Almost Golden Jessica Savitch And The Selling Of Television News:

Almost Golden Gwenda Blair, 1989-01-01 American Television News: The Media Marketplace and the Public Interest Steve M. Barkin, 2016-09-16 This concise history of the news broadcasting industry will appeal to both students and general readers Stretching from the radio days of the 1920s and 1930s and the early era of television after World War II through to the present the book shows how commercial interests regulatory matters and financial considerations have long shaped the broadcasting business The network dominance of the 1950s ushered in the new prominence of the anchorman a distinctly American development and gave birth to the golden age of TV broadcasting which featured hard hitting news and documentaries epitomized by the reports by CBS's Edward R Murrow Financial pressures and advertising concerns in the 1960s led the networks to veer away from their commitment to serve the public interest and tabloid television celebrity gossip driven soft news and news magazines became increasingly widespread In the 1980s cable news further transformed broadcasting igniting intense competition for viewers in the media marketplace Focusing on both national and local news this stimulating volume examines the evolution of broadcast journalism It also considers how new electronic technologies will affect news delivery in the 21st century and whether television news can still both serve the public interest and maintain an audience

TV News Anchors and Journalistic Tradition Kimberly Meltzer, 2010 Through the lens of TV news anchors this book examines the impact that television news has had on traditional journalistic standards and practices It provides a historical overview of the impact they have had on American journalism uncovering the changing values codes of behavior and boundaries of the journalistic community book cover New York Magazine, 1988-06-13 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Mass Media and the Shaping of American Feminism, 1963-1975 Patricia Bradley, 2009-09-18 Beginning in 1963 with the publication of Betty Friedan's The Feminine Mystique and reaching a high pitch ten years later with the televised mega event of the Battle of the Sexes the tennis match between Billie Jean King and Bobby Riggs the mass media were intimately involved with both the distribution and the understanding of the feminist message This mass media promotion of the feminist profile however proved to be a double edged sword according to Patricia Bradley author of Mass Media and the Shaping of American Feminism 1963 1975 Although millions of women learned about feminism by way of the mass media detrimental stereotypes emerged overnight Often the events mounted by feminists to catch the media eye crystalized the negative image All feminists soon came to be portrayed in the popular culture as bra burners and strident women Such depictions not only demeaned the achievements of their movement but also limited discussion of feminism to those subjects the media considered worthy primarily equal pay for equal work Bradley's book examines the media traditions that served to curtail understandings of feminism Journalists following the craft formulas of their trade equated feminism with the bizarre and the unusual Even women journalists could not overcome the rules of What Makes News By the time Billie Jean King confronted Bobby Riggs on the tennis court feminism had become a commodity to be shaped to attract audiences Finally in mass media's pursuit of the new counter feminist messages came to replace feminism on the news agenda and helped set in place the conservative revolution of the 1980s Bradley offers insight into how mass media constructs images and why such images have the kind of ongoing strength that discourages young women of today from calling themselves feminist The author also asks how public issues are to be raised when those who ask the questions are negatively defined before the issues can even be discussed Mass Media and the Shaping of American Feminism 1963 1975 examines the media's role in creating the images of feminism that continue today And it poses the dilemma of a call for systematic change in a mass media industry that does not have a place for systematic change in its agenda

Now the News Edward Bliss, Jr., 2010-06-01 Walter Cronkite Making It in Broadcasting Leonard Mogel, 2010-08 Almost Golden Gwenda Blair, 1988 A network correspondent at age 30 Jessica Savitch came up on the fast track in the hectic hard driving field of TV news But by the time of her accidental death in 1983 Jessica plagued by drugs depression and disastrous romances had already lost the race A look at TV news where the quest for celebrity and the values of journalism collide Photos "Good Night, Chet" Lyle Johnston, 2003-03-24 If a judgment were ever rendered on all the multi million words I have spoken into microphones I hope something like this could be said He Huntley had a great respect almost an awe of the medium in which he worked He regarded it as a privilege not a license Perhaps the best I might hope is that by some accident of voice tone or arrangement of words I did on a few occasions excite exhort annoy or provoke a few of my fellow human beings to think with their heads not the viscera Chet Huntley This biography of NBC newsman Chet Huntley who along with David Brinkley anchored NBC's Huntley Brinkley Report covers his youth on a farm in Montana his education and his graduation from the University of Washington his development as a radio personality and news reporter for stations in Seattle Spokane Portland and his work for CBS ABC and NBC radio and television in Los Angeles from 1939 to 1955 It also details his move to New York and his work on the Huntley Brinkley Report from 1956 to 1970 his retirement from the news business his supervision of the development of the Big Sky Ski resort in Montana and his death from cancer in 1974 at the age of 62 MediaWriting W. Richard Whitaker, Ronald D. Smith, Janet E. Ramsey, 2013-03-01 MediaWriting is an introductory hands on textbook for students preparing to write in the current multimedia environment Rather than just talk about the differences among the styles of print broadcast and public relations MediaWriting synthesizes and integrates them while weaving in basic principles of Internet writing and social media reporting Complete with real world examples practical writing exercises and tips and information for entering into the profession MediaWriting continues to give students the tools they need to become a successful media writer The new edition has been extensively rewritten to reflect the dynamic nature of the profession paying significant attention to how the Internet and social media have become essential communication tools for print and broadcast journalists and public relations professionals Further updates and features include Increased attention to computer assisted reporting the preparation of online copy and social media applications Two new chapters on lead writing and new new media A separate chapter focused solely on ethics Explanatory how to boxes that help students understand and retain main themes Illustrative It Happened to Me vignettes from the authors professional experiences Discussion questions and exercises at the end of every chapter Suggested readings that highlight biographies books and websites that expand the scope and definition of professionalism In addition to new multimedia elements the fourth edition s companion website features enhanced resources for both students and instructors including chapter overviews writing tips a test bank sample critiques and a sample syllabus

