Bloody Ridge Michael S. Smith, 2003      Twenty-five Best World War Two Sites Chuck Thompson, 2002 This indispensable guidebook leads war buffs and casual travelers alike to the 25 best battle sites, memorials, plane wrecks and relics of World War II      Air & Space Power Journal spr 02 ,      Gona's Gone! David W. Cameron, 2023-08-02 With the Australian troops crossing of the Kumusi River in mid November 1942 after pushing the Japanese back along the Kokoda Track to the north coast of Papua New Guinea the time had come to face the entrenched Japanese at their beachheads at Gona, Sanananda and Buna. The Japanese were determined to fight to the last man in the defence of these critical positions. The first beach to be captured by the Australians was Gona which fell on 9 December after bitter fighting. This however was not the end of the fighting around this beachhead as just west of Gona on the opposite side of Gona Creek a larger Japanese Force had been landed which was intent on not only reinforcing Gona but also Sanananda and Buna both located east of Gona. The fighting west of Gona Creek would be just as brutal and deadly as the fighting to take the Gona Beachhead. Even so after this fighting Australian and American troops operating together for the first time in the Pacific War were still bogged down in the battles to take Sanananda and Buna; the fighting at these beachheads would continue into January 1943.

Shadow Warriors Dick Camp, 2013-07-14 This author recounts the origins and special training of the Raider battalions and tells exciting stories of Marines behind enemy lines in Europe, Asia, Africa and the Pacific. P 4 of cover      Armor, 2002 The magazine of mobile warfare      Imprisoning the Enemy Nikolaos Theotokis, 2024-11-30 Offers a vivid examination of Axis prisoners of war during World War II detailing their experiences, circumstances and the complexities of their captivity in various theatres from 1940 to 1945. Prisoners of war (POWs) are an important part in the history of the Second World War. Nikolaos Theotokis in this vividly written book examines the subject taking a closer look at the hundreds of thousands of Axis military personnel including women, mostly German, who were held in POW camps, POW cages, prisons or forced labor camps after being captured by or surrendering to Allied forces between 1940 and 1945 in the North African, European and Pacific theaters of operations. Hundreds of cases of officers of the Wehrmacht and the SS as well as of the Royal Italian and the Imperial Japanese Armies have been grouped by the author in two main categories: those who were taken prisoner by Allied forces and those who surrendered to them. This is not a book about military might but about people, many of whom were proven innocent victims of circumstance. Officers who committed suicide to avoid capture and others who were charged and punished as war criminals are separately presented along with a great number of foreign volunteers who were captured by or surrendered to Allied forces during the war after joining units of the German or the Japanese Armies. Members of the military and secretarial staff of Adolf Hitler who were imprisoned after the German capitulation are also highlighted in the book along with cases of high ranking officers in co-belligerent Romania who were harshly punished by their country's post-war communist authorities for being anti-communists and for having fought against the Red Army. Another category also examined by the author are the German prisoners who were handed over to Joseph Stalin by the western Allies in May 1945 as a gesture of friendship although the Soviet Union had not signed the Geneva Convention This book is a concise authoritative account of the Axis POWs being also an unrivaled source of information on the subject Air Force Magazine, 2000-07

Saving Port Moresby David W. Cameron, 2022-09-21 Commemorating the 80th Anniversary of the Battles in New Guinea David W Cameron one of Australia s leading military historians new Kokoda Campaign series will take you from the Battle for Isurava to Port Moresby and finally the retaking of Kokoda For the first time these significant battles of Australian troops are comprehensively explored After taking Kokoda Plateau in late July 1942 Japanese forces entered the Owen Stanley Range their mission was to capture Port Moresby After the battles for Deniki and Isurava the Japanese pushed south through the mountains The Australians were in a determined fighting withdrawal After a delaying action at Templeton s Crossing they took up a position along Mission Ridge south of Efogi Village After two days of bloody hand to hand fighting in a battle known as Butcher s Corner the Australians were again forced to withdraw After further delaying actions fewer than 300 Australians took up a position on Ioribaiwa Ridge just 50 kilometres north of Port Moresby They were reinforced by the 25th Brigade After a week of fighting the Japanese cut through the 25th forcing the Australians to fall back to Imita Ridge the last defensible ridge in the Owen Stanleys immediately behind lay Port Moresby Give the Bastards Hell David W. Cameron, 2025-03-05 In New Guinea s jungles a fierce battle turned the tide of the Pacific War the first major land defeat for the unstoppable Japanese forces By mid August 1942 Imperial Japanese forces dominated the Southeast Asian and Pacific theatres seemingly unstoppable in their advance While the Japanese South Seas Force pushed north toward Port Moresby along the Kokoda Track they launched an operation against Milne Bay at the eastern tip of New Guinea Their objective to seize the crucial Allied airfields under construction which would pave the way for capturing Port Moresby and consolidating their hold on the region For two intense weeks Japanese marines supported by tanks and naval bombardments battled through the jungle covered strip of land between the beaches and mountains Facing them was a determined and diverse Allied force Australian militia 2nd AIF troops American engineers and critically Australian fighter pilots who fought the Japanese to a standstill near the partially completed Air Strip No 3 Despite desperate human wave attacks by the Japanese the Allies held their ground When the smoke cleared the Japanese had suffered their first significant land defeat since Pearl Harbor The Battle of Milne Bay marked a turning point in the Pacific War signalling the beginning of the end for the Imperial Japanese Empire Parameters, 2001

Power Journal win 02 ,      Western Power in Asia Arthur Cotterell, 2011-08-04 For centuries the major powers of the West were seduced by the allure of the countries of the Far East Spices textiles silk and tea were the staples of East West trade But competition between Western traders eventually caused military intervention in Asian affairs and the establishment of colonial empires These actions have shaped the history of mankind and left a legacy that still reverberates throughout Asia Western Power in Asia is a unique contribution to the understanding of present day Asia Essential reading for anyone interested in world history Arthur Cotterell offers fascinating insights into five hundred extraordinary years of power and influence by the West which disappeared spectacularly after the Second World War The author's ability to tell both sides of the story with the aid of contemporary illustrations as well as quotations makes this book a tremendous resource for students of Asian history And because the entire colonial experience is covered for the first time within a single volume Western Power in Asia also provides the general reader with an unusual and invaluable perspective on East West relations As countries such as China and India become key players on the world stage Western Power in Asia provides a timely reminder of the path that led to their present positions while allowing a poignant opportunity to reflect on how they might in future treat their Western trading partners
