Almost Starring Dad:

A Place for Dad Natasha Shamone-Gilmore, 2013-09-30 My first book is like a journal of the day to day events that occurred in the family while I and others cared for my father mother and brother since 2010 This is not a memoir This is a true life journal The stories are real The people are still living except my brother who passed away May 25 2013 Almost Starring Dad Suzanne Allen, 1990 Berry and Terry have secretly entered a video contest Dad is in for a major surprise He doesn't know it but he's about to become the star Dad's Army Goes to War Melody Foreman, 2024-12-30 For decades the classic evergreen BBC comedy Dad's Army has entertained millions of viewers around the world But the farcical antics of Walmington-on-Sea's bumbling Home Guard platoon camouflage the true military service of some of the actors themselves Despite their light-hearted appearance many of the cast saw active service in one or even both of the world wars and much of it far from humorous The inspiration behind the sitcom was the experiences of one of its writers Jimmy Perry who as a young 16 year old wannabe comedian was still waiting for his call-up papers when he joined the eager warriors of the Home Guard in 1940 Little did he know how decades later that ribald group of men in the Watford battalion would provide the inspiration which put his name up in lights Indeed was it Perry's own goofy gullibility as a teenager that helped form the character of Private Pike Also admitted Perry the affable Lance Corporal Jones in real life Clive Dunn a former prisoner of war who served in the 4th Queen's Own Hussars was partly based on an old soldier Perry knew who had served in the Sudan This veteran recalled being told by a CO to piss on your rifle to cool it down Perry went on to serve in India in the Royal Artillery and then later with Combined Services Entertainment As a twenty year old British Army officer David Croft was stationed in North Africa when a raft of comical events including his struggles with a Bofors gun went on to shape the calamities which befall the Dad's Army troopers theater mad Derbyshire lad Arthur Lowe who played the redoubtable Captain Mainwaring was thin with knobby knees when he was seconded to the No 2 Field Entertainment Unit in Egypt Meantime languid good-mannered actor John Le Mesurier reported for duty with the Royal Tank Regiment complete with golf clubs in his car boot By 1943 he was ironically enduring life in Deolali Doolally in India when he had a captaincy thrust upon him until being demobbed in 1946 The astonishing bravery of actor and playwright Arnold Ridley who was denied a DSO and a Military Medal for his actions during the First World War makes for heart-rending reading His creation of dear old Private Godfrey won him millions of adoring fans The classical actor John Laurie Private We're all doomed Frazer was also a hero of the trenches Always dry-witted he once made everyone laugh on set when he remarked I've played every part in Shakespeare I was considered to be the finest Hamlet of the 1920s and I had retired and now I am famous for doing this crap That each man including the mocking Laurie helped turn Dad's Army into everlasting success will never be forgotten And why Well in reality they had seen war and knew war and yet always completely realised and understood how the power of laughter is the ultimate triumph Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD'S BEST MEMORIES

AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazzz Humber's epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond. This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished. It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years. The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations. Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections. And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events. Mr. Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston. With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood's shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States. It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured. But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr. Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad's Best Memories and Recollections. Dear Daddy Series Panda Bloom, 2024-10-10. I shouldn't. I can't. It's bad. It's forbidden. But I'm a bad person. And the forbidden fruit NEVER has tasted this GOOD. My Father's Sins Dale Rains, Rains Dale Rains, 2009-10. The Reverend Michael Richey, rector of St. Christopher's Episcopal Church and chaplain to the Madison Police Department, is blessed with a beautiful family, an enthusiastic congregation, and a fulfilling ministry to the homeless men and women of Madison, South Carolina. However, when the police discover the body of a homeless man in a street side stairwell, MPD Chief Detective Jerry Majors surprisingly implicates Father Mike in the old man's murder. To prove his innocence, Mike pledges to find the killer himself despite the strong objections of his close friend, Police Detective Carlos Ruiz, and his beloved bishop, the Right Reverend Barbara Michener. Then Mike makes an earth shattering discovery: the killer is targeting him, and not only him but also his ten year old son Tim. Now he's working against time. He must find the killer now. See the author's website at www.DaleOsbornRains.com. Almost a Near Miss A. B. Harrington, 2025-03-04. This is an account of curious detours and substitute routes taken in the life of A. B. Harrington III. Mr. Harrington was born in nondescript fashion in Sanford, North Carolina, during World War II. It has since remained nondescript. Mr. Harrington fell short in attaining the colorful aspirations his father had for him, but his parents continued to love him in spite of his failures and missteps. He has led a life full of silver spoons. This book is about how Jesus Christ miraculously rescued him from making a tragic mess of his life. Boys Love Forts Jimmy James Jr., 2022-03-10.
