Almost There The Onward Journey Of A Dublin Woman:

Almost There Nuala O'Faolain, 2003 The author considers the changes taking place in her middle years during which she made decisions that would significantly impact the future and reassessed her friendships and romances Almost There Nuala O'Faolain, 2003-12-01 In Almost There Nuala O'Faolain begins her story from the moment her life began to change in all manners of ways subtle radical predictable and unforeseen Narrating Irish Female Development, 1916-2018 Jane Elizabeth Dougherty, 2024-12-31 Narrating Irish Female Development 1916 2018 studies narratives of Irish female and feminized development arguing that these postmodern narratives present Irish female maturation as disordered and often deliberately disorderly The first full length study of the Irish female coming of age story the book develops a feminist psychoanalytic narratology derived from the belated oedipalization of Joyce's bildungsheild to read these stories This study argues that all Irish maturation stories are shaped by the uneven and belated maturation story of the Irish republic itself which took as its avatar the Irish woman whose citizenship in that republic was unrealized as indeed was her citizenship in an Irish republic of letters Dougherty takes the writing of Irish women as seriously as other critics have taken Joyce's work

British and Irish Women Writers and the Women's Movement Jill Franks, 2013-02-07 This study pairs selected Irish and British women novelists of three periods relating their voices to the women's movements in their respective nations In the first wave nationalist and militant ideologies competed with the suffrage fight in Ireland Elizabeth Bowen's The Last September illustrates the melancholy of gender performance and confusion of ethnic identity in the dying Anglo Irish Ascendancy class In England suffrage ideologies clashed with socialism and patriotism Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway contains a political unconscious that links its characters across class and gender In the second wave heterosexual romantic relationships come under scrutiny Edna O'Brien's Country Girls trilogy reveals ways in which Irish Catholic ideologies abject femaleness her characters internalize this abjection to the point of self destruction Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook pits the protagonist's aspirations to write novels against the Communist Party's prohibitions on bourgeois values In the third wave Irish writers express the frustrations of their cultural identity Nuala O'Faolain's My Dream of You takes her protagonist back to Ireland to heal her psychic wounds In England Thatcherism had created a materialistic culture that eroded many feminists socialist values Fay Weldon's Big Woman satirizes the demise of second wave idealism asking where feminism can go from here The New Single Woman E. Kay Trimberger, 2006-10-15 Drawing on stories from diverse women who have been single for many years Trimberger explodes the idea that fulfillment comes only through coupling with a soulmate Instead she presents an exciting new identity for women in the twenty first century the new single woman a woman who is content with her single life These gripping personal accounts of how single women's lives evolve over time combined with Trimberger's incisive analysis blend to provide a much needed cultural roadmap for every single woman who is striving to create a satisfying and meaningful life Trimberger's all inclusive paradigm shifting notion is one that ultimately strengthens and enriches both single women and couples Mná Na Héireann Nicola Depuis, 2009 From Queen Medbh to Mary McAleese Constance Markiewicz to Nell McCafferty this is a collection of profiles of women who have shaped Ireland For too long when people discuss Irish heroes and important figures only men have been cited Mná na hÉireann addresses that tendency and offers an impressive array of women who have brought change and progress to Ireland From the mythical era through the Middle Ages the Plantation the Famine the struggle for independence and the early years of the state right up to the twenty first century Mná na hÉireann profiles over 50 formidable Irish women The Cambridge Companion to the Irish Novel John Wilson Foster, 2006-12-14 This is the perfect overview of the Irish novel from the seventeenth century to the present day Irish Autobiography Claire Lynch, 2009 No further information has been provided for this title The Poetry of Eavan Boland Pilar Villar-Argaiz, 2008 Pilar Villar Arg iz s sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way the key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland s politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture Professor Anne Fogarty University College Dublin from the Introduction This monograph is an original and important contribution to the growing body of critical studies devoted to one of Ireland s major living poets Eavan Boland see Haberstroh 1996 Hagen Zelman 2005 It details the controversies that were prompted by the inclusion of Ireland in a postcolonial framework and then tests the application of an array of cogent theories and concepts to Boland s work In an attempt to explore the richness and complexity of her poetry Villar Arg iz discusses the contradictory pulls in her desire to surpass and yet at the same time epitomize Irish nationality Boland s remarkable achievement as a poet lies in her ability to stretch by constant negotiations and re appropriations the borderlines of inherited definitions of nationality and femininity Chapters include Re examining the postcolonial Gender and Irish studies Towards an understanding of Boland s poetry as minority postcolonial discourse A post nationalist or a post colonial writer Boland s revisionary stance on Mother Ireland To a third space Boland s imposed exile as a young child The subaltern in Boland s poetry Boland s mature exile in the US An Orientalist writer and Conclusion Review This rigorous and informative exploration of the poetry of Eavan Boland by Pilar Villar Arg iz proves the validity of drawing upon the resources of postcolonial theory to illuminate her work Through the lens of postcolonialism the deep seated preoccupations and complex imaginative foundations of Boland s writing are carefully excavated and interpreted Villar Arg iz moreover in her observant close readings of poems from different phases of the author s oeuvre reveals how recurrent issues such as the problem of national and cultural identity the ethical responsibility of engaging with the past and the quest for fluidity and openness are variously engaged with both aesthetically and philosophically Villar Arg iz s sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland s politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to
