modest dress Huang also explains how the Turkic speaking Qashqa i relate to the wider Iranian society and the Islamic Republic of Iran adapting to a rapidly changing world while retaining tribal values and a distinctive ethnolinguistic identity as one of Iran s national minorities In describing life at the local level in Iran Huang depicts a community largely beyond the scope and reach of foreign travellers and the Western media With rich ethnographic description and analysis intimate portraits of the private lives and spaces of women and children and diverse perspectives this engagingly written account documents a disappearing way of life Tribeswomen of Iran is essential reading for all those interested in Iran the Middle East anthropology nomadism and gender
