Also A Mother Work And Family As Theological Dilemma:

Also a Mother Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 1994 This book suggests that beneath the everyday scuffles over gender roles and child care lies a religious crisis of work and love As a professor the author asks of Christian teaching How can it respond better to women and men who want to work in fulfilling ways and to love in intimate relationships As a mother she insists that such teaching must at last take seriously what mothers think feel and desire Also a Mother Katharina von Kellenbach, 1996

A Christian Theology of Marriage and Family Julie Hanlon Rubio, 2003 What are Christian families called to be and do in contemporary society Weaving together theology social science and her experience as a wife and mother Julie Hanlon Rubio answers this provocative and timely question She explores the marriage liturgy the New Testament and Christian tradition and then reflects on the ways Christian husbands and wives fathers and mothers and children can live out their vocations in changing times She concludes with chapters on divorce and the mission of the family Relevant academically oriented yet popularly written and filling a need by its attention to family issues this book will make an ideal text for courses in marriage family ethics social justice Christian ethics Christian Theology in Practice Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2012-02-02 For the past fifty years scholars in both pastoral and practical theology have attempted to recapture human religious experience and practice as essential sites for theological engagement redefining in the process what theology is how it is done and who does it In this book Bonnie J Miller McLemore shows how this trend in scholarship has led to an expanded subject matter alternative ways of knowing and richer terms for analysis in doing Christian theology Tracing more than two decades of her own search for a more inclusive discipline one that truly grapples with theology in the midst of life Christian Theology in Practice shows not only where Miller McLemore herself has traveled in the field but also how pastoral and practical theology has developed during this time Looking forward Miller McLemore calls on the academy and Christian congregations to disrupt conventional theological boundaries and to acknowledge the multiplicity of shapes and places in which the wisdom of God appears

Family, Freedom, and Faith Paula M. Cooley, 1996-01-01 Building Community Today

The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah L. Miles, 2001-08-23 In this constructive study Miles proposes a new feminist theological ethic drawing together the contributions of Reinhold Niebuhr Sharon Welch and Rosemary Ruether Seeking to critically reappropriate the Christian realism articulated by Niebuhr she reinterprets solutions to problems emergent from his theology Miles presents feminist Christian realism as an alternative that can reclaim a positive interpretation of divine transcendence and human self transcendence while maintaining newer emphases on human boundedness and divine immanence Theologians and ethicists will find her critical reassessment of the three authors distinctive and her challenging proposal for a positive creative transformation a significant contribution to the development of feminist ethics

Mothering, Public Leadership, and Women's Life Writing Claire Wolfteich, 2017-07-31 In Mothering Public Leadership and Women's Life Writing Claire E Wolfteich presents a series of case studies in Christian spirituality bringing mothers autobiographical writing into focus for theological reflection From the medieval mystic Margery Kempe to the twentieth century activist Dorothy Day from African American preacher Jarena Lee to labor organizer Dolores Huerta the book mines women s first person writing surfacing critical issues for theological analysis Listening deeply to these diverse maternal voices the book advances creative theological reflection on work vocation time poverty Sabbath and spiritual guidance Mothering Public Leadership and Women s Life Writing demonstrates the significance of the study of mothering for theology and spirituality studies and the import of life writing as an underutilized source for practical theology Lively Oracles of God ,2022-03-17 This book reexamines what we often take for granted how Scripture is presented to worshipers how it is heard especially by those with little experience of the life of the church Scripture s role in mediating the great narratives of incarnation and redemption at the high points of the year where Scripture meets people in ritual transition how the Bible itself provides the language of much public prayer Contributors also consider how the relationship between Scripture and liturgy is tested by new priorities the climate crisis the inclusion and protection of children the recognition and honoring of those who find themselves on the margins of the church and the significance of gender and identity in all areas of the church s life This book does not offer definitive statements It is an invitation to a wide audience to engage in new conversations with their practice of worship Contributors include John Baldovin SJ Normand Bonneau OMI Stephen Burns Cally Hammond Christopher Irvine David Kennedy Lizette Larson Miller Ann Loades CBE Anne McGowan Thomas O Loughlin Catherine Reid Armand L on van Ommen Parenting as Spiritual Practice and Source for Theology Claire Bischoff,Elizabeth O'Donnell Gandolfo,Annie Hardison-Moody,2017-12-13 This volume investigates how mothers can understand parenting as spiritual practice and what this practice means for theological scholarship An intergenerational and intercultural group of mother scholars explores these questions that arise at the intersection of motherhood studies religious practice pastoral care and theology through engaging and accessible essays Essays include both narrative and theological elements as authors draw on personal reflection interviews and or sociological studies to write about the theological implications of parenting practice rethink key concepts in theology and contribute to a more robust account of parenting as spiritual practice from various theological perspectives The volume both challenges oppressive religious images of self sacrificing motherhood and considers the spiritual dimensions of mothering that contribute to women s empowerment and well being It also deepens practical and systematic theologies to include concern for the embodied and everyday challenges and joys of motherhood as it is experienced and practiced in diverse contexts of privilege and marginalization Religion, Feminism, and the Family Anne E. Carr,Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen,1996-01-01 Contemporary women s movement and the future of the American family Leading Lives that Matter Mark R. Schwehn,Dorothy C. Bass,2006 Leading Lives That Matter draws together a wide range of texts including fiction autobiography and philosophy offering challenge and insight to those who are thinking about what to do with their lives Instead of giving prescriptive advice Mark Schwehn and Dorothy

