Blood Red Sunset A Memoir Of The Chinese Cultural Revolution:

Blood Red Sunset Bo Ma,1995 In a startlingly vivid strangely objective personal narrative Ma Bo who was denounced as an active counterrevolutionary in 1968 opens a window on the Chinese psyche that no work of history can provide telling a passionate tale of a humanity that survives against all odds a tale of ideology and disillusionment that will speak to all readers Blood Red Sunset Lao-kuei,1995 Studies Of China And Chineseness Since The Cultural Revolution - Volume 2: Micro Intellectual History Through De-central Lenses Chih-yu Shih,Mariko Tanigaki,Tina Clemente,2023-01-04 Studies of China and Chineseness since the Cultural Revolution Volume 1 Reinterpreting Ideologies and Ideological Reinterpretations How did the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution affect everyone's lives Why did people re negotiate their identities to adopt revolutionary roles and duties How did people who lived with different self understandings and social relations inevitably acquire and practice revolutionary identities each in their own light This book plunges into the contexts of these concerns to seek different relations that reveal the Revolution's different meanings Furthermore this book shows that scholars of the Cultural Revolution encountered emotional and intellectual challenges as they cared about the real people who owned an identity resource that could trigger an imagined thread of solidarity in their minds The authors believe that the Revolution's magnitude and pervasive scope always resulted in individualized engagements that have significant and differing consequences for those struggling in their micro context It has impacted a future with unpredictable collective implications in terms of ethnicity gender memory scholarship or career The Cultural Revolution is therefore an evolving relation beneath the rise of China that will neither fade away nor sanction integrative paths Memoirs from the Beijing Film Academy Zhen Ni,2002 Presents for the first time in English and in depth account of the origins of China's famous Fifth Generation of filmmakers Cultural Revolution Manuscripts Lena Henningsen,2021-10-06 This book investigates handwritten entertainment fiction shouchaoben wenxue which circulated clandestinely during the Chinese Cultural Revolution Lena Henningsen's analyses of exemplary stories and their variation across different manuscript copies brings to light the creativity of these readers turned copyists Through copying readers modified the stories and became secondary authors who reflected on the realities of the Cultural Revolution Through an enquiry into actual reading practices as mapped in autobiographical accounts and into intertextual references within the stories the book also positions manuscript fiction within the larger reading cosmos of the long 1970s Henningsen analyzes the production circulation and consumption of these texts considering continuities across the alleged divide of the end of the Mao era and the beginning of the reform period The book further reveals how these texts achieved fruitful afterlives as re published bestsellers or as adaptations into comic books or movies continuing to shape the minds of their audience and the imaginations of the past Chapter 5 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com Memory, Fluid Identity, and the Politics of Remembering Li Li,2016-06-21 The Chinese Cultural Revolution is the single most important internal social event in contemporary Chinese history The plethora of history literary and artistic representations inspired by this event are critical to our understanding of the diversified often contested interpretations of contemporary China Li Li s critical examination of autobiographic filmic and fictional presentations in Memory Fluid Identity and the Politics of Remembering The Representations of the Chinese Cultural Revolution in English speaking Countries demonstrates that memory works not only reflect memories of those who lived through that period but memories about their past and more importantly about their identity remapping and artistic negotiation in a cross cultural environment Out of the Crucible Zuoya Cao,2003-01-01

Out of the Crucible offers an informative and inviting study of the novels and short stories of the lives of the zhiqing the Chinese urban youth who were sent to rural areas during the rustication movement in the second phase of the Cultural Revolution Author Zuoya Cao a former zhiqing herself covers the works authors themes characters and plots of zhiqing literary writing from the late 1970s to the late 1990s She teases out the significant themes of zhiqing literature heroism and idealism suffering and internal transformation moral dilemmas and the loss of innocence love and cultural difference sexual and spiritual oppression zhiqing peasant relations the relationship between man and nature and the conflict between the desire to leave the countryside and the attachment to it Through a perceptive analysis of the treatment of these themes drawing on her extensive knowledge of Chinese literary and social history in addition to her own experiences Cao reveals the emotional aspects of the rustication movement and the humanistic significance of the zhiqing experience and enriches our understanding of modern Chinese literature and history Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace Yihong

