Along The Road To Soweto A Racial History Of South Africa:

Along the Road to Soweto K. C. Tessendorf, 1989 Traces the history of South Africa from the arrival of the Bantus 2000 years ago to the 1976 Soweto riots to the present day Examines race relations the origins of apartheid and the different peoples who settled in South Africa The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about CliffsNotes on Paton's Cry, the Beloved Country Richard O Peterson, 2007-08-20 The original CliffsNotes study guides offer a look into critical elements and ideas within classic works of literature CliffsNotes on Cry the Beloved Country takes you into a compassionately told story set in the troubled and changing South Africa in the 1940s Focusing on a people who are caught between two worlds the old with its rituals and and respect and the new with its lack of values and order this study guide explores a novel of social protest through character analyses and critical essays Other features that help you figure out this important work include Profile of the author Alan Paton s life and work Historical background of the troubled and changing South Africa of the 1940s Character web and in depth analyses of the major roles Summaries and commentaries for each chapter within the book Review questions and suggestions for theme topics Classic literature or modern day treasure you ll understand it all with expert information and insight from CliffsNotes study guides Public History and Culture in South Africa Ali Khangela Hlongwane, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, 2019-04-11 The post apartheid era in South Africa has in the space of nearly two decades experienced a massive memory boom manifest in a plethora of new memorials and museums and in the renaming of streets buildings cities and more across the country This memorialisation is intricately linked to questions of power liberation and public history in the making and remaking of the South African nation Ali Khangela Hlongwane and Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu analyse an array of these liberation heritage sites including the Hector Pieterse Memorial and Museum the June 16 1976 Interpretation Centre the Apartheid Museum and the Mandela House Museum foregrounding the work of migrant workers architects visual artists and activists in the practice of memorialisation As they argue memorialisation has been integral to the process of state and nation formation from the pre colonial era through the present day Smashing the Liquor Machine Mark Lawrence Schrad, 2021 When most people think of the prohibition era they think of speakeasies gin runners and backwoods fundamentalists railing about the ills of strong drink In other words in the popular imagination it is a peculiarly American event Yet as Mark Lawrence Schrad shows in Smashing the Liquor Machine the conventional scholarship on prohibition is extremely misleading for a simple reason American prohibition was just one piece of a global wave of prohibition laws that occurred around the same time Schrad s counterintuitive global history of prohibition looks at the anti alcohol movement around the globe through the experiences of pro temperance leaders like Thomas Masaryk founder of Czechoslovakia Vladimir Lenin Leo Tolstoy and anti colonial activists in India Schrad argues that temperance wasn't American exceptionalism at all but rather one of the most broad based and successful transnational social movements of the modern era In fact Schrad offers a fundamental re appraisal of this colorful era to reveal that temperance forces frequently aligned with progressivism social justice liberal self determination democratic socialism labor rights women's rights and indigenous rights By placing the temperance movement in a deep global context he forces us to fundamentally rethink all that we think we know about the movement Rather than a motley collection of puritanical American evangelicals the global temperance movement advocated communal self protection against the corrupt and predatory liquor machine that had become exceedingly rich off the misery and addictions of the poor around the world from the slums of South Asia to central Europe to the Indian reservations of the American west Unlike many traditional dry histories Smashing the Liquor Machine gives voice to minority and subaltern figures who resisted the global liquor industry and further highlights that the impulses that led to the temperance movement were far more progressive and variegated than American readers have been led to believe