Women and Journalism Deborah Chambers,Linda Steiner,Carole Fleming,2004 Women and Journalism offers a rich and comprehensive analysis of the roles status and experiences of women journalists in the United States and Britain Drawing on a variety of sources and dealing with a host of women journalists ranging from nineteenth century pioneers to Martha Gellhorn Kate Adie and Veronica Guerin the authors investigate the challenges women have faced in their struggle to establish reputations as professionals This book provides an account of the gendered structuring of journalism in print radio and television and speculates about women s still emerging role in online journalism Their accomplishments as war correspondents are tracked to the present including a study of the role they played post September 11th

All of the People, All of the Time Jarol B. Manheim,2020-09-10 This book is about the uses and abuses of political communication in contemporary American society employing numerous anecdotes and examples and drawings upon the latest research and theories of communication and political science in America

News, Gender and Power Stuart Allan,Gill Branston,Cynthia Carter,2002-01-31 How do gender relations affect the practice of journalism Despite the star status accorded to some women reporters and the dramatic increase in the number of women working in journalism why do men continue to occupy most senior management positions And why do female readers viewers and listeners remain as elusive as ever News Gender and Power addresses the pressing questions of how gender shapes the forms practice institutions and audiences of journalism The contributors who include John Hartley Pat Holland Jenny Kitzinger and Myra Macdonald draw on feminist theory and gender sensitive critiques to explore media issues such as ownership and control employment and occupation status the representation of women in the media the sexualization of news and audience research Within this framework the contributors explore media coverage of the trial of O J Simpson British beef and the BSE scandal the horrific crimes of Fred and Rosemary West child sexual abuse and false memory syndrome the portrayal of women in TV documentaries such as Modern Times and Cutting Edge

Making Local News Phyllis Kaniss,1997-12-08 Why do crimes and accidents earn more news coverage than development and policy issues affecting thousands of people Filled with revealing interviews with both journalists and city officials Making Local

News is the first comprehensive look at how the economic motives of media owners professional motives of journalists and the strategies of media wise politicians shape the news we see and hear thereby influencing urban policy Making Local News by Phyllis Kaniss is significant If we can continue to get smarter about that which journalism leaves out or distorts in its coverage of politics we may eventually get smarter about politics itself Mitchell Stephens The Philadelphia Inquirer View A convincing analysis of the factors and forces which color how and why local issues do or do not become newsworthy Michael H Ebner Journal of Interdisciplinary History This work serves as a reminder of the importance of a medium that is often overlooked until economic realities threaten its very existence Choice Kaniss is truly a pioneer in the study of local news Susan Herbst Contemporary Sociology Covering the Body Barbie Zelizer,1992-10-15 Covering the Body the title refers to the charge given journalists to follow a president is a powerful reassessment of the media s role in shaping our collective memory of the assassination at the same time as it used the assassination coverage to legitimize its own role as official interpreter of American reality Of the more than fifty reporters covering Kennedy in Dallas no one actually saw the assassination And faced with a monumentally important story that was continuously breaking most journalists had no time to verify leads or substantiate reports Rather they took discrete moments of their stories and turned them into one coherent narrative blurring what was and was not professional about their coverage New York Magazine ,1988-06-13 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1988-06-13 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Girl Reporter Howard Good,1998 Good examines Hollywood s infatuation with the girl reporter challenging the prevailing critical notion that the girl reporter has been one of the few women on screen portrayed as equal to any man Talking Book Topics ,1989 Includes audio versions and annual title author index Three Blind Mice Ken Auletta,1992 What happened to network television in the 1980s How did CBS NBC and ABC lose a third of their audience and more than half of their annual profits Ken Auletta author of Greed and Glory on Wall Street tells the gripping story of the decline of the networks in this epically scaled work of journalism He chronicles the takeovers and executive coups that turned ABC and NBC into assets of two mega corporations and CBS into the fiefdom of one man Larry Tisch whose obsession with the bottom line could be both bracing and appalling Auletta takes us inside the CBS newsroom on the night that Dan Rather went off camera for six deadly minutes into the screening rooms where NBC programming wunderkind Brandon Tartikoff watched two of his brightest prospects for new series thud disastrously to earth and into the boardrooms where the three networks were trying to decide whether television is a public trust or a cash cow Rich in anecdote and gossip scalpel sharp in its perceptions Three Blind Mice chronicles a revolution in American business and popular culture one that is changing the world on both sides of the television screen