Pan,2003-01-01 In Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace Yihong Pan tells her personal story and that of her generation of urban middle school graduates sent to the countryside during China s Rustication Movement Based on interviews reminiscences diaries letters and newspaper accounts the work examines the varied and often perplexing experiences of the seventeen million Chinese students sent to work in the countryside between 1953 and 1980 Rich in human drama Pan s book illustrates how life in the countryside transformed the children of Mao from innocent ignorant yet often passionate believers in the Communist Party into independent adults Those same adults would lead the nationwide protests in the winter of 1978 79 that forced the government to abandon its policy of rustication Richly textured this work successfully blends biography with a wealth of historical insight to bring to life the trials of a generation and to offer Chinese studies scholars a fascinating window into Mao Zedong s China Tapestry of Light Yiju Huang,2014-12-22

Tapestry of Light offers an account of the psychic intellectual and cultural aftermath of the Chinese Cultural Revolution Drawing on a wide range of works including essay fiction memoir painting and film the book explores links between history trauma and haunting Challenging the leftist currents in Cultural Revolution scholarship the tone pervading the book is a rhythm of melancholia indeterminacy but also hope Huang demonstrates that aesthetic afterlives resist both the conservative nostalgia for China s revolutionary past as well as China s elated false confidence in the market driven future Huang engages with prominent Chinese intellectuals writers artists and filmmakers including Ba Jin Han Shaogong Hong Ying Zhang Xiaogang Jiang Wen and Ann Hui

Biography of a Chairman Mao Badge Melissa Schrift, 2001 An innovative look at the changing symbolic value of Chairman Mao badges from the Cultural Revolution to the present day Biography of a Chairman Mao Badge is a work of cultural history that contributes to our understanding not only of Chinese society but more generally of strategies people employ in responding to and transforming the meaning of propaganda campaigns and symbols Mao's Children in the New China

Yarong Jiang, David Ashley, 2013-10-08 Around 18 million young Chinese people were sent to the countryside between 1966 and 1976 as part of the Cultural Revolution Mao's Children in the New China allows some of them to tell their moving stories in their own voices for the first time In this inspiring collection of interviews with former Red Guards members of the first generation to be born under Chairman Mao talk frankly about the dramatic changes which have occurred in China over the last two decades In discussing the impact these changes have had on their own lives the former revolutionaries give a direct insight into how ex Maoists view contemporary China revealing an attitude perhaps more critical than that of most Western commentators These poignant memoirs tell the very personal stories of how people from all walks of life were affected by both the cultural revolution and Deng Xiaoping's economic reforms They cover subjects as diverse as marriage and divorce the privatization of industry family relationships universities and the stock market Mao's Children in the New China is essential reading for all those interested in learning more about the personal and social history of modern China

Consciousness, Social Theory and International Relations Derick Becker, 2024-12-30 This book engages contemporary research in the neurobiology of consciousness specifically how Integrated Information Theory IIT understands and models consciousness as an emergent phenomenon In a thorough yet accessible discussion of IIT the book explores the implications of IIT for social science and International Relations theory particularly concerning the emergent nature of social and political systems It is intended to be accessible to non specialists and professional social scientists alike The idea is to put forward a bold set of ideas that engage longstanding and contemporary debates in a format that is useful to scholars while remaining clear and cogent enough for the novice The author's intention is to balance the scholarly in an accessible way primarily by making a few focused scholarly points elaborated with minimal esoteric language and relying on endnotes

Style in Translation: A Corpus-Based Perspective Libo Huang, 2015-01-26 This book attempts to explore style a traditional topic in literary translation with a corpus based approach A parallel corpus consisting of the English translations of modern and contemporary Chinese novels is introduced and used as the major context for the research The style in translation is approached from perspectives of the author the source text the translated texts and the translator Both the parallel model and the comparable model are employed and a multiple complex model of comparison is proposed The research model both quantitative and qualitative is duplicable within other language pairs Apart from the basics of corpus building readers may notice that literary texts offer an ideal context for stylistic research and a parallel corpus of literary texts may provide various observations to the style in translation In this book readers may find a close interaction between translation theory and practice Tables and figures are used to help the argumentation The book will be of interest to postgraduate students teachers and professionals who are interested in corpus based translation studies and stylistics

Representation of the Cultural Revolution in Chinese Films by the Fifth Generation Filmmakers Ming-May Jessie Chen, S. M. Mazharul Haque, 2007 This book examines historical events related to the Chinese Cultural Revolution between 1966 and 1976 focusing mainly on the work of the so called Fifth Generation filmmakers who experienced the Cultural revolution first hand and produced movies about it though attention is also given to films from Third Fourth and Sixth Generation directors Assuming that fictional films can be seen as an agent enhancing our historical understanding this study employing an interdisciplinary approach involving history philosophy literature and ideology and using the Chinese Cultural Revolution as an example attempts to examine how such a theory of film might fit into a philosophy of history while also aiming to find places where film and history intersect