Bass approach the subject of vocation as an ongoing conversation They include in this conversation some of the Western tradition s best writings on human life its meaning purpose and significance ranging from ancient Greek poetry to contemporary fiction Including Leo Tolstoy s novella The Death of Ivan Ilych as an extended epilogue this volume will help readers clarify and deepen how they think about their own lives The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson, Sheila Briggs, 2012 This volume highlights the relevance of globalization and the insights of gender studies and religious studies for feminist theology It focuses on the changing global contexts for the field and its movement towards new models of theology distinct from the forms of traditional Christian systematic theology and of secular feminism

Girl/Friend Theology Dori Grinenko Baker, 2023-10-15 Images of God are rooted in us for better but sometimes for worse Adolescent girls and genderqueer teenagers often pay a heavy price when those images are oppressive But the best God images serve to free us all The work can be hard but Girl Friend Theology invites us to the work with joy playfulness and shared commitment Author Dori Baker updates her original work with expanded perspective added voices and stories and an ongoing dedication to liberating faith Family Ministry Diana R. Garland, 1999-12-20 This book by Diana Garland provides a multifaceted well informed sense of both the Christian purpose of family and the complex world our families inhabit Winner of the 2000 Academy of Parish Clergy Book of the Year award From Midterms to Ministry Allan Hugh Cole, 2008-07-02 The distinguished contributors to this volume ministers scholars and theological educators share personal reflections on the sometimes difficult transition from being a seminarian to becoming a minister Based on their own life experiences they address the two related but different worlds of theological school and ministry settings each with its own set of expectations values challenges focal points and rewards Contributors Wallace M Alston Jr Ray S Anderson M Craig Barnes Elizabeth F Caldwell Allan Hugh Cole Jr Pamela D Couture Kathy Dawson Carrie Doebling Michael Jenkins L Gregory Jones Susan Pendleton Jones James F Kay Cleophus J LaRue Thomas G Long Loren B Mead Bonnie J Miller McLemore Earl F Palmer Stephanie Paulsell Anthony B Robinson Carol L Schnabl Schweitzer Theodore J Wardlaw Traci C West William H Willimon J Philip Wogaman Karen Marie Yust When Christ's Body Is Broken Leanna K. Fuller, 2016-03-03 When Christ s Body Is Broken tells the stories of two congregations in conflict Although these churches had very different problems they faced similar struggles to articulate a faithful response to their concerns and to cope with the discord that threatened to tear their communities apart Pastoral theologian Leanna K Fuller shares these stories as a way of exploring the sources and dynamics of conflict in congregations She argues that at the heart of such conflict lies anxiety triggered by encounters with difference Bringing together resources from pastoral theology psychodynamic theory and social psychology Fuller offers a theological reframing of conflict through categories of diversity vulnerability and hospitality categories that she argues can encourage human beings to sit with the anxiety stirred by communal life and remain connected across differences This reframing provides fertile ground out of which Fuller imagines concrete practices designed for conflicted communities and their leaders

The Religious Imagination of American Women Mary Farrell Bednarowski, 1999-10-22 Explores five ideas that animate the theological imagination of women in religious communities throughout America ambivalence toward tradition the immanence or indwelling of the divine the sacredness of the ordinary and the ordinariness of the sacred the vision of the universe as a web of relationships and healing as a central function of religion back cover Misunderstanding Stories

Melinda McGarrah Sharp, 2013-01-24 How can we work toward mutual understanding in our increasingly diverse and interconnected world Pastoral theologian Melinda McGarrah Sharp approaches this multifaceted interdisciplinary question by beginning with moments of intercultural misunderstanding Using misunderstanding stories from her experience working with the Peace Corps in Suriname Dr McGarrah Sharp argues that we must recognize the limits of our own cultural perspectives in order to have meaningful intercultural encounters that are more mutually empowering and hopeful Bringing together resources from pastoral theology ethnography and postcolonial studies she provides a valuable resource for investigating the complexity of providing care and fostering communities of belonging across cultural differences McGarrah Sharp illustrates a process of moving from disconnection to regard for diverse others as neighbors who share a common yearning for hopeful and meaningful connection Leaders in faith communities practitioners of care and scholars will all be able to use this resource to better understand the conflicts tensions and uncertainties of our postcolonial twenty first century world An included discussion guide facilitates classroom study small group discussion and personal reflection Let the Children Come Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2019-03-01 Explore what faithful parenting might look like today In Let the Children Come Bonnie J Miller McLemore explores the question What does faithful parenting look like today As she addresses this query she updates outmoded and distorted assumptions about and conceptions of children in popular US culture She also shows important insights and contributions religious traditions and communities Christianity in particular make as we examine how to regard and treat children well Miller McLemore draws on historical and contemporary understandings of Christianity psychology and feminism to push back against negative trends such as the narcissistic use of children for adult benefit the market use of children to sell products and the failure to give children meaningful roles in the domestic work of the family and the life of wider society Miller McLemore views children as full participants in families and religious communities and as human beings deserving of greater respect and understanding than people typically grant them In particular the book rethinks five ways adults have viewed and misperceived children as victims sinful gifts work the labor of love and agents Reimagining children she proposes will lead to a renewed conception of the care of children as a religious practice From Culture Wars to Common Ground, 2000-01-01 What is the status of the American family How is it changing Are these changes making anything better What is the future of the family Does religion offer a positive answer Not since Habits of the Heart has one book confronted these important issues with such personal and societal impact This groundbreaking study argues for the creation of a new family ethic that must be central to the agendas of both contemporary society and the church The Family Culture and Religion series offers informed and responsible analyses of the state of the American family from a religious perspective and provides practical assistance for the family's revitalization