Racial Domination Loïc Wacquant, 2024-06-07 Race is arguably the single most troublesome and volatile concept of the social sciences in the early 21st century It is invoked to explain all manner of historical phenomena and current issues from slavery to police brutality to acute poverty and it is also used as a term of civic denunciation and moral condemnation In this erudite and incisive book based on a panoramic mining of comparative and historical research from around the globe Loïc Wacquant pours cold analytical water on this hot topic and infuses it with epistemological clarity conceptual precision and empirical breadth Drawing on Gaston Bachelard Max Weber and Pierre Bourdieu Wacquant first articulates a series of reframings starting with dislodging the United States from its Archimedean position in order to capture race making as a form of symbolic violence He then forges a set of novel concepts to rethink the nexus of racial classification and stratification the continuum of ethnicity and race as disguised ethnicity the diagonal of racialization and the pentad of ethnoracial domination the checkerboard of violence and the dialectic of salience and consequentiality This enables him to elaborate a meticulous critique of such fashionable notions as structural racism and racial capitalism that promise much but deliver little due to their semantic ambiguity and rhetorical malleability notions that may even hamper the urgent fight against racial inequality Wacquant turns to deploying this conceptual framework to dissect two formidable institutions of ethnoracial rule in America Jim Crow and the prison He draws on ethnographies and historiographies of white domination in the postbellum South to construct a robust analytical concept of Jim Crow as caste terrorism erected in the late 19th century He unravels the deadly symbiosis between the black hyperghetto and the carceral archipelago that has coproduced and entrenched the material and symbolic marginality of the African American precariat in the metropolis of the late 20th century Wacquant concludes with reflections on the politics of knowledge and pointers on the vexed question of the relationship between social epistemology and racial justice Both sharply focused and wide ranging synthetic yet controversial Racial Domination will be of interest to students and scholars of race and ethnicity power and inequality and epistemology and theory across the social sciences and humanities History of South Africa Thula Simpson, 2022-09-01 South Africa was born in war has been cursed by crises and ruptures and today stands on a precipice once again This book explores the country's tumultuous journey from the Second Anglo Boer War to 2021 Drawing on diaries letters oral testimony and diplomatic reports Thula Simpson follows the South African people through the battles elections repression resistance strikes insurrections massacres crashes and epidemics that have shaped the nation Tracking South Africa's path from colony to Union and from apartheid to democracy Simpson documents the influence of key figures including Jan Smuts Nelson Mandela Steve Biko P W Botha Thabo Mbeki and Cyril Ramaphosa He offers detailed accounts of watershed events like the 1922 Rand Revolt the Defiance Campaign Sharpeville the Soweto uprising and the Marikana massacre He sheds light on the roles of Gandhi Churchill Castro and Thatcher and explores the impact of the World Wars the armed struggle and the Border War Simpson's history charts the post apartheid transition and the phases of ANC rule from Rainbow Nation to transformation state capture to New Dawn Along the way it reveals the divisions and solidarities of sport the nation's economic travails and painful pandemics from the Spanish flu to AIDS and Covid 19 Books for the Teen Age New York Public Library, 1990 The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books, 1990 Congressional Record United States. activists globally AF Press Clips ,1980 Marikana Julian Brown,2022 In August 2012 the South African police at the encouragement of mining capital and with the support of the political state intervened to end a week long strike at the Lonmin platinum mine in Marikana in South Africa's North West Province On the afternoon of Thursday 16 August they police shot and killed 34 men Hundreds more were injured some shot as they fled None posed a threat to any police officer Recognised by many as an event of international significance in stories of global politics and labour relations the perspectives of the miners has however been almost missing from published accounts This book for the first time brings into focus the men's lives and deaths telling the stories of those who embarked on the strike those who were killed and of the family members who have survived to fight for the memories of their loved ones It places the strike in the context of South Africa's long history of racial and economic exclusion explaining how the miners came to be in Marikana how their lives were ordinarily lived and the substance of their complaints It shows how the strike developed from an initial gathering into a mass movement of more than 3 000 workers It discusses the violence of the strike and explores the political context of the state's response and the eagerness of the police to collaborate in suppressing the strike Recounting the events of the massacre in unprecedented detail the book sets out how each miner died and everything we know about the police operation Finally Brown traces the aftermath the attempts of the families of the deceased to identify and bury their dead and then the state's attempts to spin a narrative that placed all blame on the miners the subsequent Commission of Inquiry and its failure to resolve any real issues and the solidarity politics that have emerged since