The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications, 2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume

Historical Injustice and Democratic Transition in Eastern Asia and Northern Europe Kenneth Christie, Robert Cribb, 2003-08-29 The memory of past atrocity lingers like a ghost at the table of democracy Injustices carried out in the past from massacres and murder to repression and detention embitter societies and distort their structures so that the process of establishing and running a democracy carries an extra burden This volume examines societies at various stages of dealing with the memory of the past from China Mongolia Indonesia and the Baltic States where bitter memories of death and persecution still intrude to Finland where the civil war of 1918 has finally been accepted as a distant national tragedy

China's Environmental Challenges Judith Shapiro, 2013-04-17 China's huge environmental challenges are significant for us all They affect not only the health and well being of China but the very future of the planet In this trailblazing book noted China specialist and environmentalist Judith Shapiro investigates China's struggle to achieve sustainable development against a backdrop of acute rural poverty and soaring middle class consumption Using five core analytical concepts to explore the complexities of this struggle the implications of globalization the challenges of governance contested national identity the evolution of civil society and problems of environmental justice and equity Shapiro poses a number of pressing questions Do the Chinese people have the right to the higher living standards enjoyed in the developed world Are China's environmental problems so severe that they may shake the government's stability legitimacy and control To what extent are China's environmental problems due to patterns of Western consumption And in a world of increasing limits on resources and pollution sinks is it even possible to build an equitable system in which people enjoy equal access to resources without taking them from successive generations from the poor or from other species China and the planet are at a pivotal moment the path towards a more sustainable development model is still open But as Shapiro persuasively argues making this choice will require humility creativity and a rejection of business as usual The window of opportunity will not be open much longer Chapter 1 The Big Picture is available online Teaching Recent Global History Diana B. Turk, Laura J. Dull, Robert Cohen, Michael R. Stoll, 2014-03-05 Teaching Recent Global History explores innovative ways to teach world history beginning with the early 20th century The authors unique approach unites historians social studies teachers and educational curriculum specialists to offer historically rich pedagogically innovative and academically rigorous lessons that help students connect with and deeply understand key events and trends in recent global history Highlighting the best scholarship for each major continent the text explores the ways that this scholarship can be adapted by teachers in the classroom in order to engage and inspire students Each of the eight main chapters highlights a particularly important event or theme which is then complemented by a detailed discussion of a particular methodological approach Key features include An overarching narrative that helps readers address historical arguments Relevant primary documents or artifacts plus a discussion of a particular historical method well suited to teaching about them Lesson plans suitable for both middle and secondary level classrooms Document based questions and short bibliographies for further research on the topic This invaluable book is ideal for any aspiring or current teacher who wants to think critically about how to teach world history and make historical discussions come alive for students The Columbia Companion to Modern East Asian Literature Joshua S. Mostow, 2003 This extraordinary one volume guide to the modern literatures of China Japan and Korea is the definitive reference work on the subject in the English language With more than one hundred articles that show how a host of authors and literary movements have contributed to the general literary development of their respective countries this companion is an essential starting point for the study of East Asian literatures Comprehensive thematic essays introduce each geographical section with historical overviews and surveys of persistent themes in the literature examined including nationalism gender family relations and sexuality Following the thematic essays are the individual entries over forty for China over fifty for Japan and almost thirty for Korea featuring everything from detailed analyses of the works of Tanizaki Jun ichiro and Murakami Haruki to far ranging explorations of avant garde fiction in China and postwar novels in Korea Arrayed chronologically each entry is self contained though extensive cross referencing affords readers the opportunity to gain a more synoptic view of the work author or movement The unrivaled opportunities for comparative analysis alone make this unique companion an indispensable reference for anyone interested in the burgeoning field of Asian literature Although the literatures of China Japan and Korea are each allotted separate sections the editors constantly kept an eye open to those writers works and movements that transcend national boundaries This includes for example Chinese authors who lived and wrote in Japan Japanese authors who wrote in classical Chinese and Korean authors who write in Japanese whether under the colonial occupation or because they are resident in Japan The waves of modernization can be seen as reaching each of these countries in a staggered fashion with eddies and back flows between them then complicating the picture further This volume provides a vivid sense of this dynamic interplay Chinese Literature in the Second Half of a Modern Century Pang-Yuan Chi, David Der-wei Wang, 2000-09-22 an important contribution to the study of recent Chinese literature Choice

This fine scholarly survey of Chinese literature since 1949 discusses such trends as modernism nativism realism root seeking
